

Printing Office Melody.

THE PRESSMAN.

Print up, my boys, turn quick the rounce, And let the work begin, The world is pressing on without, And we must press within—

Let fly the frisket now, my boys! Who are more proud than we? While wait the anxious crowd without, The force of power to see,

And you who twirl the roller there, Be quick, you inky man! Old Time is rolling on his feet, So beat him if you can;

Though high in office is our stand, And pi-ous is our case, We would not cast a slur on those, Who fill our lower place;

Full up, my boys, turn quick the rounce, And thus the chase we'll join; We have deposits in the bank, Our drawers are full of coin;

The Editor and the Burglar.

A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY THAT WAS IMPROVED BY BOTH OF THEM.

Once upon a time a country editor awoke in the night to find a burglar hunting through all the pockets of his clothes.

"I am in search of money," replied the burglar, as he turned the last pocket inside out, "but, alas! I fear I have got into the wrong house. I have found nothing but a bit of lead pencil and a ticket to a magical gift show.

"One moment," said the editor, "I do not think you are a subscriber to my paper. Allow me to call your attention to its superior features. All the local news—a carefully selected miscellany—impartial editorial discussions of the leading questions—a household department that will delight your wife—a religious department that will direct the wayward steps of the wicked to the straight and narrow path—no objectionable advertisements inserted, and only $2 a year, strictly in advance. I shall be glad to enter your name on my list. You doubtless know that every man should support his local press.

"I am glad you have called my attention to this matter," said the burglar, "and I will subscribe. Here are $2 and my address on the bureau. You are a man of business.

"Yes," replied the editor, "I never miss an opportunity to push trade."

"Nor I, neither," said the burglar, "and therefore I will steal the $2 I have just paid you for subscription."

And pocketing the bill, the burglar climbed out of the window and slid down the lightning rod. —Middletown Transcript.

A man in Washington this time is up in arms against telegraph wires strung across his building. He advertised that unless they were removed he would remove them, and reports that all have been taken down except one and that one he proposes to take off as soon as he finds a ladder long enough to reach it. He says: "The objection is not so much the wires as it is the cheek of these men who go tramping over your roof just as if they owned it, and if it began to leak they would have it mended. You can't walk over a tin roof without injuring it, and I propose to see in the future that no one goes there without my consent. I have posted notices in the skylight and on the walls, announcing that I will cut down all wires put up on my building, and so I will." The war against this nuisance is getting general. Ultimately all these wires will have to be put under ground.

The widow Hill, whose intended marriage to Bishop Warren of the Methodist Episcopal Church has been briefly announced by telegraph, owns the handsomest house in Denver and the largest ranch in Colorado. The wealth left her by her cattle king husband six years ago is estimated at from $1,000,000 to $6,000,000. Bishop Simpson of Philadelphia performed the ceremony on the 27th inst.

A female missionary who has been laboring in China says she was often bothered by the Chinese women, who wanted to know her age, and whether she was married or not. In one case a woman, turning to a crowd about her, said in a tone of surprise: "Forty years and not married yet?" and she kept repeating this as though she was much shocked at the intelligence.

It is stated in Ottawa that the transfer of Canadian Pacific stock from New York to London is rapidly going on, it being considered a profitable purchase in Europe, as an investigation at present quotations show it is paying the New York market.

HALL'S Vegetable Sicilian HAIR RENEWER

was the first preparation perfectly adapted to cure diseases of the scalp, and the first successful restorer of faded or gray hair to its natural color, growth, and youthful beauty.

The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote countries, where they had never made an effort for its introduction.

The use for a short time of HALL'S HAIR RENEWER wonderfully improves the personal appearance. It cleanses the scalp from all impurities, cures all humors, fever, and dryness, and thus prevents baldness. It stimulates the weakened glands, and enables them to push forward a new and vigorous growth. The effects of this article are not transient, like those of alcoholic preparations, but remain a long time, which makes its use a matter of economy.

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE WHISKERS

Will change the beard to a natural brown, or black, as desired. It produces a permanent color that will not wash away. Consisting of a single preparation, it is applied without trouble.

MRS. SOPHIA POTTER'S Bone Rheumatic Liniment

IT is a fact worth knowing that Mrs. Sophia Potter's Bone Rheumatic Liniment cannot be excelled for removing pain and soreness. It is no worthless trash, as some may suppose, simply because they have been imposed upon by others, but is positively the "King of Pain." Sore throat cannot stand before its power.

All we ask is a trial that you may be convinced of the truth of our statement. Our experience is that one bottle tried also sells many more.

See circular for particulars and testimonials, and try a bottle—it will not fail to do all that is promised.
