DOCTOR HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED
GERMAN BITTERS,
prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON,
German Medicine Store,
No. 120 Arch St., one door below Sixth Philada.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of Invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of the liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching power in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal safe, certain, and pleasant.

Testimony from Maine.

CAPT. DANIEL ABBOTT, Brooklyn, Maine, July 16, 1843, says: "I was taken sick one year ago, last April, upon my passage from Havanna to Charleston, S. C. At the latter place I took medicine and procured a physician, but for ten days could obtain no relief, no sleep or appetite. At last taking up a newspaper having your advertisement of 'Hoofland's German Bitters' in it, I sent for some immediately, this was about 10 o'clock, at 11 o'clock I took the first dose, and another at 6 o'clock. The effect was so rapid on me, that I had a good appetite for supper, and rested well that night, and the next day found me a well man. I have not been without your medicine since, having been sailing between Baltimore, Charleston and the West India Islands ever since. I have now given up going to sea, and reside in this place, where you should have an agency, as you could sell large quantities of it."

JOS. B. HALL & CO., Presque Isle, Aroostook Co., Maine, April 24, 1854, say: "We herewith send you a certificate of a cure performed by the use of only one bottle of the German Bitters, we think Mr Clark to be a man of veracity, and have no doubt of the truth of his story,"

Messrs. Jos. B. Hall & Co.—Gentlemen—In answer to your inquiries, I will state that my daughter, aged about 16 years, had been complaining of a pain in her side, for six or seven years, and about the first January last, was taken down and confined to her bed. The pain in her side was very severe, besides being troubled with pains between her shoulders and in her breast. From reading a number of cures performed by "Hoofland's German Bitters" I was induced to try it in her case, and sent to your store and purchased one bottle. She had taken it but a few days when she began to improve, and now, after taking only one bottle, she is enjoying better health than she has for years. She feels no pain in her side or in any part of her body, and attributes her cure entirely to the German Bitters. WILLIAM CLARK,
Salmon Brook, Aroostook Co., Me.

You should bear in mind that these Bitters are ENTIRELY VEGETABLE, thereby possessing advantages over most of the preparations recommended for similar diseases.

For sale by respectable dealers and storekeepers generally.

The Infallible Remedy!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

ERYSIPELAS OF EIGHT YEARS' DURATION CURED.

Copy of a Letter from Geo. Sinclair, Esq., of Paris, Canada, dated the 18th July, 1854.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I feel a pleasure and a pride in bearing witness to the wonderful benefit I have derived by the use of your inestimable Ointment and Pills. For eight years I suffered unceasingly from attacks of erysipelas; large purple blotches came all over my body; in addition to the unpleasant feeling of itching and burning, which affected me both night and day, rendering life a misery to me, as well as to all around,—so severe was the attack. I used several reputed remedies without deriving the least cessation to my misery. At last, I determined to try your Ointment and Pills; after taking them for a few weeks, a visible improvement took place, and I fee considerably better;—in three months, by continuing with your medicines, I was completely cured, and now enjoy the best of health. The truth of this statement is well known here, hence there is no necessity for me to request secrecy.

I am, Sir, yours respectfully,
(Signed) GEO. SINCLAIR.

ULCERS IN THE LEG,—REMARKABLE CURE.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Edward Tomkinson, of Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, dated the 4th May, 1854.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—My sister, Miss Jane Tomkinson, suffered for a great number of years from a bad leg; in which there were several deeply seated and old wounds, defying the skill of some of the most eminent of the medical faculty, a variety of remedies were also used unsuccessfully; and it seemed to me that there was not any thing capable of mitigating the agonies she endured. At length, she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and after using them for about five weeks she was completely cured, after all other means had failed to afford her the slightest relief. I have no objection to these facts being published, if you feel disposed to make them known.

I remain, Sir, your most obedient servant.
(Signed) EDWd. TOMKINSON.

A BAD BREAST CURED WHEN AT DEATH'S DOOR!

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Henry Malden, o Three Rivers, Canada West, dated July 9th,, 1854

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—My wife suffered most severely after the birth of our last child with a bad breast. There were several holes in it one as large as a hand; all the devices and stratagems I tried would not heal them, but it assumed an aspect more frightful than before, and horrible to behold. As a last resource I tried your Ointment and Pills, which she persevered with for seven weeks, at the expiration of that time her breast was almost well; by continuing with your remedies for two more weeks, she was entirely cured, and we offer you our united thanks for the cure effected. I am, Sir, yours truly,

(Signed) HENRY MALDEN.

Dr. DE ROOS, from long practical experience in the most celebrated institutions of this country and the continent, has had, perhaps, unusual opportunities of observing the peculiarities relating to the physiology, pathology, and general treatment of the disorders referred to in the above work, and having devoted his studies almost exclusively to this class of diseases, he is enabled confidently to undertake their removal in as short a time as is consistent with safety.

PERSONS IN ANY PART OF THE WORLD, may be successfully treated by forwarding a correct detail of their case, with a remittance for Medicines, &c. which will be returned with the utmost despatch, and secure from observation.

THE BEST ESTATE.

BY CHARLES SWAIN.

The Heart it hath its own estate—
The Mind it hath its wealth untold;
It needs not fortune to be great,
While there's a coin surpassing gold.

No matter which way fortune leans,
Wealth makes not happiness secure;
A little mind hath little means—
A narrow heart is always poor.

Stern Fate the greatest still enthrals,
And Misery hath its high compeers;
For Sorrow enters palace halls,
And queens are not exempt from tears.

The princely robe and beggar's coat,
The scythe and sword, the plume and plough,
Are in the grave of equal note—
Men live but in the eternal "Now!"

Still disappointment tracks the proud,
The bravest 'neath defeat may fall;
The high, the rich, the courtly crown
Find there's calamity for all.

'Tis not the house that honour makes—
True honour is a thing divine;
It is the mind precedence takes—
It is the spirit make the shrine!

So keep thou yet a generous heart,
A steadfast and contented mind;
And not till death consent to part
With that, which friend to friend doth bind.

What's uttered from the life within
Is heard not by the life without;
There's always something to begin
'Twixt life in faith and life in doubt!

But grasp thou Truth—though black appears
The rugged path her steps have trod—
She'll be thy friend in other spheres;
Companion in the world of God.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Sambo, is your master a good farmer ?'' O, yes massa, fust rate farmer—he make two crops in de year.' How is that Sambo?' 'Why he sell all his hay in de fall, and make money once; den in de spring he sells de hides ob de cattle dat die for want ob hay, and make money twice.

"DON'T you think I look very young?" said a giddy lady to a gentleman who happened to be a great wag. "Yes," he replied; "you look as if you had just come from a boarding-school; but it is to be hoped that in a year or two you will be able to read, write, sit, stand, walk, and talk."

"Do let me have your daguerreotype;" said a dashing belle to a gentleman, who had been annoying her with his attentions. The gentleman was delighted, and in a short time the lady received the picture. She gave it to her servant and asked—"Would you know the gentleman if he should call?" The servant replied in the affirmative.

"Well, when he comes, tell him I am engaged."

"WHAT's that?" asked Mrs. Partington, looking up at the column on the Place Vendone, during her late visit to Paris.

"The pillar of Napoleon," was the answer. "Well, I never did!" she exclaimed, and "that's his pillow! he was a great man to use that!" but it's more like a bolster. And it's made of iron, I do believe. Ah, Isaac! see what it is to be great! how hard his head must have rested on that ironical pillow!"

TRUE DIGNITY.—A mason from Balmoral was examined in the Jury Court. The presiding judge, Lord Deas, spoke rather sharply to the man, who replied, "Just allow me to take time, I'm no accustomed to sic a company." On his leaving the box he said to the bystanders, "The Queen has been in my hut, and speaks pleasantly, and draws the bairns' pictures; I would far rather speak the Queen than to yon man wi' the big wig."

A WIFE.—In the play of "Love and Reason," old Gen. Gordon is persuading Adjutant Vincent to marry.

"She is an angel" says the General.

"I don't want an angel;—I should not know what to do with an angel!" is the reply of the single hearted Adjutant.

"She's all sweetness," rejoins the General.

"So is a bee hive," answers Vincent; "but it does not follow that I should like to thrust my head into it!"

An Irishman giving a description of a toad, said that he was a "baist what lies close to the ghround, has a tundering big side at one end and no tail at all at all."
