HOME.

Home's not merely four square walls,
Though with pictures hung and gilded
Home is where affection calls,
Filled with shrines the heart hath builded!
Home—go watch the faithful dove
Sailing 'neath the heaven above us—
Home where there is one to love!
Home is where there's one to love us!

Home's not merely roof and room,
It needs something to endear it;
Home is where the heart can bloom,
Where there's some kind lip to cheer it
What is home with none to meet?
None to welcome, none to greet us?
Home is sweet, and only sweet,
Where there's one we love to meet us!

PLEASANTRIES.

HIBERNIAN CONSOLATION.—A few days since, a party of "Emeralders" obtained admission to the gaol at Durham, on a visit to their countryman, M'Cormack, who had to take his trial on a charge of murder. Having intimated to the prisoner that they had collected a sufficient sum to retain counsel for his defence, they were about to take their leave; when one of the party, shaking him by the hand, administered this truly Hibernian piece of consolation:—"Ah, thin, Martin, my boy, keep up yer sperits: sure its no consequence whether ye're hanged or transported, so long as ye get justice done to yez!" Poor Martin, unable to appreciate the force of this logic, only replied by a burst of tears. He was subsequently found guilty of manslaughter, and sentenced to twelve months' imprisonment. —Durham Advertiser.

LOSING A CHARACTER.—A young Irish servant-girl, coming from Albany recently in one of the night steamers, had the luck to lose the "recommendation" which had been given her on leaving her last place. She brought, however, the accompanying "ticket," which she presented to a friend of ours:—"This is to say that Kathleen O'Brian had a good character when she left Albany, but she lost it on board the steamer coming down from Albany."

THE NEGRO AND THE PARROT.—A negro, passing down the street, was saluted by a loquacious parrot from a window with "How do, Sambo," "Good morning, Snowball," &c. &c. The negro, indignant at the annoyance, turned about, but seemed to imagine that he had a complete revenge, by bawling out—"Ah, Hah! all ver well; you live in fine golden house now, but I knew your fader when he lived in de bush."

A NOVEL MOUSETRAP.—On Saturday, a person named Jerome, in St. Martin's, Haverfordwest, purchased a small quantity of oysters, which he placed in a back room; in the course of a quarter of an hour he went into the apartment, and there discovered that two mice had been actually caught by one oyster, and their heads broken by the shells, when attempting to purloin the fish.—Carmarthen Journal.

THE difference between a suit of clothes and a suit at law is this—one provides you with pockets, and the other empties them.

MEDICAL INTELLIGENCE FROM AUSTRALIA.—A surgeon writes from the Gold Fields to say that he has now quite discarded the lancet, and opens the vein with a pickaxe. —Punch.

The difference between the Printers and the Doctors errors, is, that those of the former are published to the world, while those of the latter are buried with the patient.

The venerable Dr. Lyman Beecher, in a recent Boston sermon, said that preacher's ideas should stand out like rabbits' ears, so that people could grab hold of them, hold on to them, and get something for their pains. A very fine suggestion.

"I am a great gun," said a tipsy printer who had been on a bender for a week. 'Yes,' said the foreman, 'you are a great gun and half cocked, and you can consider yourself 'discharged."
"Well," said the typo' "then I had better go off."

AN INTERESTING INCIDENT.

Franklin, the Philosopher, when quite a young man after an absence of some time from home, thought he would try the extent to which instinct in a parent would discover the child. The result was, that his mother was loth to give him a shelter over night, though a severe snowstorm was raging, and would only allow him the use of an arm-chair to sleep in, having the colored boy stay in the same room, after the precaution of locking up all her silver. Her instinct was more than overcome by her prudence, and she, with bitter tears, to the last of her life, regretted that her son had thus been treated in his mother's house as a felon.

One of our townsmen, on a recent visit to New-England, after a thirteen years absence, thought he would try Franklin's experiment. He rapped at his father's door, mentioning that he was weary, and asked if he could have a lunch, as it was some distance to an inn. It was his father who met him at the door, and asked him in, after telling him he could be supplied with food. The mother was not in the room, but as the father asked her to bring the refreshments, she came in

With the feelings and emotions of a child, unknown under a parent's roof, our hero had turned his back, that on opening the door his face might not at first be seen. He proceeded to partake of what they hospitably set before him. Mentioning that he came from Rochester, N. Y., our friend was at once questioned if he knew one there whose name was R ——, "Oh, yes I knew him well," was the reply. "He is a hatter in the city, and made my hat,"—showing it, with the maker's name inside.

'Well,' says the mother, "you must give me the lining, at any rate, for it's a long time since we have seen our son."

At this our friend could not further hesitate to make himself known—and what followed all can well imagine.

$3 per year.

P. T. BARNUM, Special Partner; H. D. & A. E. BEACH, General Partners.

THE ILLUSTRATED NEWS is published weekly, and contains sixteen large pages, filled with a great variety of interesting reading matter and numerous larges and handsome engravings. It is intended that this paper shall be a FAITHFUL and BEAUTIFUL PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE WORLD, in which scenes and events in this and other countries, sketches and views in all parts of the Globe, Portraits of Public Men, Scenes in our National Capitol, Autographs and Biographies of Eminent Characters, and all matters of general interest to the Community, will be found PROMPTLY ILLUSTRATED. Due attention will be paid to the RELIGIOUS, SCIENTIFIC, and AGRICULTURAL interests of the Country.

A large and handsome engravings, of national interest, is now in course of preparation by the eminent artist F. O. Darley, and will be presented to subscribers.

At the conclusion of each volume, a handsome title page and index will be gratuitously furnished by the publishers. The publishers will procure, at low rates, the uniform binding of the volumes, when desired.

The "Illustrated News and Home Journal," will be supplied to mail subscribers one year for four dollars.

On receipt of orders for back numbers which are on hand will be imediately sent, and missing numbers supplied as soon thereafter as possible. The back numbers of the first volume will be supplied

The "HORTICULTURIST," And Journal of Rural Art and Rural Taste.

THE Subscriber, who has long been connected with Mr. BARRY, as one of the editors of the Genesee Farmer, has purchased the Horticulturist, so ably conducted by A. J. DOWLING, and after the conclusion of the present volume, it will be Published at ROCHESTER, and Edited by P. BARRY, assisted by many of the best Horticulturists of the country, whose communications will materially add to its value. The ARCHITECTURAL DEPARTMENT will be conducted by gentlemen of ability and reputation.

To render the work accessible to a greater number, and consequently more beneficial, the price will be reduced to TWO DOLLARS per year, in advance, and at the same time various improvements made. Each number will contain a full page engraving of some new, rare, and valuable fruit or flower, drawn from nature, and engraved in a style not excelled.

Still further to add to the value of the work, and meet the improving taste and increasing wants of the horticultural community, we shall also publish an edition with COLORED PLATES, each number containing a full page engraving of some new, rare, and valuable fruit or flower, correctly colored from nature, by the best living artists in this line. This will be a new and important feature, in this country, and must command the attention and patronage of both professional and amateur Horticulturists. As the number of colored plates we can furnish will be limited, from the care and time required in their preparation, those who wish the Colored Edition of the Horticulturist for 1853, will do well to order immediately. Price with colored plates, FOUR DOLLARS, in advance.

All who cultivate fruit or flowers, should read the Horticulturist, as it is devoted entirely to Horticulture, and its kindred arts, Landscape Gardening and Rural Architecture, and will keep its readers advised of everything new on the subject, either in Europe or America.

It will be our aim not only to make the Horticulturist superior both in style and matter to any work of the character in this country, but equal to any of the Horticultural Journals of Europe; and we confidently ask the aid and co-operation of the Horticulturists of the country. The work is published monthly, and contains forty-eight large pages, without advertisements, stitched in a beautiful and appropriate cover.
