THERE IS NO FINER PLACE TO DINE . . .

In a handful of cities you will find a restaurant whose name is known beyond state boundaries . . . where dining is always a great occasion and a leisurely visit the greatest compliment you can pay your out-of-town guests . . . where the preparation of food is a career and its service a fine art. There are such restaurants in New York, Boston, Toronto, Montreal. There is such a restaurant in Charlottetown. Its name is
