A VISION OF ST. NICHOLAS.
Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the house
Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse:
The stockings were hung by the chimney with care,
In hopes that St. Nicholas soon would be there.
The children were nestled all snug in their beds,
While visions of sugar-plums danced in their heads;
And mamma in her kerchief, and I in my cap,
Had just settled our brains for a long winter's nap.
When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter,
I sprang from my bed to see what was the matter,
Away to the window I flew like a flash, Tore open the shutters, and threw up the lash.
The moon, on the breast of the new-fallen snow,
Gave a lustre of mid-day to objects below;
When, what to my wondering eyes should appear,
Down the gable side came a sight of hoar,
With a little old driver, so lively and quick,
I knew in a moment it must be St. Nick.
More than an angel, his countenance shone,
And he whistled, and shouted, and called them by name:
"Now, Dasher! now, Dancer! now, Prancer and Vixen!
On, Comet! on, Comet! on, Dasher and Blitzen!"
To the top of the porch, to the top of the wall
Now dash away, dash away, dash away all,
As dry leaves that before the wild hurricane blow,
When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky.
So, up to the housetop, the contrails they rose,
With the sleigh of toys—and St. Nicholas too.
And then in a twinkling I heard on the roof
The prancing and pawing of each little hoof.
As I drew in my head, and was turning around, Down the chimney St. Nicholas came with a hoop.
He was dressed all in fur from his head to his foot,
And his clothes were all tarnished with sweat
and soot;
A bundle of toys he had slung on his back,
And he looked like a peddler just opening his pack.
His eyes how they twinkled! His dimples
how merry,
His cheeks how like roses, his nose like a cherry,
His droll little mouth was drawn up like a bow,
And his beard was so white as the snow,
And he heard on his chin was as white as the
snow,
The stump of a pipe he held tight in his teeth,
And the smoke, it encircled his head like a veil.
He had a broad face and a little round belly,
That shook, when he laughed, like a bowl full of jelly.
He was chubby and plump—a right jolly old fellow,
And I laughed when I saw him in spite of myself.
A wink of his eye, and a twist of his head, Soon gave me to know I had nothing to fear.
He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work,
And filled all the stockings; then turned with a jerk,
And laying his finger aside of his nose,
And giving a nod, up the chimney he rose.
He sprang to his sled, to his team he gave a whistle,
And away they all flew, like the down of a thistle:
But I heard him exclaim, ere he drove out of sight—
"Merry Christmas to all, and to all a good night!"

ENDORSES DR. ROSE.
A Quebec Physician who Certificates Dr.
Rose's Opinion.
PORTLAND, Dec. 3.—The letter of Dr. A.
G. McCormick, of Richmond, Que., testifying to his complete and permanent cure from Bright's Disease by Dr. E. A. Rose's Kidney Pills, has been read with much interest here, supporting as it does the recent letter of Dr. E. A. Rose, of this place, who was cured of Diabetes by the use of these pills. Of course no further corroboration of the curative qualities of Dr. E. A. Rose's Kidney Pills was required other than the testimony of Dr. Rose, but it is a satisfaction to know that other medical men are able to join the Dr. in testifying to the worth of the pills from personal trial.

COD LIVER OIL has long been known to the Medical Profession as perhaps the best single remedy for CONSUMPTION and all other Wasting Diseases—but most singularly, and to the surprise of many, all ailing people have an unconquerable aversion to it, in its crude state.
The Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda are only second to Cod Liver Oil in their curative effects in the above complaints.
In PITTER'S EMULSION the Oil, while retaining all its medicinal virtues, is completely disguised both from eye and palate, so as to be agreeable to the most delicate stomach, while its curative effect is enhanced one hundred per cent. by its scientific association with the salts of Phosphorus.
For sale by all Druggists at 50 cents
