HALIFAX, August 24.—Henry Almon Ancient, aged 26, a son of Rev. W. J. Ancient, the hero of the Atlantic wreck, was drowned this morning while swimming in the harbour.

The body was noticed on the bottom near the shore at Green Bank, by two boys who were in swimming. Ancient went to Green Bank early this morning and was bathing with others.

He was noticed to dive, but it seems that no one paid any attention to his non-appearance and the first known of the sad affair was when the boys brought news that the body was lying on the bottom.

It is Said to Amount to Twenty Million Marks.

Berlin, August 23.—A Dantzig paper publishes an outline of Prince Bismarck's will. The paper asserts that the estate amounts to 20,000,000 marks, although it will be sworn to be three million. Count William Bismarck inherits the Pomeranian estate, with the exception of Rhenfeld, which Prince Herbert Bismarck gets. Prince Herier also receives the valuables deposited in the Bellschoder's Bank, estimated at a million marks, from which he pays Count William 300,000 marks. Countess von Rantzou receives 100,000 marks, and each of William's three daughters gets 100,000 marks.

The Pope's Health.

ROME, Aug. 23.—The Pope yesterday held a reception in honor of his Saint's day. Many prelates, nobles, and representatives of Catholic Associations were in attendance. His Holiness appeared in good health and spirits, and in spite of the length of the reception, which lasted an hour and a half, showed no signs of fatigue. He was the recipient of a large number of gifts.

Securing a Lunatic.

In one of the most fashionable districts of Paris a mock marriage was recently planned for the purpose of securing a rather dangerous lunatic. An attractive young person named Mlle. Delaplume was sitting in her boudoir the other day in a house situated in a street off the Boulevard St. Germain. Suddenly a ring came to the door, and one of her servants, having opened it, ushered in a well dressed man looking like a superior sort of valet. He told Mlle. Delaplume that he had a letter from one of her friends, a countess, and as the young woman put her hand out to receive the missive the stranger seized her fingers, pressed them to his lips, and then, sinking on his knees, made a passionate declaration of love and offered to marry her.

Mlle. Delaplume saw by the man's eyes that he was dangerously mad, and, fearful of a tragedy, she accepted his offer with apparent calmness. Then she invited the strange visitor to the mayor's office in order to have the nuptial knot tied. The man accompanied her with alacrity to the establishment in question, where a secretary, informed of the real state of affairs, pretended to read the civil marriage regulations. The mock bridegroom was then taken by a detective to the police depot under the delusion that he was bound for a pastry cook's, there to give an order for a sumptuous wedding breakfast. The man was, it appears, formerly employed as a valet by one of Mlle. Delaplume's friends.—Paris Letter.

THE MANITOBA SCHOOL QUESTION

Is Not At All Settled Yet.

AN INTERVIEW WITH ARCH-BISHOP LANGEVIN.

Explains the Attitude of the Pope on the Question.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

OTTAWA, Aug. 24.—Archbishop Langevin said, in an interview, that while in Rome he had several interviews with the Sovereign Pontiff on the question of the Manitoba schools.

The Pope is exceedingly reasonable in reference to the school question, said the Archbishop, and if our authorities would only consider the attitude of His Holiness they would willingly agree to concede what he asks.

While I do not wish to be understood to reflecting any discredit on the statement of Mr. Laurier personally, continued his Grace, or in any way connecting his name with the question, I wish to state emphatically that any one who says that there has been a satisfactory settlement of the difficulty, says that which is not in conformity with the truth.

If, added he, the Laurier-Sifton conference at Rat Portage, has resulted in any settlement it is news to me.

The school question will only be settled when the minority receives full and adequate restoration of the rights of which they have been deprived, and then and not till then will the agitation cease.

A Brilliant Fraud.

A small weekly magazine was started here 11 years ago by two hustling young men. One was editor, the other "writer and paster." They clipped, extracted and rewrote. An advertising agent was employed on a commission of 25 per cent, and it was a caution the way he filled up the pages with black type and cuts. Some contracts were made for a month, some for three months, some for a year. The only cash in advance was half of the commission, which was paid as soon as the contract was turned in.

Prosperity peeped from its pages. The magazine rapidly grew fat. In the second week the American News company ordered 14,000 copies. Money flowed out like corn from a hopper and not a cent came in. The writer and paster went around at the end of the month to collect from the 30 day advertisers and what do you suppose happened? He failed to find one! Every advertisement was a fraud. There were no such names, no such businesses, no such addresses as the agent brought in for publication. He happened to have an engagement in New Jersey on that fateful day and never has been seen since. Contracts supposed to be worth $10,000 were not worth a cent. The magazine died.—New York Press.

In a Buddhist Nunnery.

Sir Charles Gordon's "Recollections of Thirty-nine Years in the Army" contains this anecdote: "In 1860, at Tien-tsin, the two Gordons, when seeking for hospital sites, came across a Buddhist nunnery. Despite the warnings of one of the inmates, who appeared in boy's clothes, they entered the building and found that the inmates all wore male clothing. The Buddhist women were greatly shocked at the intrusion.

"Our regret," says Sir Charles, "was real. Explanations were exchanged. We were informed that the community within adopted male costume as an indication that they not only renounced the world, but with it the emblems of their sex. We were 'received' by the lady superior, tea and cakes offered to and partaken of by us. We were then permitted to visit the 'private chapel,' and finally we parted from the religious on the best of terms."
