

CURRENT NOTES.

Senator Logan is the first nominee of the Republican party for the Vice-Presidency since Johnson, who has not been a widower.

Lord Walter Campbell is no longer the lonely lord of the London Stock Exchange. Lord Mandeville's brother, Lord Chester Montague, has joined him.

Some young women of a town in Western Massachusetts think of association for the promotion of co-education. The motto on their corporate seal will be: "If a girl wants to be a fellow with other fellows, let her do it."

Josh Billings believes the market to be over-stocked, and says that the young man who thinks of doing humorous writing as a means of living is simply wasting his time. Ay, and storing up an imposing stock of remorse against his own age.

At Naples, the other day, a steel torpedo-boat was launched which had been built there for the Italian Government. In her trial trip, she not only accomplished the stipulated speed (20 miles an hour), but did 21 1/2 miles, which is believed to be the best time on record.

Gen John B. Gordon, of Georgia, seems to think that the blacks are almost as well off as before the war. Says he:—"The negro is to-day the most favorably circumstanced, the best fed, and the most independent labourers to be found, not only in the country, but in the civilized world."

Franz Hilman, who invented the polka, has just died at Prague at the age of 80. About forty years ago he was struck by the musical rhythm and dainty motion of a Bohemian country dance, and he forthwith composed the first polka that ever appeared in print, borrowing not only the tune but the step.

The New York Commercial matches the magnetic girl: "We have, for example, seen one girl who by the mere act of throwing up her big eyes, fringed with half-inch dark lashes, make four young men, weighing, aggregately, 758 pounds, jump almost out of their skins. We have seen another such maiden, by merely holding up her little finger, make seven men weighing quite 1,309 pounds, fly like so many shot into the supper room after an ice."

There is a tribe of hunting spiders, that leap like spiders on their prey. One of these jumped two feet on to a bumble bee. They approach the object of their intended attack with the noiseless and imperceptible motion of the shadow of a sun-dial. If the fly moves, the spider moves also, backwards, forwards, or sideways, and that with so much precision as to time and distance, that the two insects appear as if bound together by some invisible chain or actuated by the same spirit. If the fly take wing, and pitch behind the spider, the head of the latter is turned round to meet it so quickly that the human eye is deceived, and the spider appears to be motionless. When all these manoeuvres bring the fly within its spring, the leap is made with fearful rapidity, and the prey struck down.

How many times in the year the mistress of the house needs to be reminded of the admonition of a wise woman: "Drive your work, but do not let your work drive you!" That is plan it all out, so that each day's work will clear something from your way. Do not let work accumulate until you live under a weight of uneasiness and of hurry which is destructive of comfort. Deliberate and calm thought will help you. A strong belief in a future will help you—that is, on a cold day do not allow yourself to believe that the boys will not need cotton clothes in July and August, or that you can get along without any summer clothes. And, on the other hand, cherish the thought that it is of consequence that the woolen stockings and wrappers are laid away clean and whole for the coming December. There are women who need to be reminded that to-day is not all of time.—New York Evening Post.

Mr. Neal Dow, in the National Temperance Advocate, says: "We favor high license. We do not want high license, we dislike it; we want no license at all. But when we cannot get what we want, which is prohibition, we will do our best to get high license as a lesser evil than free rum, as a step forward toward prohibition. For what is high license? Is it a permission given by the State to sell liquor? Not at all. They were selling liquor before without the license. This mis-called high license is a scheme for partial prohibition by taxation. It ingeniously prohibits all from selling liquor, who will not pay a heavy tax; and those who pay this tax it leaves for a while the same immunity they had before, until the tide of prohibition shall rise a little higher, so that they too, can be prohibited. Where we can have total prohibition, we will take it gladly. Where we can have only a partial prohibition, as in the State, we will take that with thanks. We do not propose to take our place with the impracticable reformers who say "Give us total prohibition, or if not we will have free rum." We do not want free rum. We will welcome every advance toward prohibition, keeping that as the end ever in view.
