FELL FROM A TRAIN.—On Wednesday night the newsboy on No. 9 train on the Intercolonial fell off the train about three miles west of Pettoodioc. The injuries he sustained were light considering the high rate at which the train was running at the time of the accident, and he is now fast recovering.

A SPECIAL TELEGRAM from Truro to the Moncton Times says:—"The 2.38 race was fairly won by Rand's Messenger Boy; but for some reason the judges awarded him second money. Honest Tom, first; Charlie Morris, 3rd. Messenger Boy breaks the record on this track, trotting a heat against a gale in 2.39.

ANOTHER magazine is about to be added to the list of monthlies. It will bear the name of "The English Illustrated Magazine." It will be published by MacMillan & Company, appearing simultaneously in London and New York. The first number contains an article by Prof. Huxley on "Oysters and the Oyster Question," and a sketch by Wm. Black, the popular novelist, on "The Supernatural Experiences of Patsy Cong." The illustrations are to be of a high order. The magazine is to sell at one dollar and a half a year, or fifteen cents a number.

A MOST remarkable game of cricket was played between two junior clubs at Eastbourne, Sussex, Eng., a few weeks since. The club having the first inning scored 75, and the opposing eleven scored 76, yet the latter defeated the former by an inning and one run. On going to the bat the second time the eleven who had made the 75 were all put out without a run being scored although every man played his best cricket, but the bowling and fielding were perfect. Several instances are on record in England of an eleven failing to score, but under all the circumstances the Eastbourne match is alone.

MESSANGER BOY.—Says the Truro Sun of Wednesday: Among the number of horses that are to compete in the free-for-all race here on Thursday is the beautiful black stallion, "Messenger Boy," lately owned by A. N. Largo of Prince Edward Island, now the property of Silas W. Rand, Moncton, N. B. "Messenger Boy" is sired by old "Bush Messenger," and is the sire of the famous "Nellie Large," that has obtained a record of 2.23. He stands 15 1/2 hands high and weighs 1125 pounds, is pure gaited and a picture on the road. We understand that his owner, Mr. Rand, intends trotting him this fall at the different meetings, and then lay him up for stock purposes next summer. We congratulate Moncton on being the owner of such a fine horse.

A PERILOUS DRIVE.—Recently, says the St. Croix Courier, while driving from Lakenwood, Mr. N. S. Read's residence, on Big Schoodic Lake, N. B., that gentleman and Mrs. Read, together with Mr. and Mrs. W. Simpson, had what most people would consider quite an adventure. On their way down when about eight or nine miles below Princeton, they found the road bound on both sides by walls of flame which, with the roar and crackle, were almost sufficient to appal the stoutest heart. Not desiring to turn back, however, they pushed their horses, which stood the fire bravely, through walls of flame which extended for fully half a mile. The sides of a bridge they crossed were in flames, but they pressed on and were soon rewarded by reaching an open space in a very warm but unobstructed condition.

THE Admiration OF THE WORLD. Mrs. S. A. Allen's WORLD'S Hair Restorer IS PERFECTION! Public Benefactress. Mrs. S. A. ALLEN has justly earned this title, and thousands are this day rejoicing over a fine head of hair produced by her unequalled preparation for restoring, invigorating, and beautifying the Hair. Her World's Hair Restorer quickly cleanses the scalp, removing Dandruff, and arrests the fall; the hair, if gray, is changed to its natural color, giving it the same vitality and luxurious quantity as in youth. COMPLIMENTARY. "My hair is now restored to its youthful color; I have not a gray hair left. I am satisfied that the preparation is not a dye, but acts on the secretions. My hair ceases to fall, which is certainly an advantage to me, who was in danger of becoming bald." This is the testimony of all who use Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER. "One Bottle did it." That is the expression of many who have had their gray hair restored to its natural color, and their bald spot covered with hair, after using one bottle of Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER. It is not a dye. GET THE DAILY EXAMINER, for the Latest News' Local and Telegraphic.
