ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. [April 1 '88]

As I intend leaving the Island for the winter, and going to the far West, where we intend making our future home, we will offer our large and well-assorted stock of Crocker's a great reduction. W. P. Colwill.

Addresses.

To the Rev. T. W. Johnston, Rector of St. John's Church, Crapaud, P. E. I.

REV. AND DEAR SIR,—We have heard it stated, with regret, that it is your intention to resign your charge of St. John's Church, in this place.

We cannot but give expression to our feelings on being informed of your intention to leave, and to declare our estimation of your character, and earnestness in your calling. Ever since your coming amongst us you have always been foremost in advancing the best interests of the community, and in promoting its welfare.

We remember the deep interest always taken in our schools, ever doing what you could to create a taste for literary and intellectual pursuits.

We refer with pleasure to the fact that in times of sickness or sorrow your ministrations were extended to all without respect to class or creed; and we beg to assure you that your kind Christian comforting words and services were highly appreciated by those who were thus benefited by your prayers and help.

The great progress made in the church under your ministrations, temporarily and spiritually, cannot fail to be remembered by your own people and other denominations as well. We hope and believe your labors will be as many laurels in your crown in the happy land to which we all hope to gain beyond the grave.

We notice with extreme pleasure that at a meeting at Georgetown of the Clerical Association, which mainly owes its existence to you, the clergy of the Island paid a just and fitting tribute to your good work generally, and expressed their appreciation of your active Christian services in a very feeling manner.

We also beg to convey to Mrs. Johnston our feelings of deep sorrow in thus parting with one who will ever be remembered by the people of this place, for her many and untiring acts of Christian kindness and charity.

During her residence amongst us she has endeavored herself to all who have had the pleasure of her acquaintance; and now, on the eve of her departure from our midst, we desire to express not only our feelings of regret but also our high appreciation of those services so heartily, cheerfully and charitably tendered.

In parting, we request an interest in your prayers at the Throne of Grace, and sincerely hope that in whatever part of the world you may be called to minister in your most holy calling, you and your family may be blessed with God's most holy and choicest of blessings.

To the Rev. T. W. Johnston, Rector of Crapaud.

REV. AND DEAR SIR,—The undersigned, church people and residents of West River, desire to express to you, in a few words, on the eve of your departure, their warm appreciation of your labors and ministrations as an earnest, energetic and self-denying spiritual pastor, who has worked so successfully in the extensive parish of which this settlement is a part; and to express their sincere regret that you are about to give up your important charge here and leave this Province. It is known and acknowledged by all that it is mainly owing to your zeal and love for souls that the Church of England is represented here by her public service and other of her ministrations; and that it is to your energy and influence that the beautiful building for the worship of Almighty God has been erected in our midst. Your service and kind words of christian cheer have endeared you to us all, and it is with much regret we are called on to separate. We trust, however, that the change will conduce to your health, and hope that you will be long spared to labor for the prosperity and welfare of the Church militant in another parish. With the best wishes and prayers for your success and for the future happiness of yourself and family, we beg to subscribe ourselves.

The above addresses were signed by Ministers and a large number of those of other denominations, besides the members of Mr. Johnston's own congregation.

Domestic Notes.

German children have a very delightful gift which they call "The Wonder Ball." They wind into a worsted ball tiny presents; these presents may be expensive or not, just as the giver chooses. The wonder ball may contain gifts from a number of friends, or may be the offering of a family on a birthday. The receiver of the wonder ball never unwinds it faster than she can knit. Think how delightful it would be to knit from a ball that, like a gift from the fairies, constantly reveals new charms!

The covering of a bed ought to be light as well as warm. Woolen blankets are far more healthful than are heavy comforters, which admit of no ventilation, but, instead, absorb and retain the exhalations from the body. Beds and bed clothing should be aired frequently. Many housewives consider the airing of the sleeping-room all that is necessary, but this is a mistake. Not only should mattresses be turned and aired at least three times a week, but pillows and bolsters ought to be beaten, shaken and exposed to the sun every two or three days. If beds and their furnishings are not carefully cared for the bedding soon emits a stuffy, disagreeable odor, and that odor means sleepless nights, for perfect rest is gained only in a bed that is fresh and clean.

It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. The Tobique Tragedy.

OPENING OF THE TRIAL OF PHILLIPPE AND TRAFTON.

ANDOVER, Sept. 25.

The opening of the trial of Phillippe and Trafton, charged with the murder of Mrs. Howes, on the Tobique River, attracted a large crowd to-day. When Judge Wetmore took his place at 2 o'clock, the courtroom was well filled, many ladies being present. The Grand Jury summoned were in attendance. Judge Wetmore, in opening his charge, dwelt at length upon the cruel and terrible nature of the tragedy. He reminded the Grand Jury that in finding a true bill, as he had no doubt they would do against Phillippe and Trafton, they would not convict, but merely place them on their trial. He read extracts from the depositions of witnesses to show that there was a prima facie case against Phillippe and Trafton, and that the murder had been done deliberately and advisedly. He referred at length to the question of fishing rights, pointing out that Major Howes was acting within his legally acquired right, while the accused were illegally fishing with torches on his licensed quarters. He called attention pointedly to the law which makes guilt equal when persons act together in the commission of offence or crime, and he dealt also with the evidence, such as Phillippe's admissions, finding of rifles and the discharging of shells, the pains taken to fix the rifle rests and Trafton's unconcern after the bloody deed. In conclusion he reminded the Grand Jury that the prisoners would be defended by one of the ablest counsel in the Province. The Jury retired, but at 5.30 adjourned till 9 a. m. to-morrow. There is intense excitement to-night over the fact of the jury failing to come to a decision after sitting two hours. It is correctly reported that there is a possibility of their failing to indict the prisoners.

The case against Day as an accessory to the murder will be brought forward by the crown on a separate indictment after the other cases are disposed of. The delay is caused by the non-arrival of one of the Phillippe girls, whose whereabouts is unknown to the authorities. Major Howes arrived to-night. He goes before the Grand Jury to-morrow. The crown will call twenty-four witnesses and the defence quite a number. The case is likely to occupy some days.

Given up to a Mob.

A Washington despatch of the 25th inst. reports:—The acting Secretary of War, this afternoon, ordered United States troops to Rio Grande city for the protection of life and property there. The city is in the hands of an armed Mexican mob of 400 men of the lowest class of bandits and smugglers. The county officers, Americans and foreigners are barred in their homes. The trouble arose over the shooting on Saturday of Caterino E. Garza, editor of the Comercio Mexicano, a Mexican paper published at Corpus Christi, by United States Inspector of Customs Sebree. Garza was shot in the stomach and mortally wounded. Sebree mounted a horse and fled to Ringold barracks. He was pursued by mounted Mexicans. Col. Glendening, in command of three companies of troops, put Sebree in the guard house. A mob of 200 Mexicans demanded him. Glendening refused and ordered the mob out of the fort under penalty of death. The wires were cut at midnight, but were repaired and are again working. The mob still holds the town. There is a very bitter feeling. Garza is resting comfortably.

Under telegraphic instructions from Governor Ross, Sheriff Bristo organized a posse of 60 men, most of them leading citizens. The better class of Mexican citizens and leading ranchers from the upper part of the county on his line of march also joined it. They left at 6 p. m., and arrived on Wednesday. The greatest terror and terrorism appear to prevail up the river.

Opening the Dark Continent.

The dark Continent is being rapidly opened to civilization. Surveys of the Congo railroad have been completed past the 235 miles of cataracts, and this, with the river itself, will, within two or three years, make it possible for travelers to visit the interior of Africa without a caravan. In the upper Congo region is an elevated tableland with fine "climate, free from malaria that has proven so destructive to visitors on the coast. When the journey that was formerly made painfully through weeks can be made in a day, the prophecy will indeed be fulfilled, which declares that Ethiopia shall stretch forth her hands unto God. The opening of Africa to Christian civilization is likely to be the most important fact in the history of the next fifty years.

A Stream of Silver.

There is says the American Banker a stream of silver pouring into Washington at the rate of half a million dollars' worth a day. It comes in the shape of fresh, glittering new dollars, standard silver dollars of the vintage of 1883, with the milling unicked and the face of the Goddess of Liberty fresh from the stamp. The stream is flowing at present from the Philadelphia Mint, but before long the sluice gate will be switched around and the shining flood will be turned in from New York, then after a time, from New Orleans and finally from San Francisco, thus giving the United States a silver belt that will outshine even that of a champion pugilist. The Adams Express Company carries the silver in trunks or iron-bound boxes, guarded by armed men.
