THE EXPERTS SAY

Schedule Leaves Mother Of Eight Some Free Time

By PATRICIA BUSAK
HALIFAX (CP)—The problem of raising a large family while remaining relaxed and lovely has been solved by Mrs. Louis Molr.

Organization is the secret, says the blonde, blue-eyed and personable mother of eight children ranging from four months to 10 years.

Not only that, but she says she doesn't even work hard.

Mrs. Molr says it's all possible because her husband, a general insurance agent, is an organizer and won't stand for disorder.

"From the first day we were married (12 years ago) he started teaching me to be organized."

The result is a smooth and efficient daily routine that leaves Mrs. Molr plenty of time for such activities as home and school work, membership in the Halifax Council of Women and the Halifax Recreation Commission.

Mrs. Reid Underlay invited the members to her home for the next meeting. Mrs. Ernest Underlay, Mrs. Charles Townshend and Mrs. Harry Townshend were appointed to the lunch committee.

Following the meeting lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Edwin Reid, Mrs. Harold MacEwen and Mrs. Mabel Reid. A social hour followed.

Shortly after the first of the children awakens at seven, Mrs. Molr starts breakfast while Mrs. Molr dresses the four school-age children.

LUNCH IN SHIRTS

She then takes over breakfast, feeds the four "little ones" and puts them out to play so she can get on with her housework.

All eight children eat at lunch. The smaller children eat at 11:30 and the second shift, the school children and parents, goes on at 12:30.

To save time Mrs. Molr often prepares supper while making lunch. "Then my afternoons are easy and by three o'clock I'm free to relax with the children."

All eight children eat at five; then Mrs. Molr gets them ready for bed while Mr. Molr does the dishes. By eight the parents are able to sit down and enjoy a quiet meal together.

Mr. Molr does all the shopping for groceries.

When planning an evening out the Molrs must make preparations for such activities as home and school work, membership in the Halifax Council of Women and the Halifax Recreation Commission.
