GORDON MACRAE TOPS CAST OF 'ABOUT FACE'

The gay, young, prankish side of life in a military academy is the story setting for 'About Face', Warner Bros. Technicolor comedy, due to-day at the Capitol Summerside Theatre. Gordon MacRae, Eddie Bracken, Dick Wesson, Virginia Gibson, Phyllis Kirk and 50 Canadian girls, reserved a bomb-site on Oxford street for the two groups to see the Coronation procession. Two days later the English party will leave for Canada.

The resulting provides ample opportunity for comedy and musical routines with singer Gordon MacRae, Eddie Bracken and the lovely ladies carrying the lead numbers. Among the more colorful production specialties are the graduation exercises and the bonfire rally on the night before the big baseball game.
