RAMSAY-HOARE—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Crosby Hoare, College Road, Truro, N. S., was the scene of a delightful and happy event Tuesday afternoon when their eldest daughter, Edith Melrose, was united in marriage to Aubrey Clare, young son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ramsay, Smith Avenue, Truro. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. E. J. Barnard, pastor of First Baptist church, in presence of near relatives and friends. A buffet luncheon followed the ceremony at which Mr. and Mrs. Hoare were the bride and groom. Immediately following the luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay left on a two weeks motor trip to Prince Edward Island and various points.—Halifax Chronicle.

MENELLY-BECKER WEDDING—An interesting wedding took place on Saturday, June 24th, when Miss Florence McNeill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McNeill of Carleton, was married to Mr. S. Becker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert O. Becker of Ayr, Ontario. The ceremony was performed by the bride's minister, Rev. T. Owen Hughes, B.A., at St. James' Anglican Church, Carleton. The Ladies Aid Society and the young ladies had tastefully decorated the church with flowers and ferns for the occasion. The bride was given away by her father and was attended by Miss Evelyn MacEachern, while Mr. Linwood McNeill acted as best man. Mr. Sterling McLeod officiated at the altar and sang "Because" was sung by Mrs. W. Arnew. Messrs. Elwyn Hughes and Clifford Hughes acted as ushers. The church was filled with interested friends and many who had come to wish happiness to the young couple. The bride is a Deaconess of the Presbyterian church and had gained immunities in the field of her labours in New Brunswick, and the large number of gifts from New Brunswick as well as from the community around Carleton testify to the bride's popularity. After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served at the bride's home, where also a reception was held, after which the young couple were showered with confetti and good wishes, left to spend a few days at Cavendish and then returning to Carleton to complete their honeymoon, will motor to Ayr, Ontario, where they will make their home. (Patrol, please copy).

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet but pretty wedding ceremony was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Samuel Caruthers of Carleton at 1:30 P. M. on Thursday, June 29th when her only daughter Ruth became the wife of Arnold Henderson of Bedouque. The ceremony was performed under an arch of exquisite pink and white cut flowers, the young couple being attended by Rev. Ralph Barker of Bedouque United Church, the officiating clergyman. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother Robert, was charming in her wedding gown of the Queen's blue Sheer. She wore a white hat and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and maiden-hair fern. The bride party entered the living room to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, beautifully rendered by Miss Mary Ferguson of Marshfield. During the signing of the register Miss Ferguson recited very effectively "Love You Truly." A dainty buffet luncheon was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Henderson left by motor for their home in Carleton through the Maritimes. The bride wore a tailored suit of Moorland brown with accessories in rust, and a handsome fox fur. On their return the happy couple will reside in Bedouque where the groom is a progressive and prosperous farmer. Both young people are prominent in church and social circles through the Maritimes. The Guardian joins with their many friends in wishing them a happy married life. Among the guests present at the wedding were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Henderson, Mrs. L. W. True-man, Rev. Ralph Barker and Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Alexander Cousins and Miss Ruby Cousins, Miss Mary Ferguson, Mrs. C. Gillespie, Miss Penne Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Rustis, and Mr. Allison Lee.

ST ALBANS, England, July 2 (CP)—A booms teacher will be a magistrate described her colleagues on the Bench as "old fossils". Dr. Elsie Toms gave the Harrogate conference of the National Association of Booms Teachers her opinion in support of a re-education calling for the appointment of more teachers as magistrates.

Dr. Toms said that if a working teacher was appointed she would at least be less than 60 when she took on the duties of magistrate. When she herself was appointed two out of a bench of three magistrates were more than 60, six more than 80, and there could not have been six less than 60.

Supreme Court Will Resume Hearings Today

Two of the four criminal cases to come before the Queen's County Court will resume today after a weekend adjournment which was disposed of since the criminal docket began hearing last Tuesday. A third is expected to go to the jury today.

Frederick and John McAleer were acquitted on charges of forgery and witness tampering, and the case against Frederick Steele, accused of obtaining money under false pretences, was dismissed by Chief Justice J. A. Matheson on motion of defence counsel who contended the crown had failed to establish a prima facie case.

All evidence had been heard at adjournment on Friday and today counsel and Mr. Justice A. E. Arsenault will sum up the case of Douglas Aretas Smith, charged with causing bodily harm by operation of an automobile.

The crown holds Smith responsible for an accident on the ice of Charlottetown Harbor last winter when 15-year-old Bertha LeClair was seriously injured.

Without mentioning either Germany or Italy, or the Danzig issue, the President said: "In the duel engaged for the salvation of civilization—the duel between the forces of human suffering and effort—France has taken sides."

"She is for the respect of law and international agreement, and against the policy of force which is a violation of frontiers and of the independence of the weak."

But the President added: "Arm, unite, stand guard—that was the watchword that citizens who look to the salvation of the faith—every military step necessary for immediate action up to the calling of reserves" had been taken in the last few days.

Diplomatic action begun Saturday continued when the French Foreign Minister, Georges Bonnet, received Charles Corbin, his ambassador to London, for a morning conference at the Foreign Ministry.

Over the weekend these diplomatic steps were taken and approved unanimously by the cabinet.

1. Bonnet called the German Ambassador, Johannes Von Welczek, to the Foreign Office and cautioned him France was ready for any step necessary to meet the steps to seize Nazi-dominated Danzig. It was said a parallel warning was made by Great Britain either through France or directly.

2. Bonnet and British Foreign Secretary, Neville Chamberlain, reported in Paris to have given Poland formal assurances that they were ready to give automatic aid to her without previous consultation if Germany grabbed Danzig.

3. French diplomats reported the Paris action to French-British allies in eastern Europe while both London and Moscow took steps to complete the proposed three-power mutual assistance pact with Soviet Russia.

They will compete against a team of American and Hawaiian surf men during a 19-day carnival of the games are the success that has been predicted, next year they probably will be arranged to include Canada, New Zealand, and other countries may then be permanent annual fixture.

Arrangements have already been completed for an Hawaiian team to compete in a second Pacific Surf Regatta in March, 1940, and the contest may be widened to include the other Pacific nations.

Mr. Frank has had a brilliant career both as student and as professional musician. He has been the pupil of two of the most distinguished teachers of the age, studying first with Leopold Auer, who taught the great Jascha Heifetz as well as Mischa Elman and others outstanding on the concert platform. Later he received instruction for four years at the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia under the world-renowned soloist, Efram Zimbalist. Of this young violinist Auer once said, "He possesses the finest talent in my long experience, and at the age of twelve he is technically perfect."

Though only a young man of twenty-seven, Mr. Frank has fulfilled many important concert and recital engagements in the city, and the honor of being one of the six specially chosen American artists sent to England to perform during King George the Fifth's jubilee celebration. While in London he gave recitals at the American Embassy and before a brilliant social gathering at the home of Lady Astor. On his return to Charlottetown he performed a modern sonata by Harold Morris, one of America's outstanding composers. During the same tour he was also a guest artist at the world famous Salzburg Festival in Austria and later was heard as recitalist at Budapest, Paris, Geneva, La Hague, and Washington.

On returning to the United States he was engaged permanently as one of the first violins in the Metropolitan Opera under the conductorship of the famous maestro, Arturo Toscanini. He frequently plays with this organization as soloist, only this last month having been heard twice in this role. Other solo engagements have been with the Philadelphia, Cincinnati, and Washington Orchestras.

Mr. Frank who is charmed with the idyllic appearance of Prince Edward Island, intends to return again shortly and it is hoped that this occasion the music lovers of Charlottetown may have the privilege of hearing him here in recital.

Rev. Dr. Barrett Is Speaker At Trinity Church

The preacher at Trinity United Church on Sunday morning was Rev. F. E. Barrett, D. D. of Truro, N. S., who has been in this Province during the past three weeks in the interest of the inter-provincial Home for Women at Covehead, near Moncton, N. B.

In his address Dr. Barrett reminded his hearers that the Protestant churches may be committed instead of being sent to jail. He asserted that no young woman is ever reformed by a term in jail, rather she goes out more hardened, more self and despairing. The wrong done her by such treatment of her case, is a greater crime against her than was the crime for which she may have been arrested.

The Interprovincial Home aims to be, and in many cases has proved itself to be, a place where hope is kindled, where the heart is comforted. Although only thirteen years in operation this home has saved the Provinces thousands of dollars in hospitalization, detention, and expense, and has prevented the spread of disease. It has also saved a dark shadow on the conscience of the church. It has proved itself eminently worthy of the sympathy and confidence of the courts.

The Home deserves to be more widely known and more generously supported. Its aim to help the women-offenders may be commended. Madge MacBeth, president of the association's Ottawa branch, will also speak at this function.

A luncheon to be held on Saturday on Halifax Harbor and two trips to picnic spots along the coast are included in the convention program. Directing arrangements for the luncheon are Miss Inara Stewart, Halifax, president of the Nova Scotia branch, and Eric F. Gaskell, Montreal, national secretary.

L. Bernard, Montreal, is president of the Canadian Association. Other officers are: Mrs. Nellie McClung, Victoria, B. C.; B. K. Sandwell, Toronto, and Dr. Clara Denison, Halifax, vice president. L. J. Burpee, Ottawa, treasurer; Dr. Pelham Edgar, Toronto; Dr. W. T. Allison, E. A. Hardy, O. B. E., Toronto, Roderick Stuart Kennedy, Montreal; Mrs. Madge MacBeth, Ottawa; E. J. Pratt, Toronto; Prof. V. E. Rhoades, Wolfville, N. S.; Dr. Charles G. D. Roberts, Toronto; Dr. Duncan Campbell, Ottawa, and Robert J. C. Stead, Calgary, Alta., members of the executive board.

The speaker at the luncheon to be tendered the delegates by the Provincial Government will be Dr. H. L. Stewart, professor of philosophy at Dalhousie University and noted commentator on world affairs.

Reduction in Lime

Regarding freight on lime, our department wishes to inform the farmers that up to the end of this year lime will cost, delivered at your railway station, $2.80 in bulk, and $3.55 bagged. This is on account of our having secured a small reduction in price from the company.

Little Theatre Guild Holds Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Little Theatre Guild held in the "Charlottetown" on Thursday evening, June 29th marked the closing of a very successful fourth year for this society. Reports from the various officers and committees revealed most satisfactory progress in all departments.

Financially, the Guild is ahead by $300 compared with last year, in spite of the fact that much greater expenditure had been made necessary to send winning play of the Regional Festival, "It's Autumn Now" to compete in the Dominion Drama Festival in London, Ontario.

The membership had greatly increased and nearly every active member taken part in or had been asked to take part in the plays, produced during the season. A very satisfactory and comprehensive record of the Guild's activities has been instituted and kept by the Historian in the form of a scrap book.

The Adjudicating Committee commented on the high order of the plays, produced during the past season, and selected "The Message" directed by Charles Bentley as the winner of the "Cooper Cup", for the best produced play of the season. High praise was also given to the "Dover Road", a three act play, directed by Charles Jenkins. A. F. C. Rees was easily conceded for the best produced play of the season. Miss Margaret Stiers, with Miss Mary Moran receiving honourable mention.
