Miscouche Convent

Takes Part In Religious Ceremony

On Sunday May 28th, the pupils of Notre Dame Convent, Miscouche, took part in one of the greatest events of their school year, the crowning of Our Blessed Lady.

The ceremony began as the children left the Convent in procession order, singing the beautiful hymn "Immaculate Mary". The procession continued in Church and had its climax in the crowning of Our Lady by Gerald Steele, Grade XI, while the pupils sang "Mary, We Crown Thee with Blossoms Today".

The banner of the "Immaculate Conception", which was carried by Raymond LeClair, Grade X, waved high over the heads of the students, signifying Our Heavenly Mother's way over the hearts of her children and their allegiance to her Immaculate Heart.

Four boys of Grades III and IV—Emmett Williams, Dennis Gaudet, Armand DesRoches and Albert Gallant, proudly carried the banner ribbons.

Immediately preceding the crowning, bouquets of flowers carried by six little boys: David Perry, Clarence Gallant, Ernest Gaudet, Patrick McMillan, Eric Gallant and Russell McNeill, were very proudly offered to Our Lady, while a beautiful basket of flowers was laid at the foot of Our Lady's statue by Donald Gillis, Grade X.

The procession over, Father Kelly preached a beautiful sermon, telling the children how fortunate they were to be able to participate in such a beautiful ceremony. Father also pointed out the contrast between this procession and the one in a European city that very morning in which marched hundreds of youths at the command of their Communist leaders.

Following, there was Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The choir sang many suitable hymns, among which was a beautiful rendition of "Magnificat". The ceremony ended with the pupils singing: "Good-Night, Sweet Mary!"
