that the association directors would keep striving with the federal government officials to bring the Northumberland Strait causeway into reality. Mr. Moffatt said that the completion of such a project would be a tremendous boon to Islanders in general as well as other Canadian citizens.

NEW MEMBERS Applications for membership into M.M.T.A. were received from 16 firms. All were approved bringing the total Association membership to more than 300.

More than 22 directors of the Association and members of the M.M.T.A. of Prince Edward Island attended the day-long session presided over by M.M.T.A. president J. Harold Wallace of Moncton.

It was noted that the 9th Annual Meeting of M.M.T.A. will be held in St. John, N.B., from April 24th to 25th. The next board of director's meeting is slated for Fredericton, N.B. on November 5th.

Selected to represent the M.M.T.A. at the annual meeting of the Canadian Transport Association in Ottawa from February 9th to 11th are Mr. Wallace, association president; 1st vice-president Fred Chisholm of Truro, N.S., and immediate Past President of M.M.T.A. Keith MacKinnon of Charlottetown. Mr. MacKinnon is presently a member of the C.T.A. Board of Directors.

The three Rotary Clubs, Charlottetown, Summerside, and Port Elgin, N.B., combined in regular meetings at 8 o'clock last night on the canteen level at Borden to hear Rotarian Clive Currie, resident engineer, Federal Department of Public Works explain many phases of the proposed Northumberland Strait Causeway.

The meeting was under the chairmanship of Russ Seller, president of the Charlottetown Club with Summerside represented by vice president Fred Davison. Harold Allan, president of the Port Elgin Club reported 100 per cent of the membership present, while 50 Charlottetown and 20 Summerside members brought the total attendance to more than 100.

The sing-song period, conducted by Walter Cox of Charlottetown and Amos Hubley of Summerside, was thoroughly enjoyed.

The Cox, Simmonds, Pierce, Callbeck quartette was also heard and appreciated.

The speaker was introduced by Russ Seller and thanked by Francis Arvedson, Summerside who described the address subject as of vital importance and deep interest.

The members were piped aboard ship and on return from Tormentine left the ship headed by John Evans, still working manfully and effectively on the bagpipes.

J. A. MacDonald, M. P., of Cardigan was among the guests of Rotary who listened with deep attention to the address of Rotarian Currie. Other guests were Curtis Bonnerman, Moncton, J. D. Stewart, and F. M. Nash, City, A. C. Ceretti, Borden.

Visiting Rotarians were, James Henderson, Sackville, Harold Wallace, Moncton, C. W. Moffatt, Sackville, and Past District Governor Arthur Johnstone of Saint John's, Nfld.

Top price of $2,100 was paid by Russell Litt, of Walkerton, Ontario, to J. J. E. McCague, Alliston, Ontario, for Glenafon Gulliver, an eleven-month-old bull calf. Antonio Valdez, of Queretaro, Mexico, paid $1,800 to C. J. Cerswell, Beeton, Ontario, for Bond Haven Signet, a three-quarters brother of the McCague bull.

Export buyers were active with 29 head leaving Canada. 20 went to Mexico, 5 to the U.S.A., 1 to Venezuela, and 3 were bought by Hays Farms, Oakville for shipment to unnamed Latin American buyers. The big buyer of the day was Alfonso Soto, Queretaro, Mexico, who took 19 head for a total of $13,300. His purchases were headed by a pair of bred heifers at $1,000 each, one from J.J.E. McCague, and the other from C. J. Cerswell. Both were sired by the "Excellent" bull, Rosafe Centurion, and out of daughters of Marksmen.

The highest price for a female was $1,600 paid by Hallward and Houck, Brampton, to Paul Adam and Jacques Houde, St. Hyacinthe, Que., for the three-year-old "Very Good" cow, Montvel Rag Apple Babst Grace, sired by R. R. Dennis, Oakridges, Ontario, paid the two top prices for bred heifers, securing a daughter of the "Extra" sire, A. B. C. Reflection Sovereign from Paul Adam and Jacques Houde at $1,400, and a daughter of Rosafe Signet from R. H. McIlquham, Lanark, at $1,250. Altogether, Dennis bought seven head.

Some will criticize like the Pharisees of old, falling to note our Lord's admonition that "He who is without sin, cast the first stone." Your contribution may be the means of helping a young woman in her hour of great need—to help her make a plan for her child and also plan a stable future for herself. "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these... ye have done it unto Me".

Royal Bank Man To Head Relief Fund

MONTREAL (CP) — K. M. Sedgewick, general manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, has been appointed national chairman of the Springhill Disaster Relief Fund established by Premier Stanfield of Nova Scotia, it is announced here Monday.

"The disaster at Springhill, N.S. is now known to the people of Canada and there has been widespread evidence of a desire to give to the needy of that community. The Springhill Disaster Relief Fund has been established for this purpose, therefore, and its administration will be supervised by the province of Nova Scotia from which source support to the extent of $50,000 has already been indicated."

"The premier of the province, Hon. Robert L. Stanfield, has asked me to co-ordinate the project and arrangements have been made that donations will be accepted at any branch of any chartered bank in Canada."

"Official receipts for income tax purposes will be mailed to donors as quickly as possible. I ask that companies and individuals alike think of this grief-stricken community at this time and may receive abundant satisfaction for their generosity."
