TOBACCO MARKETING BOARD NAMED

The above seven men have been voted as members of the marketing board of the Prince Edward Island Flue-Cured Tobacco Growers, which was formed Wednesday evening at a meeting held at the Kingsway Motel. Officers of this board will be selected and names presented to the provincial legislature for approval in the near future. The board will have powers to regulate marketing, quality, set down regulations as they see fit subject to approval of the minister of agriculture. They are left to right seated: Albert Pauley, Ocean View; Douglas Roloson, Ocean View; Max. Behrens, Glen William. Standing left to right, Donald Nicholson, Upper Montague; John Power, Upper Montague; John McCabe, Iona; Marcel Moyaert, Upper Montague. All three counties were represented.

Theft Case, Supplying Liquor To Minor Dismissed In Court

Charges against Melvin Heartz of Charlottetown were dismissed yesterday in city police court by Magistrate A.J. Haslam.

Magistrate Haslam said there was insufficient evidence to support the charges of breaking and entering and the theft of four tires, which had been laid against Heartz.

Charges were dismissed also in the case of Gordon MacLeod, Charlottetown, charged with supplying liquor to a minor.

The case of Donald Blair Burns, Charlottetown, charged with selling liquor to a person under 21 years, contrary to the Liquor Control Act, was adjourned to Nov. 22.

One person was fined $5 or two days, and $3 and costs or two days, on two counts, one of which was a meter violation, and the other a charge of unlawfully reversing the direction of his motor vehicle in the street.

Donald C. Wilson, Wellington Station, was fined $25 and costs or 30 days on the charge of having in his possession liquor not purchased from a vendor.

One drunk and incapable was fined $20 and costs or 10 days; another was given a 20-day suspended sentence.

Charged with driving a motor vehicle with one license plate missing, one person was fined $5 and costs or two days.

Income Tax Not Changing

"The government has absolutely no intention of raising income taxes next year," Provincial Treasurer Melvin McQuaid said yesterday.

He was asked to comment on a suggestion by a newspaper reader appearing in a column in The Evening Patriot Wednesday. It was suggested that income taxes might be raised in order to get additional income to finance the province's hospital insurance plan now that the promise has been made to abolish the premium system.

"I plan to deal with this tax increase suggestion at some campaign meetings," Mr. McQuaid said.

New West Kent School To Open

Nov. 30 has been set as the date for the opening of the new West Kent School, a school board official said yesterday.

Some 320 children now attending the old West Kent School will be moved in a body to the new building when it is completed. No other children will be enrolled at the new school immediately.

MacDougall Construction Ltd. contractors on the job are still awaiting delivery of some key materials that must be installed before the opening of the school.

Career Guidance Course On Today

Hair dressing career guidance counsellor for today's vocational guidance course at Prince of Wales College will be Mrs. W. C. Hoyt, Charlottetown.

This was omitted in a news story yesterday relative to the co-operative effort of the National Employment Service, the department of education and the Charlottetown Rotary Club in sponsoring a career counselling service for some 400 students from Kings and Queens counties.

Wharf Work Progressing

Work on the new Department of Transport wharf at the foot of Queen Street is progressing well despite inclement weather, an engineering company spokesman said yesterday.

About 90 per cent of the clay fill has been placed and the remainder, about 10,000 cubic yards, should be in before freeze-up.

A floating pile driver has been moved into position near the Charlottetown Yacht Club to begin driving the deep-water piles. All pile driving possible has been completed on the west side of the wharf and the land based pile driver has been moved to the east side.

Work on the wharf is expected to continue all winter although freeze up will curtail work with the floating machinery.

Crown Building Corp. Negotiating

Directors of the Crown Building Corporation, the body that is looking after details of the new provincial government office building to be built on the West Kent School block, held a brief meeting yesterday.

Discussed was the corporation's purchase offer to 17 property holders who own land on the proposed site of the building.

While most of the property owners have agreed to accept the corporation's offer, several properties are still under negotiation, according to corporation president, Hon. Philip Matheson.

Second Kings Candidates Suggested

Aldius MacKenzie, Morell and Donald Anderson, St. Peter's have been suggested as possible candidates for the Liberals in Second Kings on the Assembly-man ticket. The convention to name candidates for the Dec. 10 election will be held in the Community Hall at Morell on Monday night, November 19.

Pius MacDonald and Bill Trainor, both of St. Peters have been suggested as probable choices for candidate on the Councillor ballot.

Thomas Cullen, Midgell a former member and a one-time speaker ran on the Councillor ticket in 1959 and was defeated. He is not offering this time, reports indicate.

Harvey Douglas, who is also a former member of the legislature, but was defeated in 1959, has since moved to Parkdale and is not offering this time.

Wind Blown Paper Causes Complaints

Sections of the fence on the Kensington Road side of the Exhibition Grounds were covered with large pieces of paper last night, apparently blown from the city dump by yesterday's high winds.

However, the fence failed to stop some of the paper on its wind-blown journey resulting in the paper finding its way across the road to other sections of Parkdale.

A tree in front of the Provincial Infirmary caught some of the wind-blown material on its branches as did shrubs and bushes on nearby lawns.

His health was the main reason for this decision.

Missing Car Found In Ont.

MONTAGUE — Charges are to be laid in the theft of a 1961 Chevrolet, taken from the owner's driveway early on Monday morning. The owner of the car is Mrs. Ted MacLean, Montague. The RCMP and Montague police have been conducting an extensive search for the car since it was reported missing Monday morning about 8 a.m.

About noon yesterday Officer Downe received a telephone call from Cpl. White, of the Ontario Provincial Police in Nipigon, Ont., that the car had been located and was undamaged.

Officer Downe stated that names could not be released until charges are laid.

Agriculturalists Attend CD Course

Four Prince Edward Island representatives attended an agriculture officers' orientation course at the Civil Defence College at Arnprior, Ont.

They were, R. C. Parent, departmental representative for the Emergency Measures Organization; George Lewis, senior seed inspector; alternate departmental representative for the Canada department of agriculture; David Peacock and William Sterns, representing the provincial department of agriculture.

Other such courses will be held at Birch Court Experimental Farm Nov. 27 and 28.

United Fund Will Hold Annual Meet Jan. 29

The annual meeting of the P. E. I. United Fund Appeal will be held Jan. 29 in Charlottetown, it was decided at the meeting of the board of directors last night. The suggestion was made that the annual meeting be alternated between Charlottetown and Summerside in future years.

The board also approved the lease agreement for the office space with the federal department of public works.

An awards committee was approved and it will make recommendations to the board. An investments committee was also named to look after investment of available funds in short term guaranteed investments. Named to the committee were Randolph Manning, Judge C. St. Clair Trainor and Dr. L. I. Duffy.

A progress report on the present campaign was presented by the executive director, Jack Ambler, with the strong recommendation that the campaign be completed by Nov. 30.

He said another division had exceeded its quota. The Kings County advance gift division had collected $3,025. The Summerside residential canvass had collected another $500 yesterday to put it 115 per cent over its quota.

The meeting held in the board room in the federal building was presided over by Russell Seller, president of the appeal.

Driver Fined At Geo'town

GEORGETOWN — Kings County Magistrate James B. Johnston, QC, held court in Georgetown Wednesday. A number of cases were adjourned for one week by request of defence attorneys who were unable to attend.

Kenneth Charles MacKenzie, Belle River pleaded guilty to impaired driving and was fined $100 and costs.

An accused charged with being intoxicated in a public place had his case adjourned for one week as he is at present a hospital patient, and another man was fined $20 and costs for being intoxicated in a public place. Weston Blair Coffin, East Baltic was fined $10 and costs for having defective equipment on his motor vehicle, and another driver was fined $5 and costs for failing to stop at a stop sign.
