Death Saturday Of Well Known Montague Lady

The death occurred at her home in Montague, on Saturday, Sept. 15th, of Mrs. Maynard F. MacDonaid in her 84th year.

She was born at Georgetown, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Westaway. Shortly after her marriage, fifty-two years ago, she and her husband purchased a store and hotel which is still in operation. She will always be remembered as the gracious hostess who greeted their guests on their arrival. She was a lady in the true sense of the word, admired and respected by neighbours and friends, and was available to all for any assistance they required. She was a faithful member to mourn a sister, Mrs. William Thompson (Elizabeth) Grand ber of the Church of England.

Besides her husband, she leaves to mourn a sister, Mrs. William Thompson (Elizabeth) Grand Manan three nieces and a nephew, Mrs. Ernest Grant, Chester, N.S., Mrs. Arthur Jenkins, Georgetown; Mrs. James Stewart, Ottawa; and Mr. Clive Currie, Charlottetown. She was predeceased by two sisters, Mrs. M. A. Currie, Charlottetown; also a half sister and brother, Mrs. James Manuel and John Westaway, Georgetown.

The funeral will be held from her home at 2 p.m. on Monday. Interment will be in the Lower Montague Cemetery.

Auxiliaries At W.M.S. Rally At Georgetown

A W. M. S. Rally was held in St. David's United Church Hall, Georgetown Wednesday afternoon Sept. 12th. Mrs. W. A. Patterson presided and the opening worship was led by members of St. Peter's Auxiliary viz.: Mrs. Jos. MacKenzie, Mrs. Kenneth MacCallum and Mrs. Gordon Sanderson.

Mrs. Walker of Georgetown welcomed the visitors and members in a pleasing manner, to which Mrs. Russell Webster in her own unique way capably replied.

Mrs. F. Cutcliffe, Presbyterian President spoke of the aim and object of our W. M. S. and urged the members to try to line up to the same in daily living.

Mrs. Stanley Thompson called the roll and eleven Auxiliaries were represented. Mrs. J. D. MacFarlane assistant treasurer gave the financial statement, which is slightly below this date last year.

Mrs. W. B. Creed capably introduced the literature and was successful in disposing of several books, etc. The audience enjoyed two numbers by the Explorer Group one a missionary and the other a temperance one. Miss Jamie Lewellyn was in charge of these numbers.

A question box was introduced and conducted by Mrs. S. Thompson. Discussion took place and valuable information received by this means.

The guest speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Erith Hughes, Winsloe, who was the delegate to Berwick this year. She gave a vivid description of the grounds, the people; The missionaries present: Miss Mildred Brown, who spent 43 years in Hong Kong; Dr. Denman, who has no living relatives, yet has more friends than one can realize; Dr. Sidney Gelchrist, who said "It is almost like being in another world, coming back to Canada," and "The W. M. S. is better than any organization in the World."

Mrs. W. A. Patterson spoke of

DOUBT WILL SIGN UP

OTTAWA (CP)—Transport department authorities expressed doubt Saturday that any Canadian ship pilots would sign up to work on the troubled Suez Canal.

Egypt's Ambassador El Hussein el Khatib said in an interview that he has received many applications following advertisements offering Canadians up to $1,500 a month for canal duty. However, he declined to give any details or figures.

The Christian citizen, and asked that every Auxiliary appoint a see of temperance and Christian citizenship. She closed the meeting with Prayer and benediction.

After this very successful afternoon Rally the Georgetown ladies served lunch and a social hour of fellowship was enjoyed.
