PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND'S harness racing season is fast coming to a close, a fact that race enthusiasts don't like to think about.

It's been a great year for the followers of the sport of kings, with the weather most co-operating wholeheartedly.

When you get finishes like last Monday night, that's harness racing at its very best.

ALL OF WHICH should add interest for the remainder of the season. It's a sure thing that every owner and driver will want his share of the purses before the long layoff takes place.

FARM CHORES IN and around Peakes will be attended to today and late today, because of a baseball game scheduled for afternoon.

These people in King's will be there by the hundreds cheering their favorites on, in the hope that the Bombers will go to Grand River Sunday sporting a one game edge.

World Swim Record Books Take Beating

VIENNA (AP) — The world swimming record book was virtually rewritten Tuesday when the International Swimming Federation accepted a flock of new marks.

Australia's Jon Konrads with seven records — plus one that's been superseded — led in the shakeup.

The new world standards were set in the first full year of competition since the body ruled that only performances made in 50-metre or 55-yard pools would be accepted for world recognition.

Major Leagues Recognize Bonus Bidding Out Of Hand

By JOE REICHLER CHICAGO (AP) — "The major leagues Tuesday agreed to restore a bonus rule, recommended by the revision of the player draft laws and set up machinery for realignment of the minor leagues."

Recognizing that bonus bidding is getting out of hand and that the minor leagues need a helping hand, the big leagues, at their joint session, decided to take action toward alleviating this twin problem.

A nine-man committee was appointed to study the feasibility of a new bonus rule and to submit a plan to the body at the December meeting in Washington.

Cleveland General Manager Frank Lane, chairman of the bonus committee, said at least 10 plans already have been proposed.

Another committee, of six members, were named with authority to start immediately a series of meetings to bring about a realignment of the minor leagues from triple-A classification down.

Allocated another $500,000 to the minor league emergency fund for the purpose of helping deserving minor league clubs in financial straits.
