GIRL GUIDE PARTY — The first Montague Girl Guides held a delightful Halloween party at the Legion hall Tuesday night. Games were played and contests were won by Wendy Johnston, Sandra Bell, Beatrice Power, Catherine Sorrey and Edna Ann Nicholson. Prizes for costumes were awarded as follows: first, Gwen Clark. Second, Dianne MacLeod. Delicious refreshments, including ice cream and cookies, were served and the party ended with a ghostly story told by Gwen Clark. The program was under the direction of the leaders, Mrs. Ralph Judge and Miss Edith MacDonald.

VISITING MONTAGUE — Lac Harry Higginbotham, Jr., R.C.A.F. St. Huberts, Quebec, who is spending his annual leave at his home in Halifax, N.S., is visiting relatives in Montague. He is accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Harry Higginbotham, Sr., of Halifax.

EASTERN PERSONAL — Mr. and Mrs. Earl Collins, Toronto, are spending a few days in Montague, the guests of Mr. Collins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Collins.

HALLOWEEN PARTY — The Y. P. Union and the C. G. I. T. of Trinity United Church, Montague, held an enjoyable Halloween party in MacKenzie hall on Wednesday evening. There were several excellent costumes so that judges, Mrs. A. Hume, Mrs. D. Macdonald and Mr. Howard Vickerson, had some difficulty in deciding on the winners. Prizes were awarded as follows: first, "The Wounded Fleas" David Mosher. Second, "Peanut Girl" Anna Moore. Third, "Buxom Colored Lady" George Beck. Honorable mention: pirate, David MacLure, Hobo, Billy Vanderstine. The entertainment was conducted by Merrill Wigginton. "Post Mortem" a very ghostly affair, with Timmy Mair as Ghost, caused much hilarity. Refreshments were served and singing was enjoyed, with Mrs. J. M. Fraser as pianist. The meeting closed with Friendship Circle and Taps.

German Ship Seeks Shelter

Bad weather has forced a 2000 ton freighter of German Registry to anchor about one half mile from Souris Harbour. The ship is carrying a load of new automobiles destined for Newfoundland, and was forced to take shelter sometime Friday night or early Saturday morning.

STILL AGROUND — No attempt has been made to refloat the M. V. L'Ecumure, which went aground at Panmure Island in the early hours of Friday morning. The small ship under command of Captain Charles McGuire is said to be hard aground on a sand bar but apparently undamaged.

Y. P. U. MEETING — The third weekly meeting of the autumn of Trinity Young People's Union was held in MacKenzie hall, Montague, on Tuesday, October 18, with twenty members present. The devotions were led by Anna Moore and David MacLure. Rev. J. M. Fraser conducted a Bible knowledge quiz, particularly on New Testament parables. A discussion period followed on the advisability of immigration to Canada at the present time, and the benefits brought by new Canadians to the life of this Dominion. The secretary, William J. MacIntyre, read the minutes and called the roll. Contests and games were led by Judy Cudmore and Merrill Wigginton. The Friendship Circle and Taps closed the meeting.

SOURIS JUNIOR HOSPITAL AID

The Annual Meeting of the Junior Hospital Aid, Souris, was held in the United Church Hall, on Wednesday evening Oct. 12th, with twenty members in attendance. Mrs. George Roach, the retiring president, called the meeting to order. Mrs. Stewart MacAulay, secretary, read the minutes of the last Annual meeting, which were adopted as read. The president then gave a full account of the activities of the organization, the biggest project as being the dances in Matthew and MacLeans Warehouse. These dances proved very successful and the two plans bought for that purpose are, and, we hope will continue to be, very useful assets. After thanking the officers and members for their splendid support during the year, Mrs. Roach called on Mrs. Wallie MacKenzie to present the treasurer's report, which showed the Aid

Provincial Conference Of C.G.I.T. Held In City

Participation in the Sunday morning service of worship at the Charlottetown Baptist Church was the final session of the Provincial Conference of Canadian Girls in Training held over the weekend at the Charlottetown Baptist Church. Miss Jean Windsor, Girls' Work Secretary of the M. R. E. C., directed the activities of more than 160 girls and leaders representing groups from all over the Island. Sessions began on Friday evening when the girls and leaders were welcomed to the conference in a sound financial position. Due to the absence of the Girl Guide Convener, Mrs. MacKenzie also read her report. The final report for the evening was read by Mrs. A.H. Smallwood, convener of sewing. Mrs. W.A. Wright moved a vote of thanks to the retiring officers and it was seconded by Mrs. Kassner. The president then asked Mrs. Smallwood to install the new officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. Bruce Stewart; Vice-President, Mrs. George Roach; Secretary, Mrs. Kassner; Treasurer, Mrs. M.A. MacLean. The meeting was then adjourned and the remainder of the evening was spent in watching films. On the afternoon of the meeting, the Aid held a show for the school children, during which candy and potato chips were sold. HISTORIC CITY — Lincoln in England was a thriving commercial metropolis as far back as Roman times.

Signal Rgt. Conducts Exercise In Kings Co.

One of the largest turnouts in post war years featured an exercise conducted by the 5 Signal Regiment in the Cardigan-Montague area Sunday. In command was Lt. Col. Keith Johnston with Major F. S. Jenkins, second-in-command, and chief instructor. The exercise dealt primarily with communications from divisional headquarters level. Wireless, wire and despatch riding all figured in the day's outing as the unit put theory into practice. Officer cadets, during the day, received instruction in field-craft. Prior to the exercise church services were conducted by Hon. Capt. H. L. Milton, Protestant padre, and Hon. Capt. F.L. Forbes, R.C. padre, at the Armouries. Dinner was served all ranks at the Bison Restaurant in Montague. Despite the rather inclement weather the exercise was considered one of the most successful ever held by the unit.

OTHER PRICES ARE CLIMBING — BUT - MY WAGES ARE DOWN!

THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION of Prince Edward Island has authorized this reduction in rates, effective October 1st, 1955.

These new lower rates are now effective throughout the Province, and every time you press a button or flick a switch to put me to work, you know you are getting my services cheaper than a month ago.

Minimum charges are the same as previously — Rural Areas $4.00 per month, Town Areas $3.00, and Charlottetown Area $2.00.

The above include 20 Kilowatt Hours.

BUT after you use this — YOU SAVE MONEY!
The next 180 K.W.Hrs. are only .03c each. (Previously .04 1-5c in rural and town areas, and .03 1-5c in Charlottetown area.)

All K.W.Hrs. over 180 are only .02c each. (Previously .02 1-5c in all areas.)
