District Rotary Governor's Visit

A. Stirling MacFarlane

District Governor A. Sterling MacFarlane will pay an official visit to the Charlottetown Rotary Club this evening at 6.00 p. m. at a special meeting of the Club, at the Charlottetown Hotel this Wednesday evening. Meeting is in honor of the visit of District Governor MacFarlane who has had a long and honorable career in Rotary.

For many years he was Superintendent of Education for the Province of New Brunswick and has been head of the New Brunswick Drama Festival for a number of years. Last spring he attended the International Rotary Convention in Mexico City and gave an outstanding report on this Convention during the Rotary gathering at Digby last June. He succeeds Past District Governor Edwin C. Johnstone of Charlottetown whose term expired in June.

District Governor MacFarlane's home is in Fredericton, N. B. The Rotary meeting this evening is expected to be a large one as in addition to the members of the Charlottetown Club there are a number of visiting Rotarians in the City and there will also be some guests of local Club members.

Upward Trend In School Enrolments

The steady upward trend in the number of enrolments at city schools continued yesterday as the four of them once more opened their doors for another term. The increase this year was 205 over the high of last year with 2,375 entering yesterday compared to the 2,170 last year. It is expected that this total will be increased as several children who are presently ill or away report to classes.

Queen Square School had the highest registration total with 664 compared to 649 a year ago. West Kent this year had 540 while in 1951 there were 431. Prince Street had 618 as against 550, and Rochford Square had 553 compared to the 540 of a year ago.

The beginners classes generally account for the heavy increases. The figures for the youngsters with last year's totals in brackets are: Queen Square 88 (76); West Kent 65 (30); Prince Street 72 (64); and Rochford Square 68 (54).

Ledwell-Griffith Wedding

A very pretty early fall wedding took place at St. Dunstan's Basilica Monday morning, when Mary Caire daughter of Mrs. J. A. Griffith, Charlottetown, and the late Mr. Griffith, was united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony, with John Richard Ledwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Ledwell, St. Peter's Bay. Rev. Patrick McMahon, D. D., performed the ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

The church decorations consisted of standards of mixed gladioli. During the Nuptial Mass vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. H. W. Bowlan and Mr. Frank McIntyre. Mrs. Bowlan's selections were "O Lord I Am Not Worthy" and "On This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother." Mr. McIntyre chose "Panis Angelicus," "Ave Maria" and "Mother All Beautiful." The accompanist was Mrs. Joseph Dougan.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother Arthur, chose a wedding dress of Chantilly lace over nylon net and Cohama satin, under a lace redingote with long sleeves pointed over the hands. The neckline was of the Elizabethan period design. A lily trimmed pleated net half hat held a finger tip veil of French tulle illusion. Her bouquet was a cascade of pink delight roses.

Attending her sister as Matron of Honor was Mrs. Gordon Gallant who was attired in lime green taffeta, with nylon net overskirt, and matching bolero of taffeta.

Miss Katherine Doyle, as bridesmaid, wore a similar gown of shocking pink taffeta. Both attendants wore small hats of matching net, and carried nosegays of Starlight roses, tied with rainbow ribbon.

William Ledwell, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Ushers were Reginald McAdam and Freeman Griffith.

The bride's mother selected a dress of navy blue crepe, with navy and white accessories, and a corsage of Sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Ledwell, mother of the groom, wore a dress of burgundy with black accessories and white orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Keppoch Beach Hotel. During the reception piano selections were rendered by Mrs. Joseph Dougan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ledwell left by plane on a trip throughout the Maritimes. For travelling the bride selected a suit of rose boucle with brown accessories, and a corsage of Talisman roses.

The groom is a graduate of McGill University Engineering Class of 1951. He is employed with the Auminum Co. of Canada at Arvida, Quebec where Mr. and Mrs. Ledwell will reside.

The out of town guests at the wedding included: Miss Mary Gillis R. N., Portsmouth, R. I., Mrs Anne Gregory and Lloyd Gregory, Boston, Mass., Sergeant and Mrs. A. L. Griffith, Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gallant, Wayne and Brian Moncton, Miss Hazel Martin, Montreal, Sub-Lt. May Doyle, M. N., H. M. C. S. Cornwallis, Miss Frances Coyle, Moncton.

Most Dangerous Month For Blight

"We have now entered the most dangerous month for late blight disease of potato," states the weekly Potato Bulletin. September is commonly characterized by showers, high humidities, and heavy night dews, conditions that favour the development and spread of late blight. These conditions also favour the inoculation of the tubers. It is a common practice for growers to spray thoroughly and frequently early in the season, but later when the spray material applied in the early season has been largely washed off and blight begins to spread, the fields are neglected and heavy losses result. The spray schedule should be maintained until the end of the season at which time the program should be completed by the application of a vine killer.

Late blight of tomato is now being reported in some areas. Potato aphids are beginning to decrease but flea bettles are still present in large numbers. DDT should be applied at regular intervals along with the fungicide.

Choose Candidates For Election

REXTON, N. B., Sept. 2—(CP) — Three Progressive Conservative candidates were chosen unanimously today to contest Kent County in the Sept. 22 provincial election.

They are John A. MacDonald, Kouchibouguac lumberman; Prospere Girouard, St. Mary's farmer, and Evariste Cormier, St. Paul machinery salesman.

This completed the party slate for the 52 seats at stake. Liberal nominations were completed last week.

Sudden Death Of Mr. Bruce Butler

The sudden death of Mr. Bruce Butler, Charlottetown occurred last night when he was found dead at the foot of the stairs of his rooming house at 112 Richmond Street. The body was reportedly found by two boys about 8:30. They told Mrs. Roy MacKinnon, a neighbor, who in turn called her husband.

Mr. MacKinnon examined the man but could find no heartbeat and notified the City Police. Constabes Lloyd Wakelin and James Howatt responded to the call and notified Coroner Dr. L. E. Prowse that the man was apparently dead. It is believed that he fell from the top of the stairway, or part way down and died before help could reach him. There were bruises and marks on his face and bleeding from the mouth.

Both City Police and R. C. M. Police investigated the accident and remained on the scene until a late hour taking pictures and measurements as the body was not removed until they completed their work. It was then taken to the funeral home of N. D. McLean. Coroner Prowse empanelled a jury which viewed the remains on the scene and then adjourned until 4 o'clock next Monday afternoon at City Hall. An autopsy will be performed this morning.

The late Mr. Butler, 67, was a native of Peters Road and had represented the Fourth District of Kings in the Provincial Legislature from 1923 to 1927. In the latter year he became a member without portfolio in the Saunders Government. He also served for a time as bursar at Falconwood Hospital.

He had resided in this city for several years past.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Thelde Butler, Little Sands, and a daughter, Mrs. Gordon McLean, Little Sands. Funeral arrangements had not been announced last night.

Members of the coroner's jury are Messrs. Thomas White, foreman; Fred Mallett, Vernon Dennis, Percy Cameron, John McLure, Duncan MacCannell and Wyman Large.

Baptist Meetings Largely Attended

Representatives of the Charlottetown Baptist Church, who attended the annual meetings last week of the United Baptist Conventions returned with encouraging reports. In the beautiful setting that surrounds the Nova Scotia town of Wolfville and in the spacious accommodation of the Acadia University residences a large number of Baptists from the three provinces assembled for worship and to conduct the Convention's business.

During the week the United Baptist Women's Missionary Convention, the regular United Baptist Convention, the Convention of the Baptist Young People's Union, as well as the Institute and the Laymen's Convention, held sessions in the University and in the Wolfville Baptist Church.

Outstanding were the devotional addresses given to both the regular and the young people's conventions by Rev. Emlyn Davies of Wales who recently became minister of Yorkminster Baptist Church, Toronto. A five-year plan, as proposed by the retiring-president, Rev. Abner J. Langley of Halifax, N. S., is to be promoted by a strong committee. This program will include special attention to the needs of Acadia University. To assist the university, the U. B. W. M. U. have voted an immediate $10,000, with $40.000 to be raised.

The large delegation from Charlottetown Baptist Church included Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Davison, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Clark, Mrs. Samuel Campbell, Mrs. Lemuel Webster, Mrs. T. G. Ives, Mrs. Daniel Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Harper MacNeill, Mr. M. Ross Bethune, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rumtz, Misses Marguerite Brehaut, Mae Robinson, Florence Matheson, Helen Wright.

Jury Finds Verdict Of Accidental Death

"That Petty Officer 2nd Class Ronald F. Darby came to his death by accident when the car in which he was a passenger left the highway at Pownal on Sunday, August 31st, between 7:00 and 7:15 p.m.—No blame can be attached to anyone involved in the incident."

The above verdict was reached by the coroner's jury which continued their investigation before Coroner Dr. C. A. Coady at City Hall, Charlottetown, yesterday afternoon, following an adjournment on the night of the accident, when they were empanelled.

Dr. Lemuel E. Prowse, who performed the autopsy, gave evidence in detail regarding the condition of the deceased, whom he described as a well developed man weighing about 210 pounds. Shoulders and left arm and back of the neck showed bruises but no marked fracture of the head. A dislocated neck and hemorrhage in this area, with no other marks, led to the conclusion that death was due to a fractured dislocation of the neck.

Walter Oakley of Pine Heights, Halifax, civilian driver of the truck in which the deceased was a passenger, testified that Darby was sitting in front with him as one of five passengers in the three seated Chev. station wagon, the property of the Department of National Defence. They arrived at Wood Islands and proceeded towards the city following another car of the same type, which carried other men of their party.

Witness was driving at about 40 miles per hour when they overtook a blue half-ton truck or "pick-up", and he gave a horn signal that he was about to pass. He felt the wheels of his car had a tendency to sway, and tried to straighten out but was unable to do so. His car ended up in the right ditch facing about.

After crawling out of the overturned car, he observed the deceased lying across the centre of the highway about 15 feet away, and the pick-up car stopped 15 or 20 feet behind. Questioned by Mr. Nicholson witness said there was no traffic coming towards him, that he had been driving that type of car for a week, and no one in the party had been drinking. He further stated that he was on duty during the driving trip.

Chief Petty Officer Edison Clive Fraser, Dartmouth, testified that he was in the truck which was overturned. As they were passing the pick-up he thought they hit a shoulder of the road, it was his belief that the driver had done his best to regain control.

Questioned by Mr. Nicholson, witness judged the speed to be about 40 miles per hour, that Oakley was a good driver and very capable. The service vehicle in which they were travelling was serviced regularly. Visibility was good; he could see the colour of the truck behind him, no lights were on.

Able Seaman Walsh of Halifax testified that he could see no car ahead of them other than the pick-up they passed as the accident occurred. He sat in the back seat with Cadet Hodd. When abreast of the car they were passing, the car in which they were driving began to sway at rear end. Was conscious when car came to rest, got out and ran to where Petty Officer Fraser was holding head of victim. This was around dusk, there were no lights on.

Cadet James Donald Hodd gave evidence that he sat with Walsh and as they passed the blue truck they swerved, the sway becoming worse and worse progressively. The car appeared top heavy. He noticed the swaying frequently on the way from Halifax.

Ronald Isam, civilian chauffeur from the Halifax dockyard, gave evidence that he was the driver of the other car in the party. They were on the same ferry trip to Wood Islands. Islam drove ahead and waited at Hillsboro bridge for the other car. Another car came along and told of the accident. He had frequently driven the other car, which like the one he was driving at the time of the accident, had a tendency to sway.

Benjamin Livingston, boilermaker foreman at Bruce Stewart Co Ltd., gave evidence that he was returning to the city from New Perth and when approaching Pownal from the East side he was overtaken and passed by a car which appeared to be in loose gravel on a shoulder. The passing car swayed and went out of control. Witness stated he was going 30 or 35 and he believed the passing car was not going more than 40 miles per hour. Saw the man on the pavement and also walked over to the overturned car. Visibility was good, did not have lights on. Witness left the scene of the accident before the R. C. M. P. arrived.

Gordon Downe (14) of Mt. Mellick and Richard Arthur Jenkins (12) Pownal, both testified that they ran to the scene of the accident a short distance from a field in which they were, and saw dust flying. They saw only the overturned truck. Men in the truck had all gone to city before police arrived. They saw the accident plainly as it was not dark.

Constable Donald P. Mattocks, R.C.M.P., gave evidence and submitted a plan of the scene indicating various scratches and gouges made by the truck before it overturned. There were no skid marks.

On examining the truck, which he steered while it was being towed to the city, he found the steering and lights good.

An examination of the car disclosed personal papers pertaining to the truck driver, and several pieces of athletic equipment. There was no evidence of liquor in any way.

On hearing the conclusion of the evidence, the Jury retired and shortly after returned the verdict as above given, and added further that they were of the opinion that this type of vehicle was not proper for the work engaged in at the time of the accident. Coroner Coady thanked and discharged the jury, which consisted of Messrs. Harold Percy Smith, Pownal (foreman); Frederick Arden Richards, Mt. Mellick, and the following residents of Pownal, Richard Langlow Jenkins, William Vernon Burhoe, Ernest Roy Herman, Wilfred Bannerman Wood, and Alexander MacKenzie MacRae.

The Crown was represented by Mr. J. P. Nicholson.

Largely Attended Funeral At Fort Augustus

The funeral of Mrs. John P. MacNally of Donagh took place yesterday morning from her late residence to St. Patrick's Church Fort Augustus where Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Pastor Rev. T. P. Butler, assisted by Rev. Dr. Louis Callaghan as Deacon and Rev. Wm. Simpson as Sub-Deacon.

Rev. Allan MacDonald and Rev. Vincent Murnaghan were present in the sanctuary. The honorary pall bearers were Lawrence Heron, Frank Quoghan, Matthias Quoghan, Jethro Beagan, Joseph Trainor and John Beagan. The active pall bearers, all sons of the deceased were Leo, Levi, Charles, Joseph, Clifford and Gerald MacNally. Interment took place in the church cemetery where services were conducted by Father Butler assisted by Father MacDonald. The funeral of the late Mrs. MacNally was very largely attended.

PARIS, Aug. 30 —(AP)— Bernarr MacFadden, 84-year-old physical culturist who laughs at old age, made a parachute jump here today to celebrate his birthday and to prove that his health theories have kept him young. The wiry United States publisher and exponent of the vigorous outdoor life missed the Seine River and landed on dry ground on the west bank.

Salvation Army Team Of Evangelists

Major and Mrs. Burton Pedlar have laboured as Salvation Army Officers for many years. Both are Canadians by birth, having come from Feversham, and Brantford, Ontario, respectively. They were trained in The Salvation Army Training College, Toronto, and Major Pedlar, early in his career, spent some time in the remote areas of Northern Ontario as a Home Missionary. Following this service the Major was transferred to Sault Ste. Marie, where he was engaged in evangelistic work for a term of four years, before taking up work on the staff at the Salvation Army Training College in Toronto. During the latter part of the war years these officers took charge of the historic Temple Corps, in St. John's, Newfoundland, where they laboured for a period of three years. Early in 1947 a mission carried them to the Orient, where for five years they worked under the changing circumstances of the Far East. In the ancient city of Canton, China, they were eye witnesses of the great Communist Revolution, and they worked under this government for a year and a half after the Communist Government came to power. These officers of wide experience returned to Canada a few months ago, and are now leading a team of Evangelists on a nation-wide tour.
