

Banks - England Wedding

In St. Peter's Anglican Church at Alberton, on December 9, 1950, pine, fir, and red chrysanthemums formed a seasonable setting for the marriage of Verna Blanche daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon England of Alberton, to F. O. Kenneth Wrayman Banks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Banks of Conway. The impressive marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. J. R. McMahon.

Soft music was rendered preceding the ceremony, and the approach of the bride was heralded by Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Mr. Heath Profit.

The bride wore a white velvet gown with Princess lines, high collar and pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil of nylon net was held in place by a bandeau of the same material. She wore a three-strand necklace of pearls and carried a bouquet of Tea roses.

Miss Marilyn Rupert and Miss Phyllis Burhoe, both of Charlottetown, were bridesmaids. Miss Rupert's gown was of cherry red velvet with Princess lines, in an off-the-shoulder effect with cap sleeves. Her bouquet of Tallman roses. Miss Burhoe's gown was of similar style, in jade green, and she carried an American Beauty rose. Both wore Juliet caps and mitts to match their gowns; rhinestone necklaces and ear rings.

The little flower girls, Beverly Ann England and Susan McEwen, wore copies of the bridesmaids' gowns and caps and carried baskets filled with flower petals.

The groomsmen were F. O. Stewart Banks, brother of the groom, Ushers were F. O. L. Shaw and F. O. A. Heal.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. England wore teal blue with black accessories and a corsage of American Beauty roses. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Daniel Miller, wore black with a corsage of white carnation. The groom's mother wore cinnamon brown with a corsage of yellow roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception, attended by about sixty guests, was held at the home of the bride's parents. The dining room was decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and tall yellow tapers in silver candlesticks. The table, covered with a lace cloth, was centred by a three tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Graham Hooper of Charlottetown poured, while Mrs. Ingham Palmer of Charlottetown cut the ices. Girl friends of the bride assisted in serving. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. J. F. McMahon and responded to by the groom.

F. L. and Mrs. Banks left by car on a honeymoon trip. For travelling the bride wore a suit of chocolate brown velvet with gold corded silk blouse, burnt orange hat and brown accessories. Her top coat, of winter white, was hand woven. The young couple will reside in Summerside where the groom is stationed at the R. C. A. F. base.

Previous to her marriage, the bride was tendered a personal shower by friends in Charlottetown where she had been employed, and two miscellaneous showers by friends in Alberton.
