Sloan - MacKay Wedding

The following wedding was copied from issue of the Watertown Sun, Watertown, Mass., and will be of interest to many in this Province. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Albert T. MacKay and his wife, Edith Gay MacKay, formerly of Summerside.

At a seven o'clock ceremony on Saturday, Jan. 27, in Phillips Congregational Church, Shirley MacKay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert MacKay of Stoneleigh Road, became the bride of Jack Frederick Sloan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert I. Sloan of Wellesley Hills.

Rev. Paul B. Meyers, the minister officiated, and a reception for 300 guests held at Woodland Golf Club, Newton.

Franklin S. Field was soloist at the ceremony, and the wedding music was played by Townsend Coward, organist.

The bride's satin gown, with cathedral train, had a sunburst of applied Chantilly lace, and the scalloped collar of matching lace was studded with rhinestones. A bonnet of lace and rhinestones held her fingertip veil of illusion, and she carried a bouquet of Eucharis lilies, stephanotis and white lilies.

Mrs. William B. McGinnis, as matron of honor, was gowned in cinnamon rose taffeta accented with a crescent of white carnations and pink rosebuds. The bridesmaids were gowned alike in teal taffeta with pink carnations and roses, were Mary Gallagher of Watertown, Mrs. Lynn Sanderson of Portsmouth, N.H., Elizabeth Schmitt of Larchmont, N.Y., and which was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Nisbet, with whom she made her home for the past few years.

Mrs. Robert Knight of Medfield. Robert Sloan was best man for his brother, and the ushers were Robert Fraser, and William Moorhead of Brookline, John Kiernan of Washington, D.C. and Robert Reidy of Newton.

Smith - Enman Wedding

The marriage of Miss Wilma Joyce Enman of Everett Avenue, South Portland, Maine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Enman, Springhill, Prince Edward Island to 2nd Lt. Claire R. Smith, U. S. A. A. P. of Fort Williams took place recently in the First Congregational Church, South Portland. The Reverend Nathaniel Guptill officiated at the ceremony

The bride was beautifully gowned in white chantilly lace and wore a veil of French illusion, caught to a pearl crown. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Her attendants were Mrs. Clement A. Munger, Jr., of Vero Beach, N. Y., who was gowned in rose velvet and falls and Miss Doris Fischer of South Portland, who wore green falls. They carried colonial bouquets of carnations and roses.

Mr. Munger was best man, Lt. William S. Simms and Capt. David M. Grey were ushers. Following a trip to Washington, D. C., Lieutenant and Mrs. Smith will reside in Fort Williams where the groom is stationed.

The bride is a graduate of South Portland High School and the Aviation Training School Boston, Mass. She has been employed as dental assistant to David I. Brownstone.
