

Council Wants Welfare Agreements Clarified

Lively debate on the subject of welfare payments by the City featured the regular meeting of the Council last night. The meeting took place in the Police Court due to extensive renovations presently being carried out in the Council Chamber. Coun Arthur Gormley was not present for the meeting.

Chairman of Finance, E.C. Johnstone in outlining the City's position in regard to welfare payments to the Protestant and Catholic Bureaux said the time has come when the City must get a clarification of the Provincial Government's intention in regard to a new proposal of payments made earlier in the year, or revert to the previous method whereby the City paid eight thousand dollars, $4,000 of which was recoverable from the Provincial Government.

FORMER METHOD
In reviewing the welfare picture in the City, Coun. Johnstone said that prior to 1956, the city's relief was handled directly by the Finance Committee. He said the Finance committee was never happy about the situation because it was felt that much of the relief was not properly handled. The amount paid out at that time was about $4,000 per annum.

Upon the organization of the Protestant Welfare Bureau in 1956, the Government was approached and a temporary agreement was reached whereby the City would pay $2,000 to each of the bureaux with the local government matching these amounts.

He went on to state that during the summer the Council was approached by the Deputy Minister of Welfare who suggested that the City enter into an agreement with the Federal Government whereby half of all direct relief paid within the City would be recoverable from Ottawa. The remaining 50 per cent would presumably be split equally between the City and the Provincial Government.

NO AGREEMENT
Coun. Johnstone said that to date no satisfactory agreement had been reached with the Provincial Government and he is led to believe that the stand taken by that body is that the City will recover 50 per cent of whatever total amount they pay out through the welfare agencies.

Coun. Johnstone reported that the expenditures to date by the two bureaux for direct relief is $11,662 and under normal conditions the balance for the next two months would run this amount to $15,500 thus making the City's obligation $7,750.

Coun. Johnstone moved that a delegation be appointed to wait on the Government to get a clear cut decision on the matter. He felt if the scheme proposed by the Deputy Minister could not be put into effect the City would be better off to revert to the previous arrangement under which they had worked last year.

IMMEDIATE NEED
He said the both Welfare Bureaux were in need of funds at the present time and brought in a resolution asking that $3,000 be paid to each of the two organizations at once. This would take care of the City's obligation for 1957. The motion carried unanimously.

Johnstone in the fact that more relief was needed within the City. He said the amount paid out some years ago was less than it is now and this was before such benefits as unemployment insurance was known. "Now we are paying for unemployment insurance and the demand for relief instead of coming down is going up. I just can't see it," he said.

NO BARGAIN
Coun. Nicholson said that by signing the agreement of last summer, the Council had simply enabled the Government to recover all the money they had paid to the City for relief. "We are paying half of the amount and the Federal Government is paying the other half while the local Government pays nothing." Coun. Foster felt there should be an interpretation from Ottawa regarding the agreement. City recorder Martin expressed the opinion that the matter of relief to indigents was not the duty of either the province or the municipality. "They are citizens of the country and it is up to Canada to provide for them," he said.

Coun. McCormack felt that the old agreement of $4,000 split between the two bureaux was satisfactory but it would be better if they could get the agreement into operation.

Once again, the congregational hymn-singing at the evening service was noteworthy. This part of the service was under the direction of W.S. MacMurtry, assisted by Miss Foster at the organ, and Miss Florence Simmons at the piano. Mr. Bailey sang a request number, "There is a Balm in Gilead," as well as the oratorio "Lord God of Abraham," by Mendelssohn. Mr. Bailey's subject was "Christ, The Hope of the World." In a truly memorable sermon, Mr. Bailey spoke of the prevailing hopelessness which grips so many people, and declared that apart from a vital faith in Jesus Christ man is without hope, and without God.

Following the evening service, the congregation assembled in the Lower Church Hall for a period of fellowship, at which time Mr. Bailey showed slides of Williamsburg, Virginia, where Queen Elizabeth and Prince Phillip are to visit this week.

The final services of the Crusade For Christ will be held this evening and tomorrow evening at 7:45 in the Charlottetown Baptist Church, the climactic service being held in Zion Presbyterian Church on Wednesday evening at the same hour. At the closing service, the combined choirs of Zion Presbyterian Church and the and possibly St. Paul's Anglican and Charlottetown Baptist Church will sing.

Mammoth Dinner At Sports Arena Sparks Fund Campaign

More than 1500 members of Saint Dunstan's Basilica Parish attended a mammoth "Loyalty Dinner at the Sports Arena last night to launch their part in the Province-wide Catholic Charities Campaign.

Parishioners of Saint Dunstan's Basilica will endeavour to raise $300,000 over the next three years. $150,000 will be used as their share of the Diocesan Campaign, $100,000 to meeting operating expenses of the Church and $50,000 for the beginning of the construction of a new recreation centre in the City.

The campaign is being held to raise funds for the construction of a home for the chronically ill, to improve facilities at Saint Vincent's Orphanage and to supply funds for social welfare work.

Already $70,000 has been pledged in Saint Dunstan's Basilica parish, it was announced last night. This amount was pledged by the canvassers who will spearhead the campaign in the next few weeks.

Chairman of last night's dinner was Mr. Alban Farmer, who is general Chairman of the Campaign in the Basilica Parish. Speakers at the meeting were Most Reverend Malcolm MacEachern, Bishop of Charlottetown; Right Reverend Monsignor Patrick McMahon, Rector of Saint Dunstan's Basilica; Dr. J. H. Killorn, Convass Committee Chairman; Leo F. MacDonald, Don Whelan, Russell Driscoll, Convass Committee Chairman Frank Shanaghan, and Sir William MacMillan.

Second reading was given last night to a by-law to include the areas of Spring Park and Parkdale within the corporate limits of the City of Charlottetown.

In making an interpretation of the Act, City Recorder K.M. Martin explained that the by-law could never be passed until a plebiscite were held. The results of the plebiscite would indicate to the Council whether or not amalgamation of the areas concerned was desirable.

The reading of the by-law in council was necessary, he said before steps could be taken to hold the plebiscite.

CITY'S PEROGATIVE
The by-law states that not less than 40 days and not more than 45 days following the third reading of the by-law, this morning, the Mayor must proclaim a day on which the plebiscite shall be held. Should only one section of the sub-urban area be left to amalgamation, it shall be left to the discretion of the Council as to whether they shall accept their request.

Evangelistic Service At Baptist Church

Rev. E.J. Bailey was the preacher at both morning and evening services Sunday as the special evangelistic services continued in the Charlottetown Baptist Church. The services were conducted by Rev. H.L. Mitton, pastor of the church, and the music was under the direction of the church's acting-organist and choir director, Miss Elizabeth Foster, Assoc. of Music.

The morning worship took the form of a Service of Thanksgiving, the church being appropriately decorated with the fruits of harvest. Mr. Bailey, in speaking on the theme of Thanksgiving, declared that people can be delivered from grumbling and complaining and self pity only when their hearts are filled with the love of God. At the morning service, Mr. Bailey sang the appropriate selection, "How Great Thou Art."

Once again, the congregational hymn-singing at the evening service was noteworthy. This part of the service was under the direction of W.S. MacMurtry, assisted by Miss Foster at the organ, and Miss Florence Simmons at the piano. Ten-Day Crusade Reaches Climax At Zion Church

A ten-day "Crusade For Christ" reaches its climax this evening in Zion Presbyterian Church at 7:45 when Rev. Edgar J. Bailey brings his final message, "The God Who Forgives." Combined choirs of Zion, Baptist, and Central Christian church will sing under the direction of Mr. Lee Morgan. The Brooklyn Male Trio will also sing, as well as Mr. Bailey who will render, by request, the number "How Great Thou Art."

Mr. Bailey, pastor of the Westmount Baptist Church, Montreal, has been associated with Rev. H.L. Mitton for the past ten days in a series of evangelistic services in the Charlottetown Baptist Church. When it became apparent last week that the facilities of the Baptist Church were inadequate to accommodate the numbers in attendance at the services, the session of the Zion Presbyterian Church very graciously offered the use of their building. Accordingly, it was decided to hold the climactic service this evening in Zion Church, making it as much as possible a community witness.

Rev. G. Howard Christie, president of the Charlottetown Ministerial Association, will join Mr. Bailey and Mr. Mitton on the platform as will Rev. W. H. Brown, the pastor of Zion Presbyterian Church.

In expressing the thanks of the congregation to Mr. Bailey last evening, Mr. Mitton stated that the pastor-evangelist had done much to enrich the spiritual life of the city. "Your drive and enthusiasm, your simple and powerful presentation of the Gospel, your breadth of interests, and your constant reminder that the Christian life is not a stuffy thing but a thing of joy, have made a deep impression upon us all."

Mr. Bailey spoke last evening on the theme, "The Old Rugged Cross." The mainward side of the cross shows the depth of sin of which man is capable; the Godward side of the cross reveals the depth of God's love for His wayward children." Following the message, a number of people made decisions to begin the Christian life, and many others rededicated their lives to the service of Christ and His Church.

By-Law Reading Endorses Holding Suburban Plebiscite

Second reading was given last night to a by-law to include the areas of Spring Park and Parkdale within the corporate limits of the City of Charlottetown.

Should only one section of the sub-urban area be left to amalgamation, it shall be left to the discretion of the Council as to whether they shall accept their request.

Each of the areas proposed to be annexed would constitute a ward of the City with two councillors each.

The city would procure extension of the sewage and water systems of the City to be commenced within six months and to be completed within two years. The City will assume all liability for all funded debt now maintained by Spring Park and Parkdale which facilities will be administered by the Board of School Trustees of Charlottetown.

Evangelistic Services Start At North River

"The tremendous gift of salvation" was the title of the first sermon preached by Rev. Keith Hobson of Summerside in a series of evangelistic services which began Tuesday evening in the North River Baptist church.

Mr. Hobson said that there are many people today who are like those who pawn things in a pawn shop. They pawn precious things and redeem them over and over again. But in every pawn shop there are many valuable items which the owners were unable to redeem. The speaker said that men and women are pawning their souls with the hope of redeeming them again, but the time would come when they would be unable to redeem them.

Mr. Hobson said that someone had to pay the price of redemption for men and women concerned. God sent His Son to pay that price. "It was sin," he said, "which nailed Jesus to the cross," but men and women today had as much to do with it as those who lived when that horrible deed was done.

"Sin against a fellowman," said Mr. Hobson, is bad enough but sin against God is outrageous. Meetings will continue this evening when Mr. Hobson will take as his topic "The Lamb of God."
