MODERN STYLE IN DRESS.

Never before, during the memory of woman, and searching back still further among the archives of costume of past ages, have such advantages been enjoyed, with respect to dress, as are now in full force in the zenith of the date of 1867. Plunge back suddenly fifteen years, and make a rapid resume of dress as it was, taking cognizance of the disadvantages under which our mammas and elder sisters suffered. Skirts equal at waist and hem, drawn up round the figure on the principle of a curtain round a shower-bath—an awkward bulk about the hips, and wagging uncomfortably against the heels with every movement of the body; too long to disclose the dainty foot, or reveal the graceful tournure of the ankle, too short to flow into the stately folds of the train. The bodice, long, sraight, and stiff, was distorted as certain Indians depress and elongate the heads of their infants, and "a shape" only achieved at the expense of tight lacing, the injury of the wearer's health, and what, perhaps, she prized far more, her complexion. Mantles were drawn up at the neck, pulled over the arms, and cut short and square behind, rendering the shoulders high in aspect, the back broad, and the whole figure as singular as artificial means permitted, exhibiting at the same time to the greatest advantage, or disadvantage, the bundles of gathers at the waist.

Bonnets, three times the dimensions of the head, to the shape of which they bore no sort of resemblance, swung behind, half on the crown and half off. The hair was arranged sometimes with a certain amount of taste, because the outline of the head was preserved; but a prevailing tendency existed to bind it too close, and flatten it down with bandolines and hard pomatum.

As for our poor grandmammas, their scanty skirts and low bodices—very low bodices—and bare arms and operatic ankles infringed sadly on propriety. We are quite sure we should blush to see one of them now, and hastily throw a shawl or cloak about her till something more could be done. People did not regard such a scantiness of habiliments with any uneasiness, when it was the fashion; but the disadvantages personally were terrible. It might be all very well for sweet sixteen to cut her dress tres decolets; but when any one was a little past forty the matter was different. It might be equally suitable for beautifully moulded arms to have no covering but twenty-buttoned gloves (a style likley to appear ence more), but the little muscular exercise taken by the fair belles in society leaves a great many with slender arms, flat wrists and pointed elbows, passable enough in hanging-sleeves, or coat-sleeves, or princess-sleeves, nay, very graceful and proper in any sleeves, are unfit to meet the glare of the day unshrouded. No doubt the youngest daughter tripped gracefully enough in her scanty petticoat—it might have been pretty to see her twinkling in tiny silk shoes with only brown paper soles, though she was going into consumption in consequence of wearing that bewildering chaussure, and her disease was accelerated during the January snows and March winds and chilly autumn evenings by the bare neck and arms that nevertheless were so pretty; but to her dear mamma, who was just sixty and weighed three stone, it could by no means be considered so suitable a mode of dressing.

So at last we return to the fact we have sought to establish—that never before had ladies so many advantages in dress, or so many varieties of fashion whence to suit themselves. There are still abuses; there are those who have the bad taste to cut their corsages too low—and we really pity them since the arrangement of a little elegant lace would look much more pretty and modest. We have scarcely discarded the large crinoline, that confounded grace and deformity; and we still rejoice in an English goitre on the head known as a chignon; a great beauty, namely, a well-formed head, is as much obscured by the latter fashion, as grace of motion, that exquisite charm, was by the former. But then there is the gored skirt, flowing into such incomparable elegance and dignity! Those to whom nature has been kind may drape forms of beauty in strictly plaitless garments, which are the very perfection of style; and those too stout or too thin, by adopting a few folds, are at liberty to drape exuberance or conceal deficiency of outline without losing the character of the gored skirt. We have jaunty little jackets for outdoors, for petite figures, the tight-fitting mantle for the tall, perfect form; and the demi-adjuste for an elegant but less strictly turned figure; to say nothing of ample cloaks of mingled silk and lace or velvet for less youthful forms. As for bonnets they are pretty enough, and we could only wish them larger, because they necessitate much wearing of false hair, less on account of natural deficiency than for warmth. The beautiful outline of the bust is preserved in the plain boddice with the low darts; the short waist adds to its apparent fullness, and has abolished tight lacing. Only fifteen years ago tight-lacing was an absolute necessity to stout or square figures. A thick waist was such a crime that a young lady would rather have been dead than eyed in society by other ladies, and sneered at at home. And so she screwed herself in, and suffered, and sometimes died. A thick waist in those days was as great a fault as a penchant for a younger son, or penniless but charming barrister or artist, with their career yet before them.

INNOCENT AMUSEMENT IN TEXAS.

The scene is a town of interior Texas.

The actors are two planters of the old regime.

They sit under a verandah, smoking and spitting.

Jones—"Come, Smith, let's ride home."

Smith—"I'm not ready yet. I have not shot a nigger to-day. I won't go home without shooting a nigger."

Jones—"Well, it's late now; too late to shoot niggers to-day."

Smith—"No, it is not; I'm not going home without shooting a nigger."

Jones—"Shoot that boy walking over there."

Smith—looking at him critically—No, I won't shoot him; he's rather a good fellow; I'll shoot another."

Jones—"Well, come, mount; we'll see one on the road."

They mount and ride away. Presently they ride by a hut, in the doorway of which sits a negro man. Jones reins up:

"There, I guess I'll shoot him; he's a good mark there."

Pulls out the pistol, fires, kills the negreo.

Jones—"Now we'll go home; I made up my mind to shoot a nigger before I went home this night."

Jones and Smith were arrested; being "gentlemen" they demanded to be handed over to the civil authorities. They were at once let out on easy bail. Thereupon the military authorities re-arrested them; and we hear they are to be tried by military authority, and will probably be hanged—unless somebody bails them again.

This is an actual and recent occurrence, related to us by a Texan.—N. Y. Evening Post.

We particularly desire that all who are interested in their own welfare, should give Blood's Rheumatic Compound one fair trial, and be convinced of its superiority.

THE KING OF THE PICKPOCKETS—SOME FACTS ABOUT DAN NOBLE.—The telegraph informs us that the notorious Dan Noble has just "come to grief," having been arrested at Elmria, charged with receiving $200,000 of the bonds stolen last December from the Royal Insurance Company. This announcement revives some facts that have come to our reportorial knowledge at various times in regard to Dan. He is well known to the sporting fraternity of Cleveland and vicinity, who look up to him as the king of pickpockets and expert thieves generally. Dan took up his residence in Cleveland some time in the year 1862, in a house on Bolivar street. Afterwards he rented an elegant residence in East Cleveland, and lived there in great style. Hereabouts he was known as a liberal and free and easy "gentleman" of his class—a patron of dog fighting, horse racing, foot racing, prize fighting, and every thing else in the sporting line. Cleveland was his headquarters, from whence he would make incursions to various parts of the country In one of these forays he "relieved" a man of $1,500 on a Pittsburg train. Word was somehow got to the Pittsburg detectives that such a robbery had been committed, and they were therefore on the lookout when the train entered the depot of that place. Dan was at once "spotted" as the thief, being known, and was pursued. Before he was caught he had thrown away the money, so that it was not found on his person. He was examined and held for trial in the sum of $3,500. That amount the prisoner easily obtained at a Cleveland bank where he had a fat balance—and was therefore set at liberty. After residing here two or three years, he went East. A year ago last winter, Noble won $75,000, at faro, in New York City. With this money he bought a superb brown stone house in New York City, where he lived in princely style, until a reverse of fortune at a gaming table compelled him to sacrifice it. He is a shrewd and daring "sport," and we have no idea that the law, even now, has got him securely; but doubt not he will elude its meshes in some manner.—Cleveland Plaindealer.

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR

CONSUMPTION,

and acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be far the most Reliable Preparation ever introduced for the RELIEF and CURE of all

LUNG COMPLAINTS.

This well known remedy is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years; and when resorted to in season, seldom fails to effect a speedy cure of Coughs, Colds, Croup, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Hoarseness, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Bleeding at the Lungs, Liver Complaint, &c.

The unequalled success that has attended the application of this medicine in all cases of

PULMONARY COMPLAINTS

has induced many physicians of high standing to employ it in their practice, some of whom advise us of the fact over their own signatures. We have space only for the names of a few of these:—

ALEX. HATCH, M.D.	A. A. GIBBS, M.D.
E. BOYDEN, M.D.	W. H. WEBB, M.D.

Such testimony

CANNOT BE DISCREDITED.

From the mass of evidence in our possession we select the following:—

From L. J. RACINE, Esq.,

of La Minerve, Montreal. "Having experienced the most gratifying results from the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, I am induced to express the great confidence which I have in its efficacy. For nine months I was most cruelly afflicted with a severe and obstinate cough, accompanied with acute pain in the side, which did not leave me, summer or winter. The symptoms increased alarmingly, and so reduced was I that I could walk but a few steps without resting to recover from the pain and fatigue which so slight an exertion occasioned. At this juncture I commenced taking the Balsam, from which I found immediate relief, and after having used four bottles I was completely restored to health. I have used the Balsam in my family, and administered it to my children, with the happiest results. I am sure that such Canadians as use the Balsam can but speak in its favor. It is a preparation which has only to be tried to be acknowledged as the remedy par excellence."

A CURE FOR WHOOPING COUGH.

ST. HYACINTHE, C.E., Aug. 21, 1856.

Messrs. SETH W. FOWLE & SON.

Gentlemen:—Several months since a little daughter of mine, ten years of age, was taken with Whooping Cough in a very aggravated form, and nothing we could do for her seemed in any way to relieve her suffering. We at length decided to try a bottle of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. In three hours after she had commenced using it, she was greatly relieved, and in less than three days was entirely cured, and is now well. I have since recommended the Balsam to many of my neighbors, who have used it, and in no case have I known it fail of effecting a speedy cure.

You are at liberty to make any use of the above you think proper. If it shall induce anybody to use your Balsam I shall be glad, for I have great confidence in it.

Yours, P. GUITTE,
Proprietor of the Courrier de St. Hyacinthe.

Judson's Worm Tea!

THE ROAD TO HEATH AND LONG LIFE

SECURED BY

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

Impurities of the Blood.

In selecting the most appropriate medicine for a particular ailment, there may be some difficulty unless one can be found to purify, regulate, and improve the quality of the blood. These Pills possess and exert these three qualifications in an extraordinary degree. They enable the stomach to digest any ordinary food, increase the secretory powers of the liver, cleanse and purify the blood, expel all morbid matter, and throw into the circulation the purest elements for sustaining and repairing the frame.

Weakness and Debility.

How many persons suffer from debility without knowing the causes why they are feeble! In most cases the stomach is the aggressor. Holloway's Pills have long been famed for regulating a disordered stomach, and restoring its healthy digestive tone; they are, therefore, confidently recommended as a never failing remedy in all cases where the constitution, from any cause, has become impaired or weakened.

Disease of the Head and Heart.

These formidable diseases are, unfortunately, of frequent occurrence; for the most part they creep on gradually, but may be prevented by proper precautions. Holloway's Pills are the surest preservatives against all derangements of the brain, and are the speediest correctors of irregular circulation. If they be taken without delay, when tingling in the limbs, drowsiness, or giddiness comes on, the effect will be marvelious.

Females of all Ages & Classes.

The fame of these Pills is partly based upon the beneficial effects they have upon the constitutions of females. From the domestic servant to the peeress, universal favor is accorded to them for their invigorating and purifying properties, which render them so safe and invaluable in all disorders peculiar to the sex Obstructions of every kind, either in young persons entering into womanhood or approaching the turn of life—the most critical period—may be radically removed by a recourse to these Pills.

All Disorders affecting the Liver, Stomach and Bowels.

Whenever the stomach, liver, or bowels are disordered by high living, climate, over-indulgence, undue exertion or other causes, these fine regulating Pills will soon rectify the evil, and speedily bring back energy, strength and cheerfulness to the frame where previously all was lassitude, gloom and dejection.

Despondency, Low Spirits.

The misery occasioned by a disordered digestion is, unfortunately, felt by most. These famous Pills should be taken in appropriate doses to adjust the disturbed functions. They dispel headache, biliousness, nausea, lowness of spirits, and all similar ailments. A course of these invaluable purifying Pills never fails in removing the cause of such morbid affections, without subjecting the sufferer to any inconvenience Influenza, Diptheria, Bronchitis, Coughs and Colds.

In our changeable climate few persons escape without colds, sore throats, influenza, diptheria, or bronchitis, for all of which these famous corrective Pills may be taken with the certainty of effecting a cure. While the Pills are expelling all impurities from the body generally, Holloway's Ointment should be well rubbed upon the chest and throat; it will penetrate the skin, reduce inflammation, and restore lasting soundness.

Holloway's Pills are the best Remedy known in the world for the following diseases:

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW;

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of mothers her

Soothing Syrup,

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for over thirty years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed, in a single instance, to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it; on the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "what we do know," after thirty years' experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skilful nurses in New England, and has been used with never-failing success in

THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve and overcomes convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in Children, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints —do not let your prejudices, nor the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be sure—yes, absolutely sure—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the facsimile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC.
