Vernon Weeks and Wesley Stevenson were appointed as a water committee, and Allison Weeks and Byron Cutcliffe to prepare a programme for next meeting. As a means of raising money they had a fishing pond. Report of school concert was given, and bills were ordered paid. Meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

Our little village is one of the most beautiful surrounded by many hills. We claim to live on the highest land in Prince Edward Island, Springs rise and shed their water in different directions, contributing to the sources of some of our largest rivers. Land is rolling but very fertile, evidenced by the prosperity of its people. The village is peopled by business men, railway and civil service employees, and retired folk. Many successful islanders in the larger centers claim Fredericton as their home. In many colleges our youth prepare for their chosen fields of labor. The residents are of English and Scottish descent. We have one Danish family classed as one of our most highly respected and prosperous. Our folk are happy, contented and hard working, with a love of freedom, justice and peace, enjoying the values offered them each day and ever developing a reverence for things sacred. At five a.m. lights begin to twinkle and from then until midnight life goes on, each contributing in his or her own way to the home life of one of the many villages scattered throughout our beautiful Garden of the Gulf.

IN MEMORIAM

CLARE GAUTHIER

The whole community of North Rustico was saddened to hear of the death of Clare Gauthier, which took place at an early hour on Sunday morning, December 31, in the Charlottetown Hospital.

Clare was stricken about a year ago, and everything was done to bring about a cure, but God willed otherwise, and on the above mentioned date called her back to Him. She endeavored herself to all, classmates and teachers, and will always be remembered as an example of patience and cheerfulness for during her long illness she was never known to complain, and she met death with resignation and a smile.

To her bereaved parents we say, "Do not grieve, but rather rejoice with another of God's chosen children."

The funeral Mass which was said by her pastor, Reverend Eric Robin, on Tuesday morning, Jan. 2, was very largely attended. The Children of Mary Sodality of which she was a member, attended in a body. The pallbearers, all classmates, were Bertram Gallant, Edward Gallant, Joseph Saultier, LeRoy Dolron, Louis Dolron and Basil Poirier.

The many Mass cards, spiritual bouquets and messages of sympathy were silent tributes to one whose memory we will always hold dear.

Besides her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah P. Gauthier, she leaves to mourn the following brothers and sisters: Rouel, Richard, Aubin, Elmer, Mrs. Eugene Pineau, Mrs. Arthur Gauthier, Mrs. Ralph Rose, all of North Rustico; Mrs. Elmer Richards of Charlottetown and Mrs. Leslie Redgate of Nottingham, England.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. WILLIAM BOYCE

On December 20, 1950 there died after a few days illness in the hospital at Fort Lauderdale, Florida, William Boyce in his eighty-ninth year.

Mr. Boyce was born in Mermaid, Prince Edward Island and was the oldest and last surviving member of a family of seven children born to the late Valentine Boyce and his wife, Jane Ratray.

Most of his life was spent in the United States where he went while a young man. He was a skilled pattern and cabinet maker and he followed this trade all but a few years when he returned to farming at Mermaid, P. E. I.

Thirteen years ago he retired from work and went to Pompano Beach, Florida to live. He was a quiet, kind and loyal friend to those who knew him best.

His wife was Grace Hudson of Nova Scotia. She pre-deceased him about 17 years ago. He leaves four children, five grandchildren and two great grandchildren to mourn his passing.

The children are—G. Chesnut of California; Fred and Earl of Pompano Beach, Florida; and Elsie, Mrs. Leslie W. MacDonald, Bunbury, P. E. I.

Funeral services took place in Mermaid Church and burial was in the adjoining cemetery on December 27. The Rev. G. Carlyle Webster of Zion Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, officiated.

The hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "Rock of Ages". The pallbearers were Joseph MacEachern, J. W. MacEachern, James MacEachern, Cyrus MacDonald, Joseph Power and Walter Munn; all former neighbors of the deceased.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. Frank Stevenson who departed this life January 21st, 1949.

Quietly sleeping is one of the best, In God's own garden now at rest.

Inserted by Randolph.

IN MEMORIAM

Edward A. Clark, who passed away January 20th, 1949.

His memory is as dear today As in the hour he passed away. There is a link death cannot sever, Love and Remembrance last forever.

Ever Remembered "Janet."

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear wife, Mrs. Frank Stevenson, who departed this life January 21st, 1949.

I miss her because I loved her. She was dearer than silver and gold No treasure on earth can replace her, Remembrance will never grow old.

Eleven years ago we parted, Never will her memory fade, Loving thoughts will always linger Around the spot where she is laid.

Inserted by Husband.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our daughter (Elizabeth) Mrs. Frank Stevenson, who passed away at Darlington, January 21st, 1949.

Gene from a world of sorrow, Into a Heaven of rest, God must have a beautiful garden For he always chooses the best.

Sweet are the memories silently kept, Of one we loved and will never forget, Though absent she is ever near, Still loved, still missed and ever dear.

Father and Mother, Mr. and Mrs. David Rennie.

IN MEMORIAM

ALETHA ISABEL MacDONALD

A wave of sadness passed over the community of Covehead and her many friends elsewhere when the message came that Aletha Isabel, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Harold MacDonald had passed away at the Children's Hospital, Montreal, Dec. 20, 1950, at the early age of 12 years.

Just three weeks previous to her death Aletha had said goodbye to friends and loved ones, and left for Montreal with a smile, in all hopes of recovery.

And so on the above date a small anaesthetic was given in effort to straighten her knee, but despite the best medical skill and care, her spirit took its flight to that land where there is no more pain.

During her very trying illness which she bore with great courage and patience her ready smile made for her lasting friends, with young and old alike. She will be greatly missed by her little playmates at school, but it is in the home where her loss is most keenly felt, as those who knew her best loved her most.

There are left to mourn a sorrowing mother and father, one sister Veda (Mrs. Ivan Morrow), Charlottetown, two brothers, Harvey and Keir at home.

The funeral which was very largely attended was held from her late residence on Sunday, Dec. 23, at service conducted by Rev. Thos. A. Wilson, who spoke comforting words to the bereaved.

The hymns sung were "Jesus Loves Me" and "When He Cometh". A large procession wended its way to Covehead Cemetery where all that was mortal was tenderly laid to rest.

The pallbearers were: Aubrey Ready, Clayton MacDonald, Martin Birt, Joey O'Brien, Alan Rardon and Lewis MacMillan.
