CHARLOTTETOWN Business College Writing Academy

Let the searchlight of practice illuminate the dark places of theory. A THOROUGHLY Progressive Practical Institution, in which young men and women are not only taught Book-keeping (both its applications to commerce) both by single and double entry, but are trained how to do business, by actual business transactions. The students act as buyers, sellers, traders, bankers, book-keepers and accountants, in actual business operations, and the currency issued by the college Bank and the notes issued from the Emorium, are used in bona fide business transactions, just the same as in mercantile and banking houses. Book-keeping in itself may be learned at home, but a knowledge of how to transact business, cannot be thus acquired. That our course system of training is eminently practical, writes for testimonials from business men, and from students who are now holding lucrative and responsible positions.

SUBJECTS: Book-keeping by single and double entry (theoretical and practical); Actual Business Practice, Business Penmanship, Principles of Correspondence, Commercial Arithmetic, Commercial Law, Railroading, Steamboating, Banking, (actual practice in the College Bank); Typewriting, Shorthand and Navigation. FACULTY: L. B. Miller, Principal, Teacher of Book-keeping, Arithmetic, Business Practice, Business Correspondence, Typewriting and Navigation. J. W. Conison, (Vice Principal), Teacher of Railroading, Steamboating, Banking, Accounting and Actual Business Practice. J. Harry Williams, Teacher of Business Penmanship. Wm. THERE WAS CHEATING.

And Simpkins Was Compelled to Tell How He Knew It.

Over the river a virtuous spasm came upon the authorities, and a lot of "gams" were "pulled." Among other witnesses for the state the name of Simpkins was called.

Mr. Simpkins, who was a pasty faced young man, rose from his seat and walked to the witness stand. After the oath had been administered to him and the usual preliminary question had been asked, he was told to go on and tell his story.

"It was this way," said Mr. Simpkins, "I like to play a little poker once in awhile, and I went up into this room and sat in a game. There were four others besides myself playing. Things ran along pretty evenly for awhile and then one of the men—I have since learned that he was the proprietor of the room—began to win heavily. I watched him and became convinced that he was cheating. Finally I knew he was cheating and drew out of the game. Then I sat and watched him for awhile, and I saw him deal big hands to the man he wanted to beat, and then deal himself bigger ones. It was scandalous. He stacked the cards and held them out, and did all sorts of disreputable things. I saw this and am prepared to prove it. If there is anything I abhor, it is cheating at cards."

"Wait a moment, Mr. Simpkins," interrupted the prosecuting attorney. "What was it that first attracted your attention to the fact that cheating was going on?" Mr. Simpkins fidgeted a bit in his chair and then said, "Why, I was in a pot with this man, and when it came to a showdown, he had four kings!" "And why did that convince you that he was cheating?" "Because—because"—stammered Mr. Simpkins, and then he stopped short. "Answer the question, Mr. Simpkins," put in the judge. Mr. Simpkins grew red in the face. "Because," he finally said, "why, I know he was cheating because he showed down four kings and at the very same time I was holding out two kings for the next hand."—Fargo Forum.

THE PENNY IN CHURCH.

Such an Offering, Except From the Poor, Is an Insult to God.

"The important part which the penny plays in the average church offering is known to every one who has ever been interested in church finances," writes Edward W. Bok in The Ladies' Home Journal. "And that it is a part entirely out of proportion to the necessities is felt and realized by many a church treasurer. Scores of people who could afford to drop a nickel or a dime into the church offering content themselves by giving a penny. The feeling is either that the smallest offering 'will do,' or the matter of church finances is not given any thought. There is a failure to realize that a church is the same as any other business institution, and it must have money for its maintenance."

"There is such a thing as too literal an interpretation of the phrase that 'religion is free.' Of course it is free, and let us hope that it will always be so in this country. But to make religion free costs money—and this isn't an Irish bull, either. There are those to whom more than 'the widow's mite' given to the church would mean doing without some absolute necessity of life. The penny of such a one is the most welcome gift to any church, the most noble offering which any one can make. But from those who can give more than a penny, and who are giving only the penny, such an offering is an insult to God and to his church, and the sooner people see the matter in this hard, true light the better. I am almost tempted to say that the great majority of churches could, with perfect justice, rule out the penny from their offerings. Were this done the nickel would be the prevailing offering, and to how few persons, when one stops to consider the question, would such an offering be a hardship or an impossibility? A yearly offering of $2.60, calculating that one attended church once each Sunday or twice with one offering of 5 cents, would galvanize the church finances of this country."

PAIN'S CELERY COMPOUND CURES

Nervous, Weak, Sick, and Broken-down Men and Women.

Has Saved Thousands from Agony, Suffering and the Grave.

The Great Spring Medicine that Cures When All Others Fail.

Eminent Professional Men, People of Wealth, and the Ordinary People Declare that Paine's Celery Compound Has No Equal.

WILLS & RICHARDSON Co., DEAR SIR: It is with great pleasure that I testify to the value of your great medicine, Paine's Celery Compound. For nearly two years I suffered from indigestion, kidney and liver troubles. After trying several medicines that did not effect a cure I decided to try your Compound. Before using it I was so low in health that I could not eat or sleep. I could not lie in bed owing to pain in my back; it was only by resting on elbows and knees I was enabled to obtain a slight degree of ease. Before I had fully taken one bottle of your medicine I began to improve. I have now taken in all fourteen bottles with grand results. I am a farmer and am now working every day. Anyone may refer to me in regard to these statements, or to any of my neighbors around Sheffield, where I am well known. I am a living witness to the worth of Paine's Celery Compound. Yours very truly, GEORGE J. SAYE, Sheffield, Ont.

WILLS & RICHARDSON Co., DEAR SIR:—I take this opportunity to express my gratitude for the good that I and my friends have received from your valuable discovery, Paine's Celery Compound. For years I have suffered from constant sick headache; at times I have been so bad that I have been unable to sleep two hours a night for weeks. I have tried many medicines and doctored a great deal, but never received a hundredth part of the value from them that I have obtained from Paine's Celery Compound. After using three bottles I can sleep well, my headaches have ceased, and I feel healthier and fresher than I have done for years. Being one of the earliest settlers in this place, I am known to all the surrounding country and I feel it a duty to let others know about the medicine that has done me so much good. I send this testimonial without any solicitation. Yours with gratitude, MRS. E. WILCOX, Greenmore, Ont.

WILLS & RICHARDSON Co., GENTLEMEN:—No living mortal can imagine the terrible sufferings that I endured for four years, owing to liver trouble, headache and sore back. I may say that in addition to the dangerous ailments just mentioned, I was continually sick at my stomach, with a sour taste and mouth all corroded and coated. I tried many patent medicines and was under the treatment of doctors, and received no benefit. I thank God for having heard of your wonderful Paine's Celery Compound. I procured a supply and used it, and experienced a great change. No other remedy ever gave me such wonderful results in so short a time. I now find myself a new woman, and can sleep well and enjoy my food. No soul should despair when they can procure Paine's Celery Compound, the sweetest and best of all medicines. Yours truly, MRS. J.
