THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JUNE 24, 1891.

A Patriotic Speech.

We clip from the Senate Hansard the following report of Hon. G. W. Howlan's speech in respect to the recent ministerial changes, and commend it to readers of THE EXAMINER:

"I do not agree, and never have agreed, with the sentiment that the Government of Canada should be represented by sections. I think it is about time that we got away from that idea. The Government of Canada should be chosen by the Premier from the ablest of his supporters, having due regard and paying all deference and respect to the people who support that Government. The lesson taught by the late departed statesman was a grand and noble sentiment of patriotism, apart from what may be called parish politics. It was to weld the people of Canada into a solid whole, and govern the Dominion for the benefit of one people. That lesson will be taken up by the gentleman who is now filling the position of Premier so worthily. He was a student in the same school, and imbibed the sentiments and views enunciated during the last twenty-five years by his great leader since the birth of Confederation. I hope that the Liberal-Conservative party will benefit by the lesson they have been taught by their great leader, and that it will not be lost on the Government of the day—that they will be able to show a united front in dealing with all questions which concern the welfare of Canada, and that they will guard the heritage which the Right Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald bequeathed to us. He died in the harness, as it were, and left us a united country, and he has left us also the example of his life—a life devoted to promoting the welfare of the Dominion. It will not be lost either by those of us who are soon to pass away, or by the generations which are to follow us. White haired men, like myself, who knew and loved our great leader, cannot forget the great services he rendered to the country, his tact and patience and courtesy, and with all due respect to those he has left behind in the public life of this country, many generations will rise and pass away before Canada will see another Sir John Macdonald to guide its destinies. But I hope that the lesson he has taught us will be thoroughly learned by the younger men, and that they will share the broad and generous sentiments which animated him, and which made Sir John Macdonald's death as much mourned in the halls of St. Stephens as throughout the Dominion. The hon. gentleman who has assumed the task of forming a new Government will have the satisfaction of knowing that so long as he pursues the same wise and moderate course, as long as he follows in the footsteps of his illustrious predecessor, he will have no reason to fear that a majority of the people of Canada will faithfully adhere to his administration, and he may take for his motto: 'Justice to all, malice towards none.'"

—One of the biographers of Sir Robert Peel says: "Models of statesmanship are rare, if by a model of statesmanship is meant a great administrator and party leader, a great philosopher and a great independent orator all in one. But if the question is, whether he was a ruler loved and trusted by the English people, there is no arguing against the tears of a nation." These last words are, as the Montreal Gazette remarks, peculiarly applicable to the attitude of the Dominion towards Sir John Macdonald. "There is no arguing against the tears of a nation."

The Silken Tie.

The nuptials of Mr. G. Frank Beer, of Beer Bros., and Miss Annie Weeks, youngest daughter of William Weeks, Esq., were celebrated in the Methodist Brick Church at an early hour this morning in the presence of a large and interested congregation. The church was tastefully decorated, and, altogether, the ceremony was of the finest of its kind, the beautiful bride, in a tasteful travelling suit of navy blue, being the cynosure of all eyes. Rev. Mr. Read made "the silken tie," and Professor Earle presided at the organ. Needless to say, the music was appropriate and excellent. Mr. and Mrs. Beer left by the mail express for Summerside, thence to Montreal, and thence to England. THE EXAMINER offers its congratulations and wishes the popular and happy couple health, wealth and happiness, and length of life.

The presents to the bride were numerous and valuable, including a handsome and costly piece of plate from the clerks of Messrs. Beer Bros.' establishment.

Personal.

Dr. R. McNeill, of Stanley, is in the city.

Dr. Anderson, of Prince of Wales College, was one of the speakers at the closing exercises at the Halifax School for the Blind on Monday.

The Rev. D. M. Gordon, B. D., arrived here last evening, en route from the General Assembly held at Kingston, to visit his relatives and friends in this city.

We regret to learn that Senator Macdonald is ill at Ottawa. He is suffering from malarial fever. Mrs. Macdonald and Mr. Æneas Macdonald leave for Ottawa to-morrow morning.

Mr. J. F. McKay, who formerly did business as a watchmaker and jeweler in this city, but who is now an attorney and counsellor-at-law, in Boston, is receiving great credit from the Boston press for the part he took in showing up the shadey transactions of a concern known as "The Eastern Investment Company," which flourished for a time in the "Hub." Mr. McKay was counsel for several persons who claimed to have been defrauded by the "Company." THE EXAMINER is pleased to hear of his success abroad.

PROMPT PAYMENT.—The following letter, addressed to the agents of that right good Assurance Company, the Equitable Life, speaks for itself:—

CHARLOTTETOWN, 22nd June, 1891.

Messrs. Warburton & Smallwood, Agents of the Equitable Life Assurance Co.

GENTLEMEN,—As executors of the Right Rev. Peter McIntyre, late Bishop of Charlottetown, we think it but right to express to you our great satisfaction with the prompt manner in which the amount of the late Bishop McIntyre's life assurance in the Equitable was paid by that Company. We could not wish for anything more satisfactory than the Company's course in this matter.

† J. C. McDONALD,
PETER CONROY.

LA GRIPPE.—Private advices from reliable parties in the Magdalen Islands state that among the inhabitants there this scourge is abating. There are now few new cases, and many are rapidly recovering. No extra clerical or medical assistance is now talked of for the outbreak there.

MIDSUMMER EXAMINATIONS

West Kent Street School.

THE series of midsummer examinations in the City Schools began at West Kent Street School this forenoon. Among the visitors we noticed the Hon. W. W. Sullivan, Chief Justice, Hon. David Laird, P. C.; J. B Macdonald, Chairman of the School Board; Thomas Handrahan, Alexander McKinnon, Isaac Oxenham, G. H. Robinson, Artemas Lord, B. Balderston, and other gentlemen, and a large number of ladies. It is pleasing to state that the examination was satisfactory. In a short speech at the conclusion of the exercises Mr. Macdonald congratulated the school upon the marked improvement of the past year over that of previous years—the average marks being higher than ever before. The Chief-Justice said that he was gratified with what he had seen and heard. The pupils had answered questions which he had put to them most intelligently and his personal observation on the occasion of this and previous visits assured him that the staff of the school is an excellent one and that marked improvement has been made by the scholars. The Chief Justice also spoke of the good conduct of the school, expressed his pleasure on hearing the patriotic songs which had been sung so well, pointed out that Canada was a large and magnificent country, advised the boys to learn well and prepare to distinguish themselves in it. David Laird corroborated the observations of the Chief Justice concerning the improvement of the pupils and the solid work done in the school. He advised them to be loyal and true to Canada. If they had to leave Charlottetown, let them go West—not South. The following programme was well rendered:

Chorus—"Dear Canada to Thee." ..... The School.

Recitation— ..... Girls from Miss Currie's Room.

Vocal Solo—"Do not turn me from your door." ..... Master Fred Hazzard.

Concert Exercise— ..... Boys from Miss Ashley's Room.

Dumb Bell Exercise— .....

Chorus—"A rolling stone gathers no moss." ..... School Boys.

Dialogue— ..... Girls from Miss Stumbles' Room.

Song and Chorus—"Canada, Land of the Maple Tree." ..... Solo by Jack Lewis.

Reading— ..... Harry Anderson.

Vocal Duett—"Beautiful Moonlight." ..... Fred Hazzard and Charlie Anderson.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

It was announced that the schools would re-open on the 31st August next. We subjoin the
