Let's Talk It Over

by "d"

There will always be arguments centered around the question of strikes. Extremists on one side claim strikes should never be resorted to, and exponents at the extreme end of the other side are always ready to strike at the drop of a wage-scale, or more often, when they consider management is unreasonably opposed to raising the existing scale of wages.

In this question, as in so many others, the truth will probably be found about half-way between the two extremes. Certainly, strikes which seriously affect the economic life of a country, as seems to be the case now in France, should never take place. That is just cutting off your nose to spite your face. It seems probable also that the strike weapon is drawn from its sheath more often than is good for the welfare of the workers themselves. Some union leaders are like trigger-happy gunmen. They precipitate a crisis before all the different angles leading to a possible solution have been carefully examined.

But it can be scarcely denied that strikes, and the threat of strikes, used as a last resort, have helped the working man to better his economic condition through the years. Arbitration is much better of course, but human nature being what it is, the process of arbitration is more likely to be carried out with fairness for both sides if both sides have "big sticks" hidden under the conference table. The "big stick" of capitalists is the fact that they are holding the purse strings. The working man's "big stick" is his power to strike.

We must not forget that Magna Carta, one of the most important documents for freedom ever drawn up, was the result of a strike; the strike of the barons against constituted authority as vested in the king.

Mutch-Nelson Wedding

A pretty wedding was solemnized at Trinity United Church, Port Coquitlam, B. C., July 21, at 8 o'clock when Frances, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Nelson, of Winnipeg, Man., and Frederick, son of Mrs. Hazel Mutch, and the late Mr. L. Mutch, of Mount Herbert, P. E. I., were united in marriage. Rev. Victor Hall of Chilliwack, performed the ceremony. The bride has been nursing at Langley Memorial Hospital, and the groom is employed with the B. C. Telephone Co.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was becoming in an afternoon frock of pale blue sheer. A small Dutch style hat of white lace with white accessories completed the ensemble. Her colonial bouquet was red roses, stephanotis and white heather.

The bride's only attendant, Miss Betty Dunford, of Langley Prairie, and formerly of Shaunavon, Sask., chose an afternoon frock of pale yellow embroidered organdy with white accessories. Her bouquet was tallian roses and white carnations.

Mr. Gordon Tout was the groom's best man and ushers were Mr. Vince Reed and Mr. Percy Lotzer. A wedding reception for relatives and close friends followed the ceremony at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Heffelfinger at Port Coquitlam. Toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Glen Gates of New Westminster, and the groom replied.

After a short honeymoon the happy couple will return to Langley Prairie, B. C., to reside.

About 217,000,000 prescriptions were dispensed by the British national health service in 1952.

Mann-Agnew Wedding

—The Presbyterian Church, Summerside, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock when Doris Winnifred, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert M. Agnew, became the bride of Leslie Ellsworth King Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mann, Kensington. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Donald MacKay.

Mrs. Amos Hubley was in charge of the wedding music and accompanied Mr. Thomas Hall as he sang "O Perfect Love" before the ceremony and "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register. The church was artistically decorated with baskets of mixed summer flowers and the guest pews were marked with sprigs of sweet peas and white ribbon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Miss Doris Morrison as maid of honor, the Misses Shirley Baglole and Ruth Agnew, sister of the bride, as bridesmaids. Mr. Ingham MacNeill was groomsmen and Messrs George Caseley and Earl Dymont were the ushers.

The bride chose a floor-length gown of nylon net over satin. Her dress was topped with a Chantilly lace bolero with lily point sleeves. Queen Anne collar and overskirt of satin crown with silver bead and rhinestone trim. She carried a cascade bouquet of Better Time roses. The maid of honor was gowned in Nile green net over taffeta with matching headdress and carried a bouquet of Queen Elizabeth roses.

The bridesmaids were attired in mauve and maize nylon net over taffeta respectively, with matching hats, pearl trim and carried bouquets of Lustra Hibbard roses and Pink Delight roses.

Mrs. Agnew chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of mauve lace over taffeta with black accessories and a corsage of Briardiff roses. The groom's mother was attired in navy with matching accessories and a corsage of Pink Delight roses.

A reception for 50 guests was held at Birch Hill Lodge where the bride's table, with its artistic arrangement of sweet peas and light-colored tapers, was centered with a three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. For the wedding trip, the bride donned a suit of navy gabardine with powder blue accessories and a corsage of Pink Delight roses.

On return Mr. and Mrs. Mann will reside in Kensington where the groom is associated with his father in the produce business. The bride, previous to her marriage, was on the staff of the Summerside Branch of the Island Telephone Company.

Among the out-of-the-Province guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Baglole of Stoughton, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schofield of Boston, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dymont, Mrs. Max Milton of Moncton, N.B. and Miss Shirley Agnew of Toronto, Ont.
