UPPER PRINCE ST. METHODIST CHURCH - Sunday being Children's Day in the Upper Prince Street Methodist Church, Rev. W. J. The church was very prettily trimmed in nature's foliage. The children occupying the centre of the church were called upon to explain certain parts of the address from the Bible, and a duet sung by two young ladies added much to the pleasure of the meeting. The Pastor preached to the parents in the evening on "Parental Blunders."

LATEST SUMMERSIDE NEWS. Special Correspondence of The Examiner.

Mr. T. A. McLean, of the Esdale Foundry, was in Summerside to-day, and went further west this afternoon.

McKinnon & McLean are fitting the Clifton House with hot and cold water system, sewerage, baths, and all the modern improvements. The Clifton will be more attractive than ever.

The agency of the Bank of Nova Scotia has been removed to the elegant apartments fitted up for it in the Clifton building. Mr. Vernon Longworth is acting as agent just now, in the place of Mr. Reine Laird, who is off on his holidays.

The steamer Canopus arrived early this morning. After landing a quantity of flour and other goods, and taking in a large quantity of oysters, she left at 10 o'clock for Chvtown.

The finishing touches are being given to R. T. Holman's mammoth combination store. Already a quantity of goods are stored upon the upper floor, and Mr. Holman expects to remove his whole business there by the 1st of November.

The building was perfectly illuminated last night by means of the electric light. This store is one of the largest and finest in the maritime provinces, and is a practical proof of the fact that our ablest living man for business continues to have hope in the country. When the gaps now occupied by wooden buildings are filled up by buildings of stone and brick, the south side of Water Street, Summerside, will be superior to Victoria Road in Charlottetown, and will present the appearance of a business street in a large city.

The erection of a large hotel building on the vacant corner opposite the Clifton House has been suggested, and is being discussed. It would not be wonderful if the enterprising men of Summerside should be the first to provide a grand hotel for the accommodation of wealthy summer tourists.

Mr. Brennan, of the Montreal, is busy engaged about his new brick building which is now almost ready for occupation. He has put in a splendid Cottrell press, and is having his newspaper and job printing offices fitted up in the latest and no approved style. The Bank of Nova Scotia will occupy offices in Mr. Brennan's new building.

We are pleased to learn that the oyster products this year will be fully up to the average of former years, whilst the price is better than for several years.

SPRING SCHOOL ASSOCIATION - The Sunday School Provincial Association meets on the 22nd and 23rd inst. in the city. The meetings will be held in Zion Church. S. workers, including the names of such prominent speakers as Mr. Reynolds, chairman of the world's executive, and Mrs. Crafts, a specialist in primary work. Free entertainment will be given to all delegates who forward their names to Mr. J. K. Roy, Chairman of Committee.

COMMENCEMENT OCT. 22nd, the steamer Halifax will sail for Boston, on Tuesday at 6 p.m. until close of navigation, instead of Fridays, as at present.

Honest Dealing. PROTECTION To the Public!

Several of our competitors, who call themselves honest men, are again engaged in a war of prices. We are unable to see how it is right to sell goods at one price to-day and a much higher or lower price the next day. We believe it is a dishonest practice. We believe they are not acting honorably to the public.

Our wares are fresh, clean, new, and worth what we ask for it. It is good value. But whatever happens, we will not allow others to undersell us; and to customers who have so generously patronized us we now give the assurance that we will meet all cut prices by other firms.
