IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our darling daughter and sister Elizabeth Marlene Thompson, who departed this life June 21st, 1947.

In our home she is fondly remem-bered. Sweet memories cling to her name. We who loved her in life sincerely, still love her in death the same.

Sadly Missed by Mummy, Daddy, Georgina and Guy.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Stafford Macdonald who passed away June 21st, 1948.

Gone is the face we loved so dear, Silent is the voice we loved to hear;

Too far away for sight or speech, But not too far for thought to reach.

Sweet to remember him who once was here, And who, though absent is just as dear.

Lovingly Remembered by Father and Sisters.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Stafford Macdonald who died June 21st, 1948.

Sleep on dear one, Such lives as thine, Have not been lived in vain; But shed an influence rare, divine On lives that still remain.

Fondly Remembered by Ethel and Marie.

keep you with her, but to establish your own home. That is best for you and your husband, and in the end it will be the best for your mother also because it will save the inevitable conflicts and misunderstandings that are sure to occur when two families try to live together.

There are many reasons why a young couple should set up their own home instead of going to live with their parents. One is that it domesticates them. Many a bride who would put on her hat and walk out on him after a spat with her husband, stays because she can't bear to give up her kitchen curtains and the new divan they are paying for on the installment plan.

And especially every young couple should be by themselves during the first year in which they are getting adjusted to each other, so that they can have all their fights in private without either of their families standing on the sidelines hearing and sicking them on each other.

There are a million reasons for going to housekeeping when you get married and not one against it. So don't let Mother keep you from doing it.

1st. Class Hike.

We had a very small group for the Hike test this year. From the 8th Basilica, Miss Winifred MacDonald with escorts, Rita Reeves and Adrian Kelly, Mabel Saunders escorts, Yvonne Rannah and Janet Richards. From Trinity the 7th Company, Elizabeth Atkinson escorts, Sybil Jamieson and Audrey Larter. Miss Betty King was in charge as Examiner and gave many useful hints from her wonderful store of outdoor knowledge. Southport Guides were around gaining valuable experience in outdoor cooking with their Lieut. Mrs. Art. Wellner. The guides tried so hard and were so conscientious, in their efforts that I do sincerely hope that they passed all requirements, Mrs. J. Gordon MacDonald, Mrs. Ralph Dumont and Mrs. Fred Jenkins were interested visitors to the group. Ann Cerry of Trinity with escorts also took the test.

12th Brownie Pack Zion

Brownies of the 12th had a wonderful time on Saturday afternoon. The hike to the Brighton shore cottage of Mrs. Wendell MacDonald and when Mrs. J. Gordon MacDonald and Mrs. Jenkins arrived hall games and general romping was in full swing. Everyone was called to the Fairy Ring and I am sure that it was the first time such a large group of Fairies had gathered in Mrs. MacDonald's cottage. Miss Roma Rodd who makes such a capable Brown Owl intro-duced Mrs. MacDonald as the new Dist. Commissioner and Brownies Patsy MacDonald, Karen Sinimons, Suzanne MacLeod, Eileen Diamond were happy recipients of the Golden Bar. Mrs. MacDonald presented them to the little girls and congratulated them. The girls were delighted to receive such tangible evidence of the winter's work and were eager to go ahead for the Golden Hand. Patsy MacDonald proudly showed the visitors her patch of garden where seeds planted by her were looking very healthy. The interest she indicated proved that it will not be long before the plant test for the Hand will be passed by her. Patsy had had another very mem-orable occasion to remember, on the arrival of Miss Gracie Fields she presented a bouquet and re-ceived "Our Gracies" (as she is affectionately known in Lanca-shire) autograph.

Brownie Noreen MacLean

presented a gift to Brown Owl Roma on behalf of the Brownies. It is with sincere regret that we all say goodbye to her but wish her every success in her new undertaking. Mrs. Walter E. Goss and Mrs. Wendell MacDonald are taking over the Pack. I always feel so sorry when we lose a good leader, but to find such enthusiastic Lead-ers as the latter is a wonderful relief especially when the Pack is running so efficiently. The Com-missioners wish the new Leaders lots of success and fun with the Pack and she hopes to see those Golden Hands coming along next winter. A terrific Grand Howl was given the visitors, one that really shook the roof and indeed the floor too. Milk and hot dogs were served by the Leaders and did those youngsters tuck them away? Being such real Lend a Hand Brownies they all helped to clear away and I am sure remembered to give a very big Thank you to Mrs. Wendell MacDonald for the use of her cottage.

MISS PEGGY NEVE

Addresses St. Stephen's Woman's Auxillary

Miss Peggy Neve, Regional Supervisor of Girls work in Eastern Canada, was guest speaker at the regular meeting of St. Stephen's Anglican W. A., held in the church on Wednesday evening, June 14th. A number of members of St. Mark's, Kensington were also present at this meeting, to hear Miss Neve, who gave an interesting news of Girl's Auxiliary work across Canada, of a festival in Montreal, attended by 300 girls, of two branches on the Magdalene Islands. She told of two girls of Tangier, N. S., who became so interested in Indian schools through G. A. study, that they are now teaching in All Saints School, Prince Albert. In some denaries, honor rings are given to girls who have done outstanding work. G. A. groups even include Eskimo girls in the far north, and she spoke also of Sarah Simon, a Loucheux Indian, who is president of an active W. A. at Fort McPherson, although there is no resident clergyman there at the present time. There the women pay their pledge money in Muskrat skins. The speaker said that girls of thirteen are old enough to join the G. A., which should help to develop character, link them more closely with their church, and train them for W. A. work. She displayed badges, such as Churchmanship, Handicraft, Nursing and Cooking badges, which they may study to obtain. She urged that a G. A. be organized where ever there are six or seven girls of thirteen or over, and the need for leaders should be kept in mind. The president, Mrs. W. J. Harrington thanked Miss Neve for her instructive address, and recalled her own early missionary training, which she felt had been good grounding for later W. A. work. She paid warm tribute to Mrs. Blakeney, now of Kensington, who for many years was leader of the Juniors at Sea View, members of St. Stephen's Church, Burlington. Rev. S. J. Davies spoke briefly, and said that "Young people do not know their Bibles." He asked the W. A. to place bibles in the churches. The meeting opened with the hymn, "Fling Out the Banner" and a devotional period. Mrs. Davies brought to the attention of the members, the fact that the sale was valued at $103, not $100 as stated in the report of St. Mark's W. A. meeting in the Guardian of June 14. Correspondence consisted of a letter from Mrs. John Moase, Dorcas Secretary, and a notice of the Semi-annual meetings at Port Hill. Plans were made to take a lunch of salads, meats etc. The meeting closed with the benediction pronounced by the rector.—Bur.
