Toronto Argonauts Win Big Four Football Final
(Wilfred Gruson)
TORONTO, Nov. 23 — (CP) — Toronto Argonauts, trailing by a single point with less than five minutes to play, exploded for a spectacular touchdown on a pass from quarterback Nobby Winkowski to Rod Smylie to defeat Hamilton Tiger-Cats 12-7 here Saturday and win the Big Four Football Union championship.
A sell-out crowd of 27,242 watched this unexpected sudden-death third game after the original two-game, total-points series ended in a deadlock. They saw the Argonauts—the great money team of Canadian football—come through in a stirring uphill struggle in the penalty-free showdown clash. It was believed to be the first senior Canadian game in years that no penalties were called.
Although Argonauts outplayed the battling and powerful Tiger-Cats for three-quarters of the game, the victory was in doubt until the second last play when Argonauts turned back a desperate Hamilton bid for a touchdown.
Tiger-Cats drove 27 yards to the Argonauts 17 on three passes by quarterback Bill Mackrides, but the Toronto defence tightened it bat down three more passes, two over the goal-line, to safeguard the triumph.
It was the Tiger-Cats' last gasp and dashed their hopes of winning their first Big Four crown since 1935 and going on to meet Sarnia Imperials, Ontario rugby union football champions, in the eastern final. Now it will be Argonauts against the underdog Imps here next Wednesday to decide the East's representative in the Grey Cup classic Saturday against Edmonton Eskimos, the Western champions.
In overcoming Tiger-Cats, Argonauts won their 14th Big Four title and their second in the last three years. They also conquered Tiger-Cats in 1950 and their latest triumph gave coach Frank Clair his second league championship in the three years he has coached the club.
The weatherman co-operated unexpectedly for Saturday's game. Rain was forecast but it held off until a few minutes after the
