SUNNYSIDE.

THE DAILY EXAMINER

NOVEMBER 10, 1898.

FATHER BURKE'S LETTER.

We beg to assure Father Burke that his first letter about the new mail arrangement was published by THE EXAMINER on the very day on which it reached the editorial hand. As no date was attached to the letter, either at the head or the tail, we submit that it was impossible for the editor to know when it was written. Therefore we plead not guilty to the reverend gentleman's first and last charges in the letter published to-day.

We certainly understood Father Burke's first letter as a condemnation (1) of the post office officials in Charlottetown, to whom THE EXAMINER had given deserved credit for energy and promptitude, and (2) of the alleged selfishness of Charlottetown and the Charlottetown Board of Trade. From what we have since heard, we have no doubt that it was understood by others in Charlottetown in the same sense. But it appears, by Father Burke's second letter, that all alike were mistaken. The post office officials in Charlottetown cannot, certainly, be held responsible because the postal and railway officials in St. John and Moncton made the mistake of forwarding a days mail to Picton which ought to have gone to Point du Chene; and as for the Charlottetown Board of Trade, Father Burke presumes that "they have done their best" and counts upon their influence in favor of a pier at Cape Traverse, so that steamers ply "as often as needs be in the interests of all concerned." We accept Father Burke's explanations, and have only to regret that he wrote his first letter in haste, and forgot to date it.

In conclusion, we have to thank Father Burke for the information contained in the last paragraph of his letter published to-day. Father Burke will be glad to learn that the postoffice officials have promptly decided to make up mails every afternoon to go right through to Alberton and Tignish, and that these will contain THE EXAMINER.

STILL THE N. P.

THE Patriot publishes, editorially, an article which imputes the present prosperity of Montreal's manufacturers to the Liberal Government. It is, nevertheless, a fact that the protected industries that are prospering under the rule of the gentlemen elected as free traders, together with the amount of protection accorded, are as follows:

- Silks, 25 per cent.
- Woolens, 35 per cent.
- Cotton fabrics, 25 per cent.
- Oilcloths, 30 per cent.
- Iron Bridges, 30 per cent.
- Wall paper, 35 per cent.
- Paper, 25 per cent.
- Sugar, 1 cent per lb.
- Leather, 25 per cent.
- Boots and shoes, 25 per cent.
- Rubber goods, 35 per cent.
- Glassware, 30 per cent.
- Paints, 25 per cent.
- Enamelled ware, 30 per cent.
- Lead pipe, 35 per cent.
- Saws, 30 per cent.
- Gas meters, 35 per cent.
- Iron pipes, $8 per ton.
- Bar iron, $7 per ton.
- Rolled iron, $8 per ton.
- Pig iron, 2.50 per ton.

The farmers in this province who voted for the Liberals because they were in favor of Free Trade will please make a note of this list. It is a standing testimony to the wisdom of the authors of the N. P., and the folly of those who maintain that the prosperity of our industries is in any sense due to the men now in office.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—It is manifest that our Farquharson Cabinet cannot get rid of its representatives on account of "a change of conditions" as the Greek Cabinet has done. The provincial debt still increases and the Asylum bungle is yet unsettled.

—Events, a new Ottawa publication says the Liberals are dissatisfied with Mr. Sifton, and that Sir Wilfrid Laurier is showing weakness in not getting rid of his Minister of the Interior, upon which the Montreal Gazette remarks that Sir Wilfrid's habit of paying no attention to what the papers say causes him to overlook many useful indications.

THE COMMERCIAL TRAVELLERS' TAX.

The Montreal Star publishes the act of our Legislature which provides that an outside creditor cannot enforce payment of an account unless it shall be proved that his commercial traveller paid the tax levied by our Liberal Government,—with an ornamental border all around it. We have no doubt that it will, in this form, be pasted down in many a scrap book, and perhaps be framed and glazed as one of the curiosities of the day. Certainly it places Prince Edward Island in a very unfavorable and unenviable light before the commercial world. That the Minister of Justice will disallow it is all but certain.

It is to be hoped, too, that the Legislature will, as speedily as possible, get rid of the contemptible tax of which it is the occasion. By that tax $3,000 or $4,000 a year are paid into the Provincial Treasury, and the character and commerce of the Province are damaged to the extent of tens of thousands, while the money, eventually, both taxes and damages, comes out of the pockets of our farmers. In this connection the Star says:

"Burning a house down to roast a pig is a wise operation when contrasted with this. And as to the tax, surely our Prince Edward Island friends do not think that the commercial travellers really pay it in the last analysis, they might as well expect the 'drummers,' or the houses they represent to pay their travelling expenses themselves and never think of adding them to the prices of their goods. Undoubtedly the commercial men simply add this tax to their bill of expenses, and it is assessed on the goods sold to the people of Prince Edward Island, who thus must pay it, plus the interest on the money and the profit on the investment. It is only an indirect and expensive way of taxing themselves, and incidentally annoying the men who do business with them."

The Star, with its accustomed enterprise, publishes two columns of correspondence and comments about the matter, including the opinions of a number of Montreal merchants. One of those opinions we quote:

"Mr. D. Watson, of Kerry, Watson & Co., explained that the tax is purely a commercial travellers' tax. "Orders sent to the firm by letter," said he, "are in no way different to those sent from any other place, so that debts for goods ordered directly from the firm cannot be repudiated whether the travellers have paid their tax or not. A number of travellers hoping to evade the tax, have been getting Prince Edward Island merchants to come over to Halifax, N.S., to buy their goods. According to the amended law, however, payment for goods so purchased can be refused. Again, the tax, or license, is non-transferable, so that if, for any reason, a firm required to send different travellers to that section each and every one is subject to the $15 tax. So you see the matter is quite complicated, and in case of trouble the book-keeping would become interesting. Of course we have opposed the tax. It is the worst piece of legislation I ever heard of, and it is infra dig for men of standing to resort to such methods."

HAPPY MARRIAGE BELLS.

A very pleasant event took place at the residence of the bride's father, Mayfield, Nov. 9th, when Miss Bertha Alice, daughter of Mr. W. W. Rodd, of Charlottetown, was united in marriage to William H., son of Henry Ball, of this city. Rev. G. C. Robertson was the officiating clergyman. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lillian Rodd, while the groom was supported by his brother, Samuel Ball. The bride received many valuable and useful presents, among them being a handsome parlor set from her brother, Charles E. Rodd.
