Business Goes Halloween

Hi! Well, witches, ghosts, goblins, because of popular demand, Halloween has been rescheduled for October 29. Start hoarding your loose change (avoid doing laundry, buying stamps, coffee, etc.) because another big bash is just around the corner. The annual UPEI Business Society Halloween Pub will be held October 29 at Count Dracula's LAIR (alias the Barn).

For all those who capture the true spirit of this occasion and dress in full costume they will receive a free ale. Also,

Economics Society Formed

by Michael O'Grady

A well-attended meeting of economics students was held last Thursday afternoon in Robertson Library. As a result of the meeting the U.P.E.I. Students Economics Society was formed. The purpose of the Society is to promote the interests of and provide a forum for students of economics.

A constitution was agreed upon and an executive chosen. The executive members are President Michael O'Grady, Vice-President Paul Herring, and Secretary-Treasurer Glenn Monteith.

Membership in the Society is free of charge and anyone interested in joining may contact a member of the executive or be present at the next general meeting, the time and place of which will be announced soon.
