

Benefit Dance Goes Tonight

Tonight is the big night. A benefit dance will be held at the Rollway club tonight with all proceeds going to the Pius MacDonald fund.

The island's two top bands, the Blue Crystals and the Hi-Notes will be relinquishing their time and talent to make this dance a big success.

The leader of the Blue Crystals is Ron MacLean Jr. and other members of the band include Gary Oudmore, Don Taylor, George MacDonald, Len McEwen, and vocalist Andy Arsenault.

Niall MacKay leads the Hi-Notes and his band consists of Knuckles Richards, Doug McEwen, Ron McIsaac, and George Halliwell.

Many people have been working to make this dance a big success. Following are the names of only a few Joe MacDonald and family, Sheldon Ross Jr., Laurie Jenkins, Roy Rogers, and last but not least D. J. at the Rollway Club, John Lane.

The dance begins at 9:30 and ends at 12:30 with admission set at 75 cents.

Probation Sought For Accused

Provincial probation officer, Vincent MacIntyre recommended that Frederick Albert Quinn, a Dunstaffnage youth charged with arson, be placed on probation for a two-year term with periodic reports to him. Counsel for the accused is Charles McQuaid, QC.

MacIntyre appeared before Magistrate James B. Johnston, QC, in Queens County Magistrate's Court yesterday.

Arthur George Fleisher, City, charged with failing to surrender his licence was fined $10 and costs or five days.

Loman Harold Bell, City, charged with failing to stop when a school bus was discharging children had his case adjourned to March 2 to fix a date for trial. Counsel for the accused is Ian MacLeod. The accused previously pleaded not guilty.

The cases of Garfield Tremere, City, charged with parking a vehicle on the roadway in such a position as to obstruct the free flow of traffic, was adjourned to March 18. He previously pleaded not guilty to the charge. John Holmes is counsel for the accused.

Drunken Driver Assessed Fine

A fine of $125 and costs or 30 days was imposed upon James Charles Gallant, Hunter River, when he was charged with drunken driving but pleaded guilty to the lesser offence of driving while impaired.

The accused was arraigned before A. James Haslam, QC, in city police court Wednesday.

Paul McCloskey, New Westshore, charged with driving a motor vehicle without due care and control and while intoxicated, was sentenced to 10 days in jail. The accused was represented by Frank Sigsworth.

Reid Sangster, Sherwood, charged with speeding was fined $20 and costs or 10 days.

A Southport man, Gordon Gay, also charged with speeding, was fined $15 and costs or five days.

Reginald F. Grady, Souris, and William Clayton Adams, City, both pleaded guilty to failing to stop at a stop sign, a fine of $5 and costs or two days.

Duncan Henderson, Margate, charged with illegal possession, was fined $30 and costs or 30 days.
