ENLARGING FACTORY — Owing to the large quantity of lobsters which were landed at his factory this year, Mr. Wendell Graham, Gasperaux, has found it necessary to enlarge his plant, and at the present time has engaged a number of men who are in the act of doing this work.

In Montague En Route To Nfld. Mission

Arriving in Montague yesterday were Miss Phyllis E. Baird, R. N., of Kimburn, Ont., Miss Ruth May of New York, and Miss Ruth Parker, R. N. of Niagara, all of whom are leaving today on the Nellie A. Cluett, which docked here yesterday, for the Grenfell Mission at St. Anthony's Newfoundland.

Miss Baird is a graduate of Ottawa Civic Hospital and since 1944 has been on the staff of the hospital, with the exception of one year in public health work in Timmins, Ont. Miss Baird, who has been interested in this type of work, will take charge of the 120-bed hospital at St. Anthony's.

Miss Parker, who graduated from Montreal General Hospital in 1948, will also join the staff at St. Anthony's. Since her graduation, Miss Parker has been on the staff at the hospital at Niagara.

Miss May of New York has joined the staff of the orphanage at St. Anthony's where there are approximately fifty children. She will have the capacity of assistant to the superintendent of the orphanage.

The young ladies will leave Montague today on the Cluett, which arrived yesterday to take on a load of general produce from Poole and Thompson Ltd. They hope to remain at St. Anthony's for several years.

New Scallop Boat Operates Out Of Lower Montague

Of interest to fishermen is the new scallop boat "Ventures", owned by Love, King, and Livingstone of Charlottetown, operating out of Lower Montague with a crew of three men, Warren Kemp, Richard Sencabaugh, and Bert Taylor.

The boat, which is 83 feet long and 13 feet wide, is powered by the new type Acadia gas motor. Equipped with five Digby drags operated by winch and engine amidship, the boat averages two hundred pounds of scallops per day at the grounds, a two hour run from Georgetown. The scallops are brought to Hewitt's factory in Lower Montague where they are shelled and afterwards taken to the Montague cold storage. This will show the importance of such a business since a considerable number are employed at the factory to do the work, thereby adding one more industry to the community.

Many fishermen will be acquainted with Mr. Taylor, who invented a new lobster trap hauler, now in production. Mr. Taylor experimented for three years, before completing the final changes on his efficient hauler, putting in in practical use to test its efficiency, which has since been substantiated by other users.

FINDS WAY TO AVOID HARSH LAXATIVES

"The harsh laxatives I used to take are on a forgotten shelf since I began eating KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN regularly. This good cereal has done wonders for me!" This from Mrs. M. Wetli, 95 Hunt Club Drive, Toronto 13, Ontario. One of many unsolicited letters. Are you suffering from constipation due to lack of bulk in the diet? Try this for lasting relief: Eat an ounce of crispy ALL-BRAN daily, drink plenty of water. If not completely satisfied with results after 10 days, send empty box to Kellogg's, London, Ont. Get DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK!

Georgetown and Vicinity

Mrs. Ronald S. MacLean of Seal River was a visitor to Georgetown on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul LaPrade of Bowmanville, Ontario, are the guests of Mrs. LaPrade's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Martell.

Miss Grace MacRae has returned to Bridgeport, Conn. following a visit with her mother, Mrs. John MacRae of Georgetown.

Far East Missionary On Leave of Absence

Sister de Ricci entered Maryknoll in 1923 and in 1927 she went to China. There she taught in the Maryknoll Convent School in Kowloon and a year later was appointed head-mistress at Maryknoll School in Hong Kong. After the war broke out in 1941, she served as auxiliary nurse at Queen Mary Hospital in Hong Kong, until she was interned at the Internment Camp at Stanley, Hong Kong. She was able to get out of the camp in 1942 and made her way to Kweilin, in interior China. Later, she went to India where she taught in a school in

Sister De Ricci

Simla conducted by the Loretto Sisters. She returned to Hong Kong as soon after the war as possible and resumed her position as head-mistress of Maryknoll School in Hong Kong. She is now home on a short leave-of-absence.

Sister de Ricci is the former Miss Mary Cain of New Perth. She attended St. Francis Xavier College in Antigonish and graduated from Prince of Wales College with High Honors. She is also a graduate of the Provincial Normal School in Charlottetown and received her degree from the College of Mt. St. Vincent in New York.

Sister de Ricci is visiting her brother, Mr. James Cain of New Perth. Their brother, Rev. Robert Cain, C.S.S.R. is stationed in Nelson, B.C. A sister, Miss Catherine Cain, and brother, Dr. C. E. Frank Cain, are residing at Anaheim, Cal.

The Maryknoll Sisters are a congregation of American women whose lives are dedicated to God in Catholic foreign missions. They come from 45 states, the District of Columbia, Panama Canal Zone, Hawaii and Canada; thus they represent the American Catholic body fairly well.

There are also Japanese, Chinese, Korean and Filipina Maryknoll Sisters. Some of these came to Maryknoll directly from the Orient; others are American citizens by birth.

The congregation was founded in 1912 by Mother Mary Joseph of Jamaica Plain, Mass. under the direction of Father James A. Walsh (later Bishop Walsh) who at the same time was organizing the Maryknoll Fathers for a like purpose. In 1920, it was canonically erected by Rome as a religious community. Mother Mary Joseph directed the congregation until January, 1947, when she retired. Mother Mary Columba was then elected.

The Sisters conduct missions in Hawaii, Korea, China, Japan, the Philippines, the Caroline and Marshall Islands, Bolivia, Chile, Guatemala, Panama, Nicaragua, Ceylon and Africa. They also work among Mexicans, Filipines and Japanese on the Pacific Coast. In New York, Chicago and Boston, schools and social centres are maintained for Chinese, Japanese, Puerto Ricans and Negroes.

Four hundred and eighty four Professed Sisters are scattered over the globe, bringing Christianity to the underprivileged races of the world. Others are either training in hospitals and schools for active work, or are needed to maintain centres from which personnel and material aid will be sent to the far-flung missions. The Motherhouse is at Maryknoll, New York, near Ossining.

Georgetown and Vicinity

Mrs. Ronald S. MacLean of Seal River was a visitor to Georgetown on Wednesday.

Mrs. E. J. MacWilliams of Wintthrop, Mass. is visiting in Georgetown where she is the guest of her mother, Mrs. John MacRae.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul LaPrade of Bowmanville, Ontario, are the guests of Mrs. LaPrade's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Martell.

Miss Grace MacRae has returned to Bridgeport, Conn. following a visit with her mother, Mrs. John MacRae of Georgetown.

Mr. Sheldon Ross of the Canadian army, Permanent Force, spent a few days in Georgetown recently on his return from Barris field, Ontario, where he has been taking an army course. On Friday Mr. and Mrs. Ross and family left for Halifax, N.S. Mrs. Ross and family having spent the summer in Georgetown as the guests of Mrs. Mabel Hearn.

Bristol and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McAdam, and their daughter, Jean, of the bank of Nova Scotia staff here, accompanied by Mrs. J. B. Jay, assistant Post Master, and Bob McEwen, of McAdam's transfer service, left here on Monday morning on a motor trip to Boston and New York by way of Montreal. They will spend a few days in Montreal, then on to the U. S. cities. On the return trip, Mr. McEwen will leave the party at St. John, N. B. and proceed to Montreal, where he will spend the winter months.

Miss Teresa O'Brien left on Sunday evening for the city to answer the school bell on Tuesday. Her parents will remain at their summer home here for another month yet.

The very serious illness of Mrs. Reginald MacDonald in the Charlottetown Hospital is very much regretted. She was Eunice MacDonald before her marriage. Her husband, a Bristol Man, is with Schurman's in the City.

Friends here of Mrs. Fred Rowe, Tracadie, will be sorry to hear her small daughter had the misfortune to get her fingers caught in the rolls of the washing machine wringer last week, and her little hand was drawn into the moving rolls before the machine could be stopped. Her hand was so badly strained but luckily not broken. Mrs. Rowe was Mary Donovan before her marriage. Her home is here.

Fishermen report fishing last week as very good but bait is scarce. Some heavy catches kept the packing plant running steadily last week, giving employment to quite a few.

Farmers are busy here trying to harvest as best they can, their tangled mess of heavy grain, flattened in many sections by the storm and continuous rain. Unless the weather changes, much of the harvest will be lost.

The work on the new St. Peter's Lake School is nearly completed and two teachers have already been engaged. The new school will be a credit to this vicinity and its fast completion is a credit to the contractor, Mr. Sinnott.

Father McAulay, who broke his hip some time ago has been able to return to his home again after being confined to the hospital for several weeks.

Mrs. Villard and two children have moved into Harry Eldershaw's house to reside. The house has been purchased by Mr. James Whalen. Mr. Eldershaw was waited on by his friends one evening last week in the form of a farewell party. He leaves shortly for the old country to reside in the future.

Mrs. Robert Belanger has returned home from the Charlottetown Hospital. She was a patient there for some time.
