

MR. AND MRS. FRANK J. GREENAN

Esteemed Couple Observe 57th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Greenan, Kinkora, P. E. Island celebrated their 57th Wedding Anniversary on November 19th, 1958, with a dinner party at their home with their family and several very close friends. Also attending were their bridesmaid, Mary Ellen Greenan, sister of the groom, Rev. Harold Croken P.P. honoured the occasion with his presence.

The table was centred with a beautifully decorated anniversary wedding cake.

When all had partaken of the good things prepared for them, Father Croken rose to congratulate the bride and groom of 57 years, and the fine Christian example to their church, and in their home, where they brought up a good family. Mr. Greenan made a fitting reply, despite the fact that the following day, Nov. 20th, he would be 89 years old. The bridesmaid also expressed in well chosen words her congratulations.

Their son, Carl, spoke on behalf of his brothers and sisters. First congratulating his parents on this happy occasion, he thanked them for their loving care and help and above all, their good example as father and mother all through their lives.

Mr. James McIsaac and Mr. Ignatius Lawless also expressed good wishes and congratulations to the bride and groom.

Then all returned to the living room where the gifts were opened and letters and cards and messages read by Leo and Clara. The remainder of the evening was enjoyed with music and singing. The music was provided by their grandson, Francis Lawless and their daughter Ruth.

The highlight of the evening was the singing of the song, "We Are Growing Old Together," by the bride and groom, the bridesmaid joining in the chorus. A singsong of old favorites followed, and brought a very enjoyable evening to a close with the singing of "The Queen."

Young Singers Present Lovely Christmas Music

Two Junior choirs featured the services in the Pownal pastoral church on Sunday, Dec. 14.

In the morning at Millville the Junior choir filled all the choir space and sang beautifully two Christmas carols, "The First Noel," with soprano and descant, and "Silent Night," with soprano and alto. Also Linda and Marilyn Drake sang "Luther's Cradle Hymn" as a two part duet. Mrs. Ralph Sanderson was organist.

The singing of carols brought meeting to a close. Miss Kay Sutherland thanked the members on behalf of the girls, and wished them a prosperous year in their Institute work.
