Boris Karloff's Niece Found Badly Injured

HASLEMERE, England (Reuters)-Boris Karloff's niece was found with serious throat injuries in her country mansion on Thursday night near the slain bodies of her two schoolboy sons. They too had their throats cut.

Policewomen waited Friday at the hospital bedside of pretty dark-haired Mrs. Diana Bromley, 38, niece of the British-born Hollywood actor, to hear her account of the tragedy.

Meantime, police swarmed over the spacious Surrey estate owned by her husband, 47-year-old diplomat Thomas Bromley. CABINET MEMBER

A former British consul in Washington, he is a member of Prime Minister Macmillan's cabinet secretary.

A policeman stood on duty in the blood-stained hall near the site where 13-year-old Martin and 10-year-old Stephen were found dead.

The tragedy was discovered by Bromley when he returned home on Thursday night. While Bromley was at a neighbor's calling for help, another nearby resident found his wife fully dressed, wandering on the grounds. She had throat wounds.

CAR WASTE BASKETS COOKSVILLE, Ont. (CP)-Magistrate R. I. Blain said Thursday car manufacturers should provide waste baskets as standard equipment to reduce trash on highways.

PERSONALS Mr. Gordon R. Holmes, Q.C., prothonotary of the Supreme Court, is convalescing at his home after having undergone surgery at the Prince Edward Island Hospital.
