STRICT ATTENTION

to Business, Honesty and Square Dealing, and paying

Cash every time, is what has placed to the front of all competitors, in CLOTHING, HATS, &c.

He does not advertize to sell goods at cost, but he guarantees to sell from 10 to 25 per cent less than those who do advertize to sell at cost.

He does not try to deceive the people by making a big blow and offering paltry rewards, but tries to do things right and has the goods to back him up in what he advertizes.

He has now about 6,500 HATS and $4,000 worth of CLOTHING, which he guarantees to sell from 10 to 25 per cent less than any house in the trade. A lot of this Clothing was bought less than half price, and will be sold less than half price.

He does not ask the people to believe his advertisement until they see his prices; he knows then they will believe, and knows that the goods and prices back him up every time.

All goods freely shown, or sent to any part of the town.

Please don't forget to call.

Finerty's Fury.

Mr. John F. Finerty, of the Chicago

Citizen, late a member of Congress, strongly disapproves of the supplemental extradition treaty negotiated by Minister Phelps. He thinks it well enough to bring home "bank thieves, general swindlers and the like," but he is hotly opposed to sending back mere dynamite murderers. So he says the English are "cowards of a bad conscience," and want to control their "extreme enemies" in the United States. The last quoted words are a euphemism for dastardly bomb exploders. Finerty goes on to say that England cannot do this without the help of what he severely calls "her subordinary Government at Washington"—a phrase which, no doubt, will cause much humiliation and pain in the State Department and the White House.

If Finerty were amenable to reason, it might be suggested to him that just now, when people in this country are showing so much practical sympathy for Irishmen in their struggle for their rights, is an exceedingly unfortunate time for him to defend the cowardly scoundrels who, next to the landlords, have done more than anybody else to prevent the award of justice to Ireland. Putting Finerty aside, it is well to let it be distinctly known that Americans have no tenderness for dynamiters, but would rejoice to see every one of them sent out of the country—even if such a proceeding involved a final farewell to Finerty.—

A Sailor Killed.

A Montreal despatch of Monday says that three men who worked their passage on the Belfast bark Matilda C. Smith, which left

Kingston, Jamaica, for Montreal, June 30th, and has just arrived there, report that before leaving Kingston bay, Louis

Murphy, a seaman, dislocated his shoulder by falling down the companion way. He complained that he was unable to work, but he had to help raise the anchor with his arm in a sling. He was allowed off duty for two days, but on
