—W. M. S. MEETING—The Woman's Missionary Society of Kensington United Church, held their usual monthly meeting on Thursday afternoon at the summer home of Mrs. P. J. Kennedy, Margate, with a large attendance. The meeting was held on the lawn overlooking the beautiful river, and much enjoyed by all present. Mrs. T. J. Humphrey, the president, occupied the chair and opened the meeting with the hymn, "This is my Father's World", followed by The Lord's Prayer in unison. The Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Elmer Bryenton, and prayer was offered by Mrs. E. Englis. The secretaries of the different departments gave good reports and it was decided to send for the new study book. Mrs. S. M. Martin was the guest speaker and gave an interesting and informative address on the concluding chapter of the study book, "The World in Canada". The meeting closed by singing the hymn, "Jesus Master, Whose I am", followed by the Mizpah Benediction. A social hour then was passed during which tea was served, after which a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the hostess.

—ONE OF FIRST PRESIDENTS OF REBEKAH ASSEMBLY ATTENDS MEETINGS—An interesting lady attending the sessions of the Rebekah Assembly at Summerside is Mrs. Grace Nebb, past president of the Rebekah Assembly. Mrs. Nebb was the third president of the Assembly after its organization at Lunenburg in 1903. Mrs. Nebb is from Lunenburg, the home of the Bluenose. Mrs. Nebb was president from 1906 to 1907 and visited Summerside during that time in her official capacity. She is the oldest but one, of the charter members of the Assembly and has never missed a session during the 37 years of its existence, which is certainly a record. Mrs. Nebb remembers many of the people of Summerside, some of whom have passed on. She has a wonderful personality and scatters sunshine and friendship wherever she goes. In spite of her years she is one of the youngest members, in spirit if not in years. Her son, Mr. Ellaid Nebb of Vancouver, B. C., who is visiting his mother just now, accompanied her to Summerside so that his mother would not break her record of attendance. S

Premier Campbell Extends Government's Welcome To The Visiting Oddfellows

Voices Good Wishes For Successful Convention in Summerside This Week.

Prince Edward Island is pleased to extend a cordial welcome to the visiting members of the Independent Order of Oddfellows and the Delegates to the Rebekah Assembly.

It is the sincere wish of all our citizens that the Conference in Summerside will be a successful one and that the delegates will be favorably impressed with our fair "Garden of The Gulf."

Our province is becoming increasingly popular as an enjoyable tourist resort and as an ideal convention centre, and it is our purpose to cooperate with all worthy organizations in promoting the spirit of friendliness and good fellowship for which our citizens have become so widely famous.

THANE A. CAMPBELL
Premier.

Registration Of Delegates At Convention

Delegates from all parts of the Maritimes and Newfoundland arrived yesterday in Summerside for the 82nd anniversary of the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F.

About 125 lodges will be represented at the various meetings. When the Grand Lodge last met in Summerside in 1892 there were only some 51 lodges.

As well as Grand Lodge, the 48th annual session of the Grand Encampment and the 37th session of the Rebekah assembly will hold meetings.

Registration of delegates opened yesterday morning in the Town Hall and will continue today.

The town has made extensive preparation for the reception of the visitors. The Streets are very gay with flags and welcome signs.

The Boy Scouts are assisting members of the local lodge by showing delegates to their hotels.

The Capitol Theatre Presents Stirring Drama In "Drums"

The Capitol Theatre have provided a magnificent picture for its patrons and visiting Oddfellows this week in "Drums" a stirring story of adventure on India's north west frontier, which for centuries has been linked with stories of British rule in India. Drums is one of Alexander Korda's most thrilling techni-colour productions, with actual scenes photographed in India's famous but treacherous Khyber Pass. Sabu, the small Indian sensation of "Elphant Boy" fame, with Raymond Massey, Roger Livesey Desmond Tester and Valeni Hobson are co-stars in the production.

Sabu is even more charming than in "Elphant Boy" as the little Indian prince of A. E. W. Mason's story, whose bravery and loyalty save a whole regiment from slaughter at the hands of a powermad Indian potentate.

Captain Carruthers, a fearless British officer, (Roger Livesey), is sent to India to quell the uprisings being fomented by the fanatical Prince Ghul (Raymond Massey), who dreams of snatching the throne of his brother, the Khan of Tokot, uniting the various hill tribes and eventually driving the British out of his ever- broadening domain.

Sentenced To Penitentiary

John Edward Hughes, of Kensington was sentenced yesterday afternoon to two years in Dorchester Penitentiary by Magistrate Darby when he pleaded guilty to charges of breaking, entering and theft in connection with a break into the ranch of Robert Humphrey Kensington.

A quantity of fox feed was found missing on Monday morning from Mr. Humphrey's ranch and later that morning Hughes was arrested. He pleaded guilty and elected to have "speedy trial".

Hughes had served two sentences before at Dorchester for stealing foxes one time from Mr. Humphrey's ranch and another time from another ranch in the vicinity of Kensington.—S.
