The news has also been received that there are six large buyers at the Islands with orders at 19c which they cannot fill. The short supply molasses in Barbadoes this year appears to have been phenomenal, the total production of the Island being 30,000 puncheons against 51,000 puncheons last year. All the other islands with the exception of Cuba are also very short owing to the unprecedented drouth. About 5 000 puncheons of Barbadoes molasses are reported to have been sold for Montreal account for importation at prices which have not transpired, but to-day the range of prices is from 38½c. to 40c. for Barbadoes on spot as to quantity. The situation is undoubtedly strong at the moment and some holders look for still higher prices."

Sir John's Funeral Obsequies.

WHAT THE ENGLISH PAPERS SAY.

Memorial Service in Westminster Abbey.

OTTAWA, June 10.

From ten o'clock yesterday morning till ten last night fully fifteen thousand people of all classes took their last view of Sir John as he lay in state in the Senate Chamber. The crowd outside was immense and several ladies fainted.

This morning the public will be admitted till one o'clock.

The floral offerings are very numerous.

The whole line of the procession to-day was heavily draped and all business was suspended.

The altar decorations of St. Alban's Church are by the employes of the Department of the Interior.

A special memorial service will be held in Westminster Abbey on Friday morning as a tribute to Sir John's memory.

Sir John's death is the subject of lengthy memorials in all London papers, and journals of the principal cities of the United Kingdom, and his life work is generally eulogized as that of the first colonial statesman with worldwide reputation.

THE CRIMES ACT.

EDUCATION IN IRELAND.

LONDON, June 10.

Mr. Balfour in the House of Commons, replying to a question by Thomes Seaton, said that all clauses of the Crimes Act dealing with boycotting and intimidation can be withdrawn from the whole of Ireland, excepting the county of Clare, and some of the baronies in which the plan of campaign still exists.

The debate on the Government's Education Bill being resumed, Mr. Balfour said Ireland's share of the budget would be applied to freeing elemetary education in much the same way as in England. An early opportunity would be taken to deal completely with the problem of compulsory education. He had little hope that the Irish measure would be passed this season, but it had been introduced in order to enable the members to consider it during recess. The minimum grant for Ireland for this purpose would be $900,000.
