

MR. AND MRS. J. BOLGER AND ATTENDANTS

Double Ring Ceremony Held At Holy Redeemer

A quiet winter wedding was solemnized at the church of the Most Holy Redeemer, on Saturday, Jan. 18th, 1958, where Rev. Fr. W. Allen, united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony, Floris Margaret, only daughter of Mrs. Teresa and the late Mr. James P. Lanigan, and Pius Ignatius, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Bolger of Charlotteville. Mr. Frank McIntyre rendered beautifully, "Ave Maria" and other hymns during the Nuptial Mass.

Speakers' Corner Is Part Of The Daily London Life

There is a corner of London where a man can climb on a soapbox and propose blowing up the Houses of Parliament without disturbing in the smallest degree the massive calm of any member of the Police Force who happens to be within earshot. For it has long been recognized that it is an excellent thing for the anarchists, reformers and cranks of London to have a place set aside for them to let off steam and say what they like without the inconvenience of being lynched or charged with treason, slander or disturbance of the peace.

This part of London, which has heard so many hopeful and hopeless causes put forward with such enthusiasm, it at the north-east corner of Hyde Park, near the Marble Arch and close to the former site of the Tyburn gallows, scene of public executions for six centuries up to 1783. It is generally known as Speakers' Corner.

The orators of Speakers' Corner represent practically every section of society, but they have one thing in common—a passionate belief in their own opinions. Politics and religion are the most popular subjects, perhaps because it is difficult to say anything about either without arousing violent feelings in one's hearers; but many other matters come under survey in the course of an average day at Marble Arch. There is usually a representative of one of the more eccentric societies—let us say, the Carrots for Health League—and a roaring trade is done in colored pills and notions guaranteed to cure everything.

This would be a typical scene at Speakers' Corner. Half a dozen or more speakers are mounted on their rostra, each one going hammer and tongs at his own subject and apparently completely oblivious of his neighbour, who is yelling about something entirely different. One or two of them are wasting their purplest oratorical passages on audiences of a few children; one man is apparently talking to himself—indeed, a story is told of a Hyde Park orator who roared about the iniquities of the government of the day to one small girl, until his audience, fascinated but bewildered, inquired, "Who're yer talking to, Mister?"

Some of the orators of speakers' corner have, to say the least, the most extraordinary ideas, and Hyde Park offers them a wonderful opportunity for airing theories which would otherwise be inflicted on their defenceless friends and relations. If you are in London, a visit to Britain's most outspoken corner may well surprise and amuse you, and you will probably come away convinced, that at least, you have had some fun.

ETERNAL LINE

The domed skirt and bell skirt are invariably present in dress collections designed for the youthful figure. This is true regardless of the current silhouette, which just now is the loosely fitting line. Lanvin-Castillo does a dance dress that's young-in-heart short and sweet. For it he has selected taupe Chantilly lace in regularly spattered with black lace motifs. More excitement is added in the typically Castillo touch of a mantilla in the same magnificent filmy lace.

WIFE PRESERVERS

AN ALARM CLOCK SET OUTSIDE THE bathroom door is usually more effective than repeated knockings. If traffic is often clogged by bath-dalliers in your family.

I was a sleepless wreck

My nerves grated from lack of sleep. Indigestion bothered me. I felt jittery, depressed, drained of all ambition and energy.

Some people suffer unpleasantness because their systems are aggravated by elements in everyday beverages. This is particularly true of those with "nervous" temperaments.

While some people can drink tea, coffee, cocoa and some soft drinks without harm, others cannot.

Postum does not contain stimulants such as caffeine, theophylline or theobromine which can rob you of sleep, irritate your nerves, speed up pulsations with subsequent depressing let-down. Postum does not contain tannin to give you indigestion, nor any other ingredient to cause you harm.

Switch to Instant Postum, the beverage of comfort! Postum tastes and acts like no other beverage. Postum has its own distinctive flavor. Make Postum instantly, right in your cup. Just add freshly boiling water or hot milk, stir and enjoy.

Try Postum for 30 days. When nerves are soothed, you sleep better, feel better, look better. Get Instant Postum at your grocer's. Costs less than 1¢ a cup. A product of General Foods, Limited.

Best cure for rain spots on suede shoes is a light rubbing with an emery board.

Cool, weak tea is a fine cleaning agent for varnished surfaces. Just dip a cloth in it, wring well and rub over the top.

For extra mileage in a double edged razor blade, rub it quickly around the moistened inside edge of an old drinking glass.

You can make a decorative boot holder to stand inside your front door. Up-end a broom spray-painted a dark color and adorned with a decal design.

MISSILE - A MED UNIT

WASHINGTON (AP)—Air Secretary James D. Douglas says the first operational United States unit armed with an intercontinental ballistic missile will be at its post by December 1958. Douglas said the missile is the Atlas, which is designed to carry an atomic or hydrogen warhead 5,500 miles.
