often develop into weak, delicate, backward children; undersized, nervous, feeble, adults. Lack of nourishment is the cause.

Scott's Emulsion is the remedy. A little of it three or four times a day will do wonders. The pinched, sad faces become round and rosy; the wasted limbs plump and firm. If your baby is not doing well, try this great food-medicine.

The Transvaal War

LETTER FROM MAJOR WEEKS.

CANADIANS' MARCH AND FIGHT AT PAARDEBERG.

Colonel J. A. Longworth has received a letter from Major Weeks dated Bloemfontein, March 16th. The following is from it:—

Many times since I left Belmont on our march for Bloemfontein have I tried to get an opportunity to write to give you a description of the march and of our fight at Paardeberg.

"When our regiment left Belmont I was down at De Aar trying to get an extra blanket and rubber sheet per man. I succeeded, but the difficulty was to get a car to bring them along. I secured one, however, and the road was so blocked in conveying rations and war materials that when I got back to Belmont the regiment had left with instructions for me to store the blankets, etc. at Belmont and follow. I went on to Graspan, by rail and joined the Shroshpires who were following our regiment. We set out on foot and caught the Canadians at Ramdam, about twelve miles distant. We carried no tents, and slept on the ground that night without cover. Next day we marched to Watervaal, about 15 miles. The day was very hot and many men fell out of the ranks, but no Islanders.

On the following day, Thursday, we pushed on to within three miles of Jacobsdal, where a fight was in progress between our advanced troops and the Boers. Jacobsdal was soon taken. Friday we marched to Jacobsdal and halted for the day. In the afternoon, about five o'clock, we set out for a night march and proceeded all night to Klip drift, arriving next morning. We rested during the day and forged along next night, coming to Paardeberg early Sunday morning, the 18th February.

We will long remember that day. We had finished breakfast and everyone felt like going to bed when a staff officer came galloping up with an order for our brigade to ford the Modder River and attack Cronje who was advancing on us and was entrenched along the bed of the river. This stream is not very wide, but is in some places very deep. The banks are high, from 30 to 40 feet in places, and these banks are interrupted by dongas, dry water courses, cutting into them in broken lines, thus affording great natural cover. The sides of the river are covered by a thick growth of trees in places and other places with more detached growth. Our orders on Sunday morning were to have all our wagons parked under cover of some kopjes about one mile north of the Modder River and our regiment to cross the river. The men waded over, the water being up to their neck. Our men and the Gordon Highlanders went across together in fours. Each four Canadians locked arms with four Gordons and pulled through all right while the brigade was forming up on the other side. I had to return to see that the wagons were properly parked. While this was being done I was surprised to hear a heavy firing across the river and to find that our brigade was engaged with the enemy. So soon as I had my duty performed I hastened over the river and went in the direction of our troops who had been under a heavy fire. I learned that we had been pretty roughly handled. The ping of the bullets was in my ears. I met an officer who had assisted in bringing back a wounded man and we together tried to find our regiment. But by this time the worst was over and many lay dead on the field. Poor Roland Taylor was among them. The Cornwalls lost heavily also, and on the other side of the river the Highland Brigade lost many officers and men.

On Monday the dead were buried and we rested. We again advanced on Tuesday. Our men this time took better advantage of cover and got up to close range with the Boers. I was near the firing line with Col. Otter when the one-pounder quick-firing

Gentlemen,—While driving down very steep hill last August my horse stumbled and fell, cutting himself fearfully about the head and body. I used MINARD'S LINIMENT freely on him and in a few days he was as well as ever

What Men in High Places Say.

DOCTORS, LAWYERS, MINISTERS, EDUCATIONALISTS AND POLITICIANS JOIN FORCES AS ONE MAN.

And Put the Great Seal of Their Approval on Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder as the Greatest of Healers

Personal Experience is the best evidence, and a man's Own Signature Seals His Faith. Hundreds of Canada's Most Illustrious Sons Are Its Healthiest Endorsers.

Perhaps no ailment to which flesh is heir brings men down to a more common level than catarrh and catarrhal affections. When it is rated that ninety in every hundred are subject in a lesser or greater degree to the ravages of this universal disease, the high, the low, the rich, the poor, must naturally come within its grasp. And it is not to be wondered at that such a galaxy of Canada's best men as have done so are willing, having themselves been sufferers, to "let their light shine" that others may be warned of the malady, and herald to the world the efficacy, the quick relief, the absolute cure they have proven to be in so splendid a compound as Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder.

Thus it is considered no breach of etiquette on the part of the professional men, no indignity on the "bench," nothing unparliamentary on the part of the law-maker, and no discredit on the pulpit, to say the good honest things that many of these men in high places have attested to cover its own signatures.

Here are a few names of prominent Canadians who have used and are believers in the Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder:—The Right Reverend Dr. Sweatman, Lord Bishop of Toronto; Rev. Dr. Lantry, of the Anglican Church. Rev. Dr. Withrow, editor of the Canadian Methodist Magazine; Rev. A. R. Chambers, Toronto; Rev. William Galbraith, Toronto; Hon. Geo. Taylor, George H. McDonald, M. P. Dr. Godbot, M. P., Robert Beith, M. P., Hon. David Mills, M. P., H. Cargill, M. P., James H. Metcalfe M. P., and a hundred more as prominent public-spirited men.

Too many people have dallied with this dreaded disease, experimenting with worthless untried and irritating so-called cures, only to find disappointment and a deep seating of the malady which means years of misery if not checked. Why not trust the man's testimony whom you think worthy to represent you in the House of Parliament—the man you would trust as your spiritual adviser—the man you would trust the education of your son to—to be your adviser in the matter of your health. Take warning, and if there is a hint of the catarrh taint apply Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder without delay. It will save you suffering, heal you surely, absolutely and permanently whether you have been a slave one month or fifty years. It relieves cold in the head in ten minutes.

DR. AGNEW'S CURE FOR THE HEART gives relief inside of 30 minutes, and no heart trouble so hopeless it will not cure.

DR. AGNEW'S OINTMENT heals "pimple" faces and other skin affections. Cures piles in from 3 to 5 nights.

DR. AGNEW'S LIVER PILLS smallest and cheapest pill made—20 cents for 40 doses.

Screamed ... WITH.. Agony

From the Terrible Itching, Burning Tortures of ... Eczema on the Scalp

Some of the cures effected by Dr. Chase's Ointment are more like miracles than anything else. The case recorded here was one of the worst ever brought to the attention of Toronto's best physicians, and when doctors gave up all hope of recovery Dr. Chase's Ointment was successful in producing a perfect cure.

Mr. James Scott, 126 Wright Ave., Toronto, states: "My boy Tom, aged ten, was for nearly three years afflicted with a bad form of Eczema of the scalp, which was very unsightly and resisted all kinds of remedies and doctor's treatment. His head was in a terrible state. We had to keep him from school, and at times his head would bleed, and the child would scream with agony. For two and a half years we battled with it in vain, but at last found a cure in Dr. Chase's Ointment. About five boxes were used. The original sores dried up, leaving the skin in its normal condition. To say it is a pleasure to testify to the wonderful merits of Dr. Chase's Ointment is putting it very mildly."
