Drastic Changes Occurring In Nature's Winter Face

The old year of 1963 is now in the memory column and what a 1964 holds for us is anybody's guess. In reviewing the past year one stark fact stands out in bold relief... the face of Nature has undergone a drastic change.

This summer I asked myself a number of questions that I could not answer. For instance: How many ducks are there in the water? How many geese are there in the water? How many cranes are there in the water?

TOOK A TOLL. A number in the beaver dam country and trout fishery report seeing the odd one in the back country areas. Cranes and kingfishers were blamed by many trout fishermen for depleting out trout.

ABOUT THE ONLY bird that, as yet, shows no appreciable signs of losing ground is Mr. Crow. He is known as plain Jim. Crow in the back country areas.

FINDS METEORITE. An American expedition recently returned from the Dalgout Downs Station in western Australia.

LOW IN NUMBERS. Our Snow Bird sightings are few and far between in this age and the birds low in numbers. It is 10 years since I have seen a snow bird and the last I saw I saw a dead one.

THE CHARLOTTETOWN Centennials will compete in an International Pee Wee Hockey tournament in Quebec City it was learned yesterday.

Hawks Face Flyers On First All-Star Squad

By BEN OLAN NEW YORK (AP) — Chicago Black Hawks Thursday placed four players, including goal-scoring leader Bobby Hull, on the Associated Press National Hockey League all-star team for the first half of the 1963-64 season.

Lapperie, the Canadiens' young defenceman, was chosen to rival even the much talked about old timers of bygone years to play in the opening games and investigating some of our woodland areas and streams there would be a pair more. They would perch motionless on a dead tree snag protruding above the water as motionless as if carved out of wood.

Hunter informed me recently that our wildgeese left the area in the fall. He said that the geese that caused their departure. Another angry goose hunter reported the same thing happened in his area and from the same cause. In the days before 22 calibre shot was allowed to be used to hunt geese, geese remained all winter in some sections. But after for instance had geese there all year. One day in mid-July I counted over 150 of the big black and white honkers at Rollo Bay. They haven't been there for a year.

Defenceman Tim Horton of Toronto Maple Leafs and Beliveau rounded out the six-man squad selected on performances through games as of Jan. 1. Named to the second team were goalie Charlie Hodge and left winger Dave Balon of Montreal, defencemen Elmer Vasko and Al MacNeil of Sydney, N.S., and centre Stan Mikita of Chicago and right winger Andy Bathgate of New York Rangers.

The league itself selects all-stars and trophy winners annually with one poll of hockey writers and broadcasters in each of the league's six cities taken after the first half of one season and another based on games in the second half of the season.

Players receiving the highest total points in the two parts of balloting are the final winners. The official ballots for the season's first half will be compiled in the NHL's Montreal office next week. Leaders will receive $1,000 and runners-up $500.

Rec Sullivan Is Fined By President Campbell

MONTREAL (CP)—President Clarence Campbell of the National Hockey League announced Thursday he has fined coach Red Sullivan of New York Rangers $300 for encouraging violence during a game in Montreal Dec. 12 betw N Rangers and Montreal Canadiens.

RED SULLIVAN

Campbell in his statement said also that there was a "declaration of immunity by Sullivan to one of his players, to the effect that the player personally would not have to pay any automatic fine."

Campbell related the incident that involved players Henri Richard of Montreal and Vic Hadfield of New York, who engaged in "a brief stick-swinging duel for which they were penalized."

The altercation was renewed in the penalty box "in the form of fistfights." Both players were given misconduct penalties, "which exhausted the balance of the playing time of both and retired from the game."

"In a subsequent dressing room interview reported in the New York papers, Campbell charged Red Sullivan is reported to have stated that he told Hadfield that if he got another shot at the guy in the penalty box to take any shot, not to worry about the automatic misconduct fine."

"My investigation shows that there is no doubt that statements of the kind were made by Sullivan in the interview as reported, but Sullivan contends that his instructions to Hadfield were not intended as an incitement to cause further trouble but an expression of his personal sentiments of satisfaction for the players' conduct in the penalty-box fight."

"Regardless of the exact words used by Sullivan in the interview or the impression he gave to the press, I am satisfied that he was quoted substantially correctly and that there was no difference in the text of the quotes in the two papers."
