WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (AP)—A Japanese survivor of the Hiroshima atomic-bomb blast served yesterday as guest chaplain of the Senate. Rev. Kiyoshi Tanimoto, pastor of the Naragawa Christian Church at Hiroshima, praised the United States for "sacrificial rehabilitation of human life throughout the war-torn world" in his prayer opening the Senate session.

Marshall Peters said that he heard his dog barking and went out to investigate, and saw the Robbins home in flames. He ran to the fire, and there he did all possible to aid Mrs. Robbins. He said that Dr. Beck had administered to Mrs. Robbins, and that shortly after the Souris R.C.M.P. arrived. Cpl. Lionel Strong said that he and Constable Sandberg arrived at the scene shortly after they received word, and stayed at the scene until the house was consumed. They found the baby, Haldane Robbins, lying on the spring of an iron bed, burned beyond recognition. He summoned the coroner, and a jury was empaneled. Dr. Beck gave a statement of the burns suffered by Mrs. Robbins, and described the injuries in detail, and also gave a statement on the condition of the baby Haldane Robbins. The jury also found that the baby, Haldane Robbins, came to his death at 6:15 P.M. Jan. 20 at Midgell by being burnt at his father's home as a result of an explosion from putting oil in the kitchen stove, which exploded, by his mother, Margaret Robbins. The jury comprised Foreman Bruce Seymour Webster, Aldus MacKenzie, Daniel Henry Dingwall, Archibald Francis McAulay, John Francis Rossiter, James Walter Dingwall, Henry Byron MacDougald.

Morell Scores 15-12 Victory Over Montague

Montague White Stars last night defeated the Montague Mounties 15-12 at the Montague rink to repeat a previous defeat handed out by the Morell squad two weeks ago. Although only a small crowd attended, those who were present witnessed a fast, rugged game of hockey into which both teams put all they had. Raged in the first period, the game improved in the second and third to become a wide open, fast passing encounter, with the teams attacking each other's zone constantly. The goalies were hard put to hold out the many shots which came their way, and the locals gave a real exhibition of hockey, and matched the winners during all three periods. The scoring edge continued, however, and Morell took the honors. For the locals Power led the way with six counters, with Clements, P. Fraser, and MacLean getting a brace each. For the visitors J. MacInnis captured five, MacAdam four, Stull three, and Sinnott, R. MacInnis, and Eldershaw one each. From the fans' viewpoint it looked like two very evenly matched teams which should provide considerable interest when the playoffs are under way. Lineups: Morell: Goal, Jay; defence, G. MacInnis, Eldershaw; Beck; forwards, W. MacAdam, Kelly, R. MacAdam, Ledwell, Rossiter, J. MacInnis, R. MacInnis, J. MacInnis, Stull, Sinnott. Montague - Goal, Walper; defence, George, Beck, L. Fraser; forwards, Power, Clements, MacLean, P. Fraser, Lanigan, Campbell.

Bristol and Vicinity

Miss Mabel MacDonald is still undergoing treatment in the Charlottetown Hospital where she has been a patient for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald MacDonald and son Gerard were in the city on Saturday on business.

Mr. P. A. MacDonald of the staff of Beach Grove, spent a few days at his home here over the weekend.

Some hunters around this vicinity seem to forget that the rabbit season is over and continue to hunt. This will remind them that the season on rabbits closed January 29th.

The committee in charge of the Robbins Buildings and Relief Fund have purchased the section of a house from Mr. Sterling MacSwain, and have already named the building down to its old site where the former house was burned.

*Mr. Maurice Martell, who had been a patient in the Charlottetown Hospital for some time has been transferred to the Beach Grove Men's Home. He has been unable to walk for a long time and will receive the best of care and first class meals at the Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald O'Brien and children left on Monday morning for the frozen north west where Mr. O'Brien will be stationed with the R.C.A.F. Mr. O'Brien served several years during the war at Goose Bay and other posts and he says he expects to be stationed at White Horse for the present. The trip out will take him and his family nearly two weeks of travel, he informs us.

Little or no hockey has been played here this winter owing to the changing weather. It was very hard to get ice on the open rink. Now that the season is slipping away there won't be much. A few days ago we observed a group of older men on the station platform at Morell, talking of the old rink. Yes, many of us remember the old Morell rink right beside the C.N.R. station where special trains from the city with a band to supply the music arrived here loaded with skaters and hockey players every week. Thousands of dollars were taken in at this rink in those days, yet the rink died poor, fell down and was carried away for kindling wood. Nothing has ever been built on the site, only memories and harsh words about the funds. The greatest hockey player this vicinity ever knew paid with his life from a severe cold. He was the great A. Murphy.

Pulp wood has got to be the rage here this winter and everyone seems to be butchering their woods. In many cases lumber is being cut into pulp wood by those who do not know the difference. Several cars have been loaded here and some loaders say its almost impossible to get box cars for loading the wood. One man is reported as loading three cars alone. It is believed the pulp business will be like the Christmas trees, more harm than good.

Mr. James Arnold has completed re-modelling his house here after making many changes. The kitchen was moved from the front to the back and a back door put in and a new porch entrance and a new sunporch on the front. One would never believe what a difference can be made in a home when you go the right way about changing it. The entire house has been wired and the power on. - B
