Paine's Celery Compound

Permanently Cures The Most Desperate Cases of Neuralgia.

At This Season The Marvelous Medicine is Saving and Making Happy Thousands of Pain-Racked Mortals.

It is no difficult undertaking to convince men and women who are open to conviction that many forms of disease are due to some weakness or trouble with particular nerves or whole sets of nerves.

Neuralgia is, in the autumn season, one of the commonest of nerve diseases. It often touches every part of the body, but is usually located in the face, affecting the facial nerves and the teeth. Very often the disease attacks the nerves of the head, and fatal results follow when the brain is touched.

To those who suffer agencies at varying periods, and who have not yet found a cure, we urge with all honesty the use of nature's medicine, Paine's Celery Compound. It has rescued thousands from awful sufferings, grave dangers and fatal results. Mr. L. A. Byles, Hampstead, N. B., tells how he was cured by Paine's Celery Compound.

"I was taken with a severe attack of neuralgia in the head and shoulders. It became deep seated, and I gave up the idea of ever being cured. I was induced to try a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, and before I had used the half of it I began to feel better. I have taken three bottles of this glorious medicine, and to-day I can say that it is the first time in eleven years that I have felt none of those piercing pains which I had once been a victim."

THE SKIN-ON FIRE.

So dreadful are the sensations of burning, itching eczema that victims frequently describe their sufferings by saying that the skin is all on fire. The stinging, biting fires of eczema are quenched by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. The first few applications may cause a little uneasiness but cure is sure to result and the skin is healed without scar or blemish.

Eyes on Canada's Coal.

A curious turn brought about by the coal strike in the United States is the way in which the American newspapers are discussing the possibilities of drawing coal from Canada. The New York Times says:—Who can it be that told the managers of the strike that Canada has no coal upon which this country can draw in case they succeed in putting an end to all mine operations here? Their informant was certainly wrong, and if the "facts" upon which they base their hopes of bringing about an industrial cataclysm are all of the same kind, their threats need inspire no great amount of fear. Canada has no end of coal, scattered all the way from the Pacific to the Atlantic, and the only obstacle to our drawing upon it in a time of emergency is a paper wall—the tariff law. Indeed, that wall has not been quite impervious to Canadian coal, even in the past, and a few words, spoken with due formality in Congress, prove conclusively that our northern neighbors do count for something among our ultimate defences against the recklessness of all sorts of coal barons. Not only has Canada coal, and coal to spare, but much of it is most conveniently placed for shipment to the United States. The Cape Breton mines, for example, can load almost directly from shaft to deep-water ships, and there are others at the head of the Bay of Fundy which are only a few miles from the sea. In either case the journey to Boston or New York is only a matter of three or four days for tramp steamers, and with good luck, not much more for sailing vessels. To be sure, the Nova Scotian coal is not of superfine quality, but it is good enough for many purposes and would serve almost all at a pinch, especially with the experience in burning bad or low-grade coal of our own which the strike has forced many consumers to acquire—to the vast delight and profit of the speculators who had enormous quantities of it in store, waiting for just such an opportunity for unloading on the dear public as the strike has given them. The country is neither so helpless nor so uninformed as the mining men, both those who wear black broadcloth and those who occasionally deign to don blue cotton, seem to imagine.

STOPPAGE OF OFFICIAL SALOONS

ELIMINATE THE CANTEN

Advocated on Principle that Government Should Never Have been in Saloon Business

TO ELIMINATE THE CANTEN.
 SPRINGHILL, October 6.—(Special.)—Edward Gedwhitter, a priest, in connection with the American saloon league gave out the following statement in reference to the attitude of the league to the canteen. He said, "we demand a fair trial of the post exchange saloon system with the canteen eliminated."

A STOPPAGE OF OFFICIAL SALOONS.
 "We advocate a stoppage of the official saloons with provision for recreation and social ability among men and disciplinary orders against drinking."

SHOULD NEVER BE IN SALOON BUSINESS.
 "We advocate the present law on the broad principle that the Government should never have been in the saloon business, nor have permitted premises to be used for such purposes, nor officially tempted its soldiers to drink."

AN ACHING BACK.
 Is the first indication of kidney disease, and should be taken as a signal of danger—a warning to use Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills while yet there is time to avoid the dreadful pains and certain fatality of this terrible disease. There is no guess work, no experimenting when you use the prescription. It brings relief in a remarkable short time, and because of its combined action of liver and kidneys, cures complicated cases which cannot be reached by any ordinary treatment.
