IN MEMORIAM

FOUNDERS—In loving memory of my mother, Father, sister and brothers. Absent but not forgotten. Fondly remembered by Maud.

BELL—In loving memory of our dear mother, Sophie Bell, who departed this life four years ago. For ever in our hearts. Remembered by her daughters, Gladys and Inez.

CASH—In loving memory of Mrs. Charles Cash who passed away March 31, 1956. You have left us a beautiful memory.

And a sorrow to great to be told. But to us who love and lost you. Your memory will never grow old. Lovingly remembered by brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, nieces and nephews.

CASH—In loving memory of Mrs. Charles Cash who passed away March 31, 1956. Sweet is the word remembrance. Dear is the one that is gone. In memory we will always keep her.

As long as the years roll on. Lovingly remembered and sadly missed by her husband and children.

CROSSMAN—In loving memory of a wife and mother, Mrs. Harry Crossman who departed this life March 30, 1955. In a graveyard softly sleeping. Close beside a country road. Lies one we loved so dearly. Gone from us to her abode.

Sheltered in the Rock of Ages. Anchored on the golden shore. Safe in the arms of Jesus. She'll rest forever more.

Ever remembered by Husband and son John, and daughters Bessie and Pyrlie.

COLES—In loving memory of our dear daughter Phyllis who passed away March 31, 1940. Time speeds on, 17 years have passed. Since death its gloom, its shadows cast. Within our home, where all seemed bright.

And took from us a shining light. We miss that light, and ever will. Her vacant place there's none to fill. Down here we mourn, but not in vain.

For up in Heaven we will meet again. Fondly remembered by Father and Mother.

No Change In Banking Is Planned

OTTAWA (CP)—Finance Minister Harris said Thursday he has no intention—now or after the election—of recommending cabinet acceptance of the proposal of Governor James E. Coyne of the Bank of Canada that chartered banks' savings deposits be channelled into mortgages and long-term lending.

His statement, made in response to questions by Opposition Leader Diefenbaker, was his strongest denial yet of the proposal in the recent annual report of the Bank of Canada.

Mr. Diefenbaker referred to a statement by Mr. Harris Tuesday in which the minister said Mr. Coyne had made a suggestion "for discussion" and that the government "does not intend to make recommendations along those lines to the House of Commons."

The opposition leader, speaking in the budget debate, said that merely postponing a decision until after the election, Mr. Harris had not said he would not make the change "in the happy event" of the Liberals being returned to power.

"I give that assurance right now," Mr. Harris interjected. He added later that the government has not considered Mr. Coyne's proposal "and as far as I am concerned I do not intend to recommend it."
