Women's Clubs To Establish National Office

HALIFAX, July 11 — (CP) — The Canadian Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs will establish a national office, probably in Ottawa, within the next two years, it was decided here by delegates attending the Federation's biennial convention.

The delegates defeated a resolution which would have required proof of ability to read and write either English or French as a condition of granting citizenship. Mrs. Nancy Hodges of Victoria said it would place hardship on Indians who are being given the franchise in some Provinces. Miss Margaret Studholme of Campbellton, N.B. said it would be unfair to men and women who have lived many years in Canada and brought up their children as good citizens. Turned down also was a resolution that the Federation adopt as a national project scholarships for leadership training for members. Mrs. Muriel Ferguson of Fredericton delivered a report on franchise in local and municipal elections, which said requirements for eligibility to vote were unnecessarily restricted in some cities, towns and villages.

Moore - Sentner Wedding

Zion Presbyterian Church was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday evening June 28th at 7 P.M. when Adelaide Jane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Sentner was united in marriage to Lloyd Douglas, son of Mr. Moore and the late Mr. F.S. Moore.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. Carlyle Webster. The altar of the church was beautifully decorated with peonies and other summer flowers. The guest pews were marked with bows of white ribbon and orange blossoms. Prior to the bride's entrance into the church, Miss Norma Dalziel sang "I Love You Truly" and during the signing of the register she sang "Oh Promise Me."

To the strains of the wedding march played by the organist, Mr. Frank Johnson A.T.C.L., the bride entered, attired in a floor-length gown of white taffeta with long sleeves pointed over the wrist, fitted bodice and full skirt, her fingered veil was of tulle net and she wore a pearl-beaded coronet, she wore a three-strand necklace of pearls, the gift of the groom and carrying a cascade of red roses. She was accompanied by her father by whom she was given in marriage.

Her sister, Mrs. Roy Vail of Halifax, N.S. was matron of honor and Miss Myrtle White as bridesmaid were attired in taffeta gowns cut on similar lines of dusty rose and blue respectively and carried nosegays of pink roses. Mr. Lyman Moore, brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were Messrs. Lorne and Percy Sentner and Elmer and J.F. Moore, Messrs. Harry Sentner and Stanley Mathieson attended the bridal party.

Mrs. Sentner, mother of the bride wore a grey lace gown with white accessories and corsage of white roses, while Mrs. Moore, mother of the groom wore a navy gown with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride for one hundred guests. The toast to the bride was proposed by the Rev. Mr. Webster to which the groom responded. The table which was centered with a three tier wedding cake was decorated with pink and white lupins and lighted tapers. Mrs. Percy Worth and Mrs. Preston Sentner poured tea. Girl friends of the bride assisted in serving.

Amid confetti the happy couple left on a short honeymoon trip through the Maritime Provinces. For travelling the bride wore a suit of navy gabardine with pink hat and matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Happy Days at Camp "Bosokotok"

Are you wondering where the Prince County campers found such a name for the camp at Fernwood? Here is the explanation. B for Borden, S for Summerside, K for Kensington, and T for Tignish with loud 'O's in between... very original and everyone is in it. The Provincial Commissioner, the Provincial Camp Commissioner and the Field Secretary paid a surprise visit to the camp on Monday and what a happy healthy looking crowd they were in spite of the very damp weather. However the last few days seem set fair and those no swimming days will soon be forgotten.

The staff are a splendid crowd and were working and co-operating together in a most refreshing manner, in fact the whole camp radiated happiness and goodwill. Miss Betty King is Camp Commandant with Miss Elaine Harrison as quartermaster and part cook judging by the delicious rolls that we had for supper. The official cook is Mrs. Marie Gaudet who the girls report is feeding them royally. Miss Betty Todd is Nurse, Joanne MacPhee and Betty Coyle Assistant Commandants, Adelaide Glover and Alice Jay assistant Quartermasters and Life Saver Mary Kelly (how's the burn Mary?).

Miss King reports no cases of homesickness or difficulties. Miss Harrison conducted a very attractive display of folk dancing and from the visitors view it really looked like dancing on the village green and was most well done indeed. That is the kind of thing our girls love as such a change from winter studies. Miss Harrison is of course a very adept teacher. Work is being done on the Nature second class, Astronomy, knots, semaphore and pioneer badge — with a rousing camp fire to conclude the days fun and work. Miss Harrison reports the girls' singing to be of a very high standard.

Miss Alice Jay who is camping for the first time was delighted with the experience and reports that Mr. Harrison McFarlane permits horse riding and also provides the saddles. Miss Suzanne MacKinnon inspected the camp and found everything satisfactory. Mrs. Hutcheson spoke to the girls of her recent visit to Toronto and the Rally of 5,000 guides that was held to celebrate the 40th anniversary.

Speculate Russia May Quit The U. N.

By J. M. Roberts, Jr. (Associated Press News Analysis) With United Nations prestige in Russia reported dropping fast as a result of the Kremlin's vicious attacks on the Security Council and Secretary-General Trygve Lie in connection with Korean speculation over whether the Soviets will ever return to the Council halls has been heightened.

The Security Council now is being described in Russian propaganda as "half wrecked," and merely a tool of the U. S. State Department. The countries which joined the United States in calling for action against the Korean Communists are called "bloody fools" and "a coalition of imperialists and bastards of prey." Lie—the only man Russia would consider for secretary-general, who recently received a friendly reception at the Kremlin and who has suffered much criticism from certain quarters which considered him "Russia's man"—now has been vilified in the Soviet press in words which approach the extremes in publishable terms.

There are various angles to support speculation that Russia, never intending real co-operation in the world family, may consider that the game the way she has been playing it at Lake Success, is up. Russia still likes to use the U. N. for propaganda.

The delegation still is in New York, of course, but with only rare official contacts at Lake Success. Many observers have felt all the time that Russia's agitation over admission of Communist China and the subsequent boycott were a ruse.

The U. S. announcement that it will defend Formosa changes the relationship between the U. S. and Communist China from one of mutual antipathy to one approximating an armed truce. And no one knows when that may be broken by Communist action in Formosa, Korea or Indo-China. As long as the present situation exists, admission of Peiping representatives to the halls of Lake Success seems extremely unlikely if not impossible.

Russia, then, can be expected to boycott this fall's General Assembly. She might leave for good.

Of course it would not be beyond Russia, if it served her purposes, to just drop the Chinese Communism admission row and come back as though nothing had happened.

Without the present Russia, the U. N. might just be able to do a large part of the job for which it was intended. But the day when world co-operative with the admission of a new Russia.

sary of Guiding in Canada. Photographs were passed around for the girls who were delighted with the information. Miss McKinnon and Mrs. Jenkins spoke briefly and wished the girls a happy time for the remainder of the Camp. I am quite sure that very happy memories will remain with all the Guides at Camp Bosokotok and when the time comes to break camp lots of promises will be made to meet again next year.

With The Kids On The Playgrounds

The farmers have ceased praying for rain it seems, so once again old man sun has been bringing joy to the kiddies on the squares, and allowing the supervisors to try and plume some fine weather amusements for the play-hungry youngsters. The second week of this summer's programme is fast drawing to a close and to date everyone apparently is going all out to get in on the fun. Maybe the constant threat of rain has forced many to enjoy life while they can but whatever the reason, the squares have been utilized to optimum capacity ever since opening day.

On Tuesday of this week, Miss Lois Smith, supervisor on King Square, was able to gain an inkling of what General MacArthur has to contend with on Korea. Her estimated following of 30 odd for a girls' hike to Inkerman mounted to about 75 before she was able to make her retreat from the city. News of her distress was relayed to the school at Charlottetown and in answer to the emergency call, two very obliging teachers from the P. W. C. Teacher Training Department, Miss Frances Reid, and Miss Madeline Greenan volunteered their assistance and were quickly rushed to the Inkerman front. No serious disturbances occurred during the afternoon; a grand time was had by all, and the supervisor and the teachers had the girls well in hand for the return trip. The Playground Commission wish at this time to extend thanks to the officials of the Teacher Training Department and to the teachers themselves for their very generous co-operation.

The boys are evidently not as enthusiastic about walking as their sisters, especially when it comes to a two mile hike. About thirty boys made the trip to Inkerman on Friday last, and all were loud in their plea for another in not too distant future. The boys were not blessed with the fine weather accorded to the girls, so that together with the presence of the Kitchener's peanut float, may have accounted in some degree to the rather poor attendance. One of the boys taking part in this hike was six year old Richard Lamport from London, England, and if a more concrete international relationship was not accomplished on the hike, it certainly was not the fault of our English friend, because he jolly well did his share in getting the full enjoyment out of the hike and in also seeing that everyone else did likewise. Yes we really enjoyed having you as our guest Ricky and we hope you will still be around when the next hike comes off on Tuesday, July 18th. The destination is not determined as yet, but in all probability it will be to Rocky Point. Be on the lookout for signs on your square regarding more information about same.

The Charlottetown Playground Commission has been working for the past week in conjunction with the Swimming and Water Safety classes being held daily at Brighton Beach. Two of our supervisors have been lending their assistance in order to help subdue the crowds of youngsters participating in the swimming and to allot them to their proper classes. It is for this reason that some of our ball practices had to be cancelled, so all you wielders of the hickory, who are not in the swimming classes, will have to just grin and bear it and wait until next week for the tide to change.

There have been rumors afloat that the dog catcher or canine retriever—(call him what you may, but only up to a point), has been making his rounds of the city playgrounds of late. The removal of many of the hounds from the playgrounds was really necessary, but if by accident any youngsters have lost their pet dogs or cats, etc., in the last roundup, they would be well advised to again begin calling their pet by name in order to help them find their way back to their homes. In order to insure the return of their favorite and prize winning pet for the annual Doll Carriage parade and pet show to be held on King Square on Thursday evening, July 20th. The show will begin at 6 o'clock sharp—good playing.

Strachey Apologizes For Schuman Plan Remarks

LONDON, July 12 — (AP) — War Minister John Strachey publicly apologized today—and took an open rebuke from Prime Minister Attlee besides—for calling the Schuman plan a scheme against the people of Europe. The unusual scene in the House of Commons revived speculation about Strachey's future in the Labor Government. Long a storm centre because of his one-time sympathies for Communism, he has had Attlee for a staunch defender until now.

The Commons debate ended tonight with no attempt by the Conservatives to censure the Labor Government formally. Winston Churchill, Conservative leader who had demanded the debate on the remarks for which Strachey apologized in part, declared the War Minister had "furnished us with another instance proving that he is unfit to hold his present position."

It was a speech at Colchester July 1 that got Strachey into hot water. In that speech he spoke bitterly of a supra-national authority which Foreign Minister Robert Schuman of France wants set up to direct a projected pool of Western Europe's coal and steel production.

"The people of Europe and of Britain are getting hold of economic power," Strachey said then. "All this is an alarm bell to the great capitalist interests of Europe. Therefore they put up this sort of plan, by which the real power in these industries is put in the hands of an irresponsible international body free from all democratic control."

"We shall get more and more of these schemes, no doubt, which under the guise of internationalism are designed to prevent the people really controlling their economic system."

Explaining himself in the House today, Strachey said: "I stand by the essential thing which I said at Colchester—that I could not accept handing over the two basic industries of this country to the control of a number of persons not responsible to governments."

"On consideration, I regret some of the expressions I used about the Schuman plan. "I should have no doubt have refrained from speculation as to the reasons which may have animated some of the friends of M. Schuman.

"I particularly regret this if any expressions which I used are felt by M. Schuman and his associates to reflect in any way upon their motives."

Attlee said he had had a talk with Strachey and "I told him frankly I thought he had made mistakes in his speech."

The Prime Minister said Strachey's remarks squared with Labor Government policy "insofar as he dealt with the features of undemocratic, supra-national authority."

"Insofar as he suggested motives he was wrong. "Mr. Strachey has explained to the House that he considers he went wrong—and I consider he went wrong—in the words he used which might be held to have involved the French Government in an imputation of motives."

Attlee wound up by saying that "Ministers and all members of the House should be careful of making statements especially with regard to foreign affairs."

Strachey denied that he had called the Schuman plan a "plot."
