Parish Guild Sponsor Fine Variety Concert

A very enjoyable concert was held in St. Eleanors Hall Tuesday night, Jan. 30, sponsored by St. Eleanors Parish Guild. Although it was many degrees below zero, and a very disagreeable night the halls were filled to capacity. The chairman for the evening was Archdeacon Harrison. The music was under the very capable direction of Mrs. Ray Ahearn and was enjoyed by all. The concert opened with a minstrel show, followed by a comedy skit by Mrs. Ennis Small and Emil MacLeod. Duet: "One Fleeting Hour" by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ahearn. Step dance: Mrs. Ira MacNeven Dialogue: "Rest Room." Solo: "The Little Danzel" by Jeannie Mahar. Chorus: "Ship Ahoy" by thirteen girls after one sailor. Drill: "Alice Blue Gown" by seven school girls. Dialogue: "Getting Even With Sister's Beau." Vocal solo: "The Second Minuet" Audrey MacGregor. Highland Fling: Jeannie Mahar Dialogue: "Millie and Tillie in New York" by Raymond Morrison and Emil MacLeod which was a riot from beginning to end. Vocal solo, with his own guitar accompaniment by Stanley Green. The concert was closed by the singing of the National Anthem. The concert was such a success that by popular demand it will be repeated on Monday night.
