

HALLOWEEN

PUB

Recognize any of these strange and terrifying creatures? They are just some of the participants in last week's Halloween Pub, held at the Panther Lounge on Saturday, October 28. Fun was had by all, and almost everyone came in costume. Featured here are only some of the best, but there were many, many more.

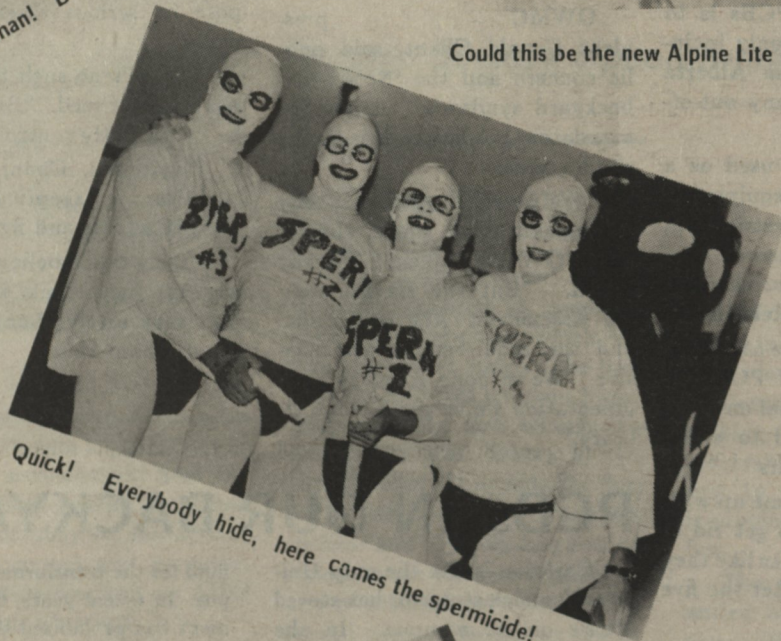

Batman! Did I hear somebody say Batman?!!

Could this be the new Alpine Lite rep?

Hanz und Franz: we're here to pump you up with our new beer-enriched diet!

Quick! Everybody hide, here comes the spermicide!

Don't laugh! You think that it's easy to get clothes to fit that we both like?

Anyone for a game of poker?
