A very enjoyable evening was spent in an old-time sing-song and step dancing. Music was furnished by Mrs. Calvin Kemp, guitar, and Mrs. Nell Murphy, organ. The gifts were opened by Mrs. J. D. Sorrie, and the verses and names were read by Mrs. William Farrell. The gifts were numerous and costly which testified to the popularity of the young couple.

*SONG SERVICE—Caledonia Church was filled to overflowing Sunday evening when choirs from Caledonia, Valleyfield, Murray River and Murray Harbour presented a sacred song service. The service was conducted by the minister, Rev. E. S. Hales, assisted by Rev. W. MacPherson, Murray Harbour. Mrs. Alan Cameron, Caledonia, Mrs. W. MacPherson, Murray Harbour, Mrs. W. A. Bruce, Valleyfield and Mrs. Fred Johnston, Murray River, were organ accompanists. The service opened with the psalm "Unto The Hills". A selection "Wonderful Peace" was beautifully rendered by the Brooklyn trio. The Caledonia choir sang "Sweeten Every Day" and "My Saviour's Love" followed by the Valleyfield choir singing "Peace Be Still" and "Praise Him, The Lord Of Glory". Selections by the Murray Harbour choir were "Marching On", "Love Of Our Lord" and "Royal Banner" followed by "Grace That Is Greater Than Sin" by the Murray River choir. "Close To Three" was sung by male trio from Murray Harbour. The closing hymn was "What A Friend We Have In Jesus". At the close of the service the ladies of the Caledonia choir served a delicious lunch to the members of the visiting choirs and friends.

MacNevin - MacNeill Wedding

A very pretty wedding took place at the Presbyterian Manse, Clyde River, solemnized by the Rev. Donald Nicholson, when Myrtle Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacNeill, St. Catharines, and Charles Victor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan MacNevin, Canoe Cove, were joined in marriage. The single ring ceremony was performed at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, August 16th.

The bride looked charming in a street-length dress of mauve tissue faille crepe, with a sweetheart neckline arched by soutache braid, and net motifs with a gored skirt. Her finger-tip veil was draped from a matching picture hat. She wore a corsage of pink roses, and her only ornament was a double strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

She was attended by Miss Muriel MacNevin of Moncton, N. B., sister of the groom, who was attired in a street-length dress of white nylon embossed with lavender flowers, and a matching hat. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception for seventy guests was held at the bride's home. The bride's table was centered with a beautifully decorated three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom and lighter tapers. The toast was proposed by the Rev. Donald Nicholson and responded to by the groom. During the evening a large crowd of serenaders gathered to offer felicitations, who were served ice cream and cake.

The young couple left on a short honeymoon to Nova Scotia, the bride travelling in a suit of powder blue with pink accessories. On their return they are residing in Canoe Cove where the groom is a prosperous young farmer.

Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower in St. Catherine's hall, where she received many useful gifts.
