A REMARKABLE WOMAN. Was Lucy Stone One of the Pioneer Advocates of Woman's Rights. Lucy Stone whose death was recently announced, was born in Brookfield, Mass., Aug. 14, 1818. Her grandfather was a colonel in the revolution and also participated in the famous Shay's rebellion.

in that capacity traveling through the then settled portions of the United States and Canada. In 1835 she married Henry B. Blackwell, but believing that her influence as an individual would be compromised by giving up her name it was expressly agreed that she should retain the one she had always borne.

THE CHILDHOOD OF LUCY STONE. She came of good New England stock. Her great grandfather fought in the French and Indian war; her grandfather was an officer in the War of the Revolution, and an afterward captain of four hundred men in Shay's rebellion.

Mr. Branscomb's home is in a Chipman, Queens Co., N. B. It was there that a representative of the Groder company, called upon him, Sept. 1st, of the present year. His greeting, was most cordial. He gladly acknowledged his thanks, giving expression to the following statement:

It is five years since I first became afflicted with a form of indigestion. Last winter it became more severe, developing into chronic diarrhoea. I cannot tell you how much I suffered for SIX LONG WEEKS. It seemed as though relief could not be found. You will remember how I told you of my condition and asked your advice about taking a bottle of GRODER'S SYRUP.

It seems a duty for me to state my case fully, that others who suffer as I did may know where to find a cure. Truly yours, E. A. BRANSCOMB.

Deservedly Popular. Our readers have no doubt read with interest the despatches almost weekly appearing in this and other Canadian journals regarding cures of a most startling nature made by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Enquiry amongst local druggists elicits the facts that they have a very large sale and are an infallible cure for kidney disorders. Dodd's Kidney Pills are manufactured by Dr. L. A. Smith & Co., Toronto, and are sold everywhere, or by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents a box, or 6 boxes for $2.50.

GRATEFUL, PLEASING RELIEF AFTER MANY DAYS. How a Queens County Man Found Permanent Healing. His Own Experience Tells Fully and Freely some Truths which all Readers of this Paper Should Know.

Here and there, in almost every town of our province, are "chronic" cases over which doctors disagree; cases that become worse year after year. It is to reach such that the gentleman to whom these lines refer, and whose portrait is here given, has written the story of his case.

Reading the Bible one day, while still a child, she came upon the text, "Thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee." At first she thought she would never be married, but she resolved to go to college, study Greek and Hebrew, read the Bible in the original, and satisfy herself whether such texts were correctly translated.
